ARIZONA TO HOST SUPER BOWL XLIX

University of Phoenix Stadium will be hosting Super Bowl XLIX in Arizona on February 1, 2015.

Super Bowl XLIX will be the third Super Bowl played in Arizona and the second one at University of Phoenix Stadium. The Cardinals home played host to Super Bowl XLII following the 2007 season when the NY Giants defeated the New England Patriots 17-14. Arizona first hosted the Super Bowl following the 1995 season, when the Dallas Cowboys won Super Bowl XXX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 27-17.

Super Bowl XLII brought with it an estimated economic impact of $500 million, with nearly 100,000 out-of-state visitors and thousands of media members from around the world visiting the Valley.

With Super Bowl XLIX being held in Glendale, Arizona becomes one of just seven host sites to be selected to host the Super Bowl at least three times.

UPCOMING SUPER BOWLS

February 2016	Super Bowl 50	Levi's Stadium, San Francisco
February 2017	Super Bowl LI	NRG Stadium, Houston
February 2018	Super Bowl LII	Vikings Stadium, Minnesota

2015 PRO BOWL TO BE PLAYED AT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

PRO BOWL
ARIZONA 01.25.15

The Pro Bowl following the 2014 season will be played at University of Phoenix Stadium on Sunday, January 25, 2015 and will be televised live on ESPN at 6 p.m. Arizona time. The Cardinals and the Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee will host the Pro Bowl and surrounding activities.

Tickets will be available first to Arizona Cardinals season ticket members and annual Pro Bowl season ticket holders.

The 2015 Pro Bowl will be the third one played in the same city as the Super Bowl. The Los Angeles Coliseum hosted the first Super Bowl on January 15, 1967 and the Pro Bowl the following week. South Florida hosted the Pro Bowl in 2010 a week before Super Bowl XLIV. This will be the sixth consecutive Pro Bowl played prior to the Super Bowl.

This will mark the fifth all-star game of the four major professional sports leagues held in the Phoenix area (NBA in 1975, 1995 and 2009; MLB in 2011).

Watched by 11.4 million viewers in 2014, the Pro Bowl has been the most-watched all-star game in all of sports the past four years.

The 2014 Pro Bowl featured a significantly revised format that will continue. For the first time, the Pro Bowl was "unconferenced," and several key playing rules were changed. Rather than the familiar AFC vs. NFC match-up that had existed since 1971, players were selected without regard to conference in voting by fans, coaches and players.

WILLIAM V. BIDWILL

OWNER

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals began as a child ball boy on Chicago's South Side and continues today as owner.

A native of Chicago, Bill Bidwill presides over the oldest continuously-operated professional football franchise. Founded in 1898, the Cardinals join the Chicago Bears as the only two remaining charter members of the National Football League (1920). As his involvement with the team continues through its eighth different decade, the current one has to rank among the most memorable. The Cardinals captured back-to-back division crowns in 2008 and '09, won their first NFC title and advanced to the Super Bowl for the first time in team history following the '08 season. The team has gone .500 or better in five of the last seven seasons - including a pair of 10-win campaigns in that span - and has sold out all 83 games played at University of Phoenix Stadium since it opened in 2006.

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since Bill's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947. Charles' wife, Violet, then guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years, followed jointly by sons Bill and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). Bill became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinals vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, Bill Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

Bidwill continues to have a regular presence at the Cardinals training facility and is a popular fixture at team events, charity functions and football activities. An active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinals Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

While he is well-known for his understated nature and a preference for staying out of the spotlight, Bidwill has been unable to avoid accolades in recent years for his contributions and accomplishments as Cardinals owner.

At the 2010 annual NFL Combine in Indianapolis, Bidwill was honored with the Paul "Tank" Younger Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance, whose purpose is to promote diversity and equality of job opportunity in the NFL. The Paul "Tank" Younger Award has been presented annually since '03 for extraordinary contributions towards NFL diversity and previous winners include Tony Dungy, Dan Rooney and Bill Walsh. "When you look back over the years, Mr. Bidwill has a long history of hiring minorities to administrative and authoritative positions," said FPA chairman John Wooten. "He has really helped level the playing field and that is what this award is all about."

Also in February of 2010, Bidwill was inducted into the Sports Faith Hall of Fame in Lake Forest, IL. "(He) was honored as a long-time contributor to the NFL and for his contributions to charity, which he has conducted in a very quiet, very generous manner," said Patrick McCaskey, chairman of the group's advisory board and grandson of Chicago Bears legendary head coach George Halas. Bidwill joined Brian Piccolo, the former Bears running back, Tom Monaghan, founder of Domino's Pizza and former owner of the Detroit Tigers, and John Gagliardi, head coach at St. John's (MN) University and college football's all-time wins leader.

At its December 2010 commencement exercises at Northern Arizona University, Bidwill was awarded an honorary doctor of humane letters degree for "his contributions to the university, his community and his profession."

Bidwill was credited with bringing Super Bowl XXX to Arizona in January of 1996. The region again hosted the title game when Super Bowl XLVII was played at University of Phoenix Stadium in February of 2008; it will host its third title game this February when Super Bowl XLIX is played at University of Phoenix Stadium.

Bidwill and his wife, Nancy, were married in September of 1960 and celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in 2010. They are the parents of five children and have nine grandchildren.

MICHAEL BIDWILL

PRESIDENT

NOTECARDS

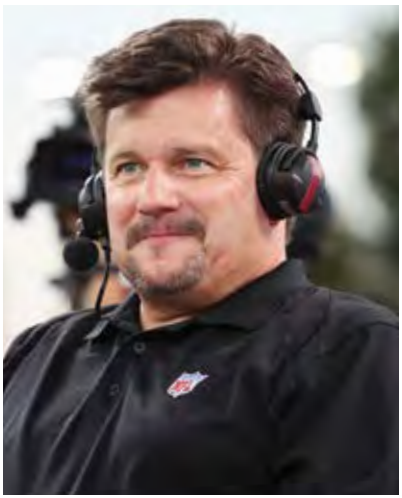
- Since Bidwill took over as team President in 2007, the Cardinals have gone .500 or better in five of seven seasons (just twice in previous 20 years) and posted two double-digit win seasons (none in previous 20).
- In a January 2014 Phoenix Business Journal poll asking "What business leader had the best 2013?" Michael Bidwill finished first with 34% of the votes.
- This past June, Bidwill received the 2014 Transformational Leader Award from the Arizona Chamber of Commerce & Industry.
- Leading his list of Cardinals accomplishments is the creation of University of Phoenix Stadium. Since its opening in 2006, the team has sold out every game played there and has welcomed more than five million fans for Cardinals games.
- Michael was pivotal not only in helping Arizona land Super Bowl XLIX - the second in eight seasons at University of Phoenix Stadium – but he also secured the Pro Bowl for the first time this January. The two events are expected to have an economic impact well in excess of half a billion dollars.

After practicing law for six years as a federal prosecutor, Michael Bidwill joined the Cardinals organization in 1996 as Vice President/General Counsel and today serves as team President. In that time, his influence over the club has been undeniable.

Since taking over as team President in 2007, the Cardinals have gone .500 or better in five of seven seasons (just twice in previous 20 years) and posted two double-digit win seasons (none in previous 20).

The 2013 offseason was a busy but successful one for Bidwill, who spearheaded the searches that resulted in the hirings of General Manager Steve Keim and head coach Bruce Arians. Keim would earn NFL Executive of the Year while Arians merited Coach of the Year consideration after Arizona doubled its win total and matched the greatest one-year turnaround in team history in a 16-game season. Prior to the start of the season, the team also staged its first training camp at University of Phoenix Stadium which proved to be extremely popular and successful.

That strong year was reflected in a January 2014 Phoenix Business Journal poll asking "What business leader had the best 2013?" Michael Bidwill finished in first place with 34% of the votes.



In addition to his prominent role with the Cardinals, Bidwill has established himself as an influential leader in the greater Phoenix business community where he has been a strong advocate for economic growth and development.

From 2008-10, Bidwill served back-to-back terms as Chairman of Greater Phoenix Economic Council (GPEC). He is also a board member of Greater Phoenix Leadership (GPL), an organization composed of the region's top business and civic leaders. In July of 2011, Bidwill and 16 business leaders in the state were appointed to the Arizona Commerce Authority Board of Directors.

This past June, Bidwill received the 2014 Transformational Leader Award from the Arizona Chamber of Commerce & Industry. In November of 2013, he received the "West Valley Regional Advancement Award" from Western Maricopa Coalition, which cited continued positive impact in that community. Bidwill was selected by the Phoenix Business Journal as one of its 25 "Most Admired CEO's" in 2010. The previous year, he also received the Leader for Tomorrow award from the Boy Scouts of America.

Within the NFL, Michael is a member of several prominent league committees. Most notably he chairs the Security and Fan Conduct Committee, a group of eight club executives that oversees and develops best security practices for NFL facilities. He has also been a member of the league's Business Ventures Committee since 2007 and has been on the board of the National Football League Foundation since 2012. The foundation focuses on health and safety in youth sports and has provided $35 million in funding to build nearly 400 youth fields in NFL communities. In May of 2013, Bidwill was among a select group of league executives who participated in the NFL Career Development Symposium at the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business. The three-day program allowed aspiring head coaches and GM candidates to prepare for future opportunities by engaging with key league decision-makers.

Among his most significant accomplishments with the Cardinals was leading the effort that resulted in the creation of University of Phoenix Stadium. The venue has been a major factor in the transformation of the Cardinals and a catalyst for the franchise's success. The team has sold out every game it has played since the iconic stadium's opening and in 2013 eclipsed the five million fan mark for Cardinals games.

Without the stadium, Arizona would also have never hosted another Super Bowl. Instead, University of Phoenix Stadium successfully hosted Super Bowl XLII in 2008 and will again with Super Bowl XLIX this year. Thanks to Bidwill's efforts, Arizona will also host the Pro Bowl this January a week before the Super Bowl, pushing the economic impact of the two games well past half a billion dollars. It will be a busy time for Arizona's Super Bowl Host Committee, on which Michael also serves.

Strong community involvement has been a constant during Bidwill's Cardinals tenure with a particular emphasis on the value of youth sports. In 2011, Bidwill led the team's support of state legislation implementing stronger concussion guidelines and increasing awareness among Arizona high school athletes. Past recognition includes the team's selection as the NFC recipient of the "Pop Warner NFL Team of the Year (2005)" for commitment to the development of youth football. Two years earlier, that same organization presented

Michael with the Glenn S. "Pop" Warner Award, for excellence in athletics, scholarship, and life's endeavors with integrity and humanity.

From 1990–96, Bidwill was an Assistant U.S. Attorney with the Department of Justice in Phoenix where he specialized in homicide and other violent crime cases.

Bidwill earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from St. Louis University in 1987 and in 1990 earned a law degree from Catholic University in Washington, D.C. A licensed pilot and flying enthusiast, Bidwill also donates his time and resources as a volunteer for "Flying Samaritans," a group of volunteers including doctors and other medical personnel who offer free medical clinics in Mexico. He is also a member of the Air Force Chief of Staff Civic Leader Program whose membership, according to the Air Force, "comprises respected community leaders (who) provide ideas and feedback to advise the secretary of the Air Force, the Air Force chief of staff and Air Force senior leaders about how missions can best be accomplished in their respective areas." Michael additionally is a member of the board for the Pat Tillman Foundation, which carries on the legacy of the former Cardinals safety killed in Afghanistan in 2004.

BIDWILL RECEIVES 2014 TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADER AWARD FROM ARIZONA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE & INDUSTRY

In July, Michael Bidwill was awarded the 2014 Transformational Leader Award at the annual Arizona Chamber of Commerce & Industry Awards Luncheon in Phoenix.

The honor is presented annually to a member of the business community who has demonstrated exceptional leadership by creating a vision for positive change in Arizona, inspiring business and industry in pursuit of that vision, and enriching the future for the Arizona community.

"Michael Bidwill is not just the executive of the Cardinals, where he's developed one of the strongest, most recognized brands on the state's sports landscape and helped usher through the construction of one of the most advanced stadiums in the world, but his leadership transcends sports," said Glenn Hamer, the President and CEO of the Arizona Chamber of Commerce and Industry. "I've come to appreciate Michael's commitment to ensuring that the business community continues to cultivate outstanding leadership in the political realm. Michael is driven to create excellent teams on the field, in the board room and in elected office."

RON MINEGAR

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Ron Minegar is beginning his 15th season with the Cardinals after joining the organization from Disney Sports in 2000.

In his current position, the 55-year old Minegar is responsible for developing the club's strategic plan and overseeing all aspects of the Cardinals business operations. He serves as the team's primary negotiator on all broadcast agreements, training camp agreements, concessionaire contracts, ticketing agreements and retail merchandise contracts. Additionally, Minegar was a part of the project team during the design and construction of University of Phoenix Stadium and works closely with the Arizona Sports and Tourism Authority and the stadium's facility management firm on business and operational issues.

Minegar also serves as Chief Operating Officer of Rojo Hospitality Group LLC, which took over the food and beverage contract at University of Phoenix Stadium in 2010. Additionally, he serves in the same capacity for Rojo Event Management LLC. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Arizona Chamber of Commerce and Industry. For that group, he serves as the Vice Chairman of Marketing for the Board's Executive Committee, serves on the Finance Council and is past Chairman of the Energy Committee.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Minegar served as Vice President, Sales and Marketing for Anaheim Sports, Inc., a division of the Walt Disney Corporation. Originally hired to direct marketing and sales for the Anaheim Angels, Minegar ultimately assumed the additional responsibility of overseeing the marketing and sales efforts for the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim.

Minegar began his sports career with the La Crosse, WI franchise of the Continental Basketball Association serving as team President and representing the club's ownership on all league issues from 1985 to 1990. He was a two-time "Executive of the Year" recipient in the CBA as a result of the team achieving league attendance records and a CBA championship. From 1991-1995, he served as the Director of Corporate Sales for the Minnesota Timberwolves and the Target Center. Minegar left the Timberwolves to assist in the start-up of the Minnesota Moose, an expansion franchise in the International Hockey League. In his role as Vice President of Business Operations, he developed the organization's overall business and operational plan and oversaw the launch of the wildly popular Moose logo that resulted in record league merchandise and promotional sales. Upon the announcement of the NHL's return to the Twin Cities in 1997, Minegar assisted in the relocation of the IHL franchise to Winnipeg, Manitoba, then became CEO of Diamond Sports Group and was involved in acquisition projects within minor league baseball, basketball and hockey.

He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse in 1981 and in 1984 earned a master's degree in Business Administration from the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota.

Born in Pittsburgh, PA, Minegar resides in Phoenix. He and his wife, Margaret, have two children: daughter, Jenna, and son, Craig.

STEVE KEIM

GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: North Carolina State

HOMETOWN: Harrisburg, PA

NOTECARDS

- After 15 seasons working within the Cardinals personnel department, was elevated to GM on January 8, 2013
- In Keim's first season as GM, the Cardinals doubled their win total from the previous season (5-11 to 10-6) and the five-game improvement matched the team's best ever (4-12 in '97 to 9-7 in '98).
- Was selected as the 2013 NFL Executive of the Year by both the readers and staff of Pro Football Talk.
- In the period between Keim's hiring and the end of the 2013 season, the Cards made 193 roster moves and turned over more than half the roster. Of the 53 players on the team's final 2013 roster, 28 (52.8%) were not with the team in '12.
- Of the NFL's eight first-year GMs in 2013, Keim was one of just three whose team posted a 10+ win season. The others: Carolina's Dave Gettleman (12-4) & Kansas City's John Dorsey (11-5). Only four of the eight had winning records in year one.

Steve Keim was promoted to General Manager on January 8, 2013 after 15 seasons in the Cardinals organization.

Keim's first year on the job was a particularly busy one as the team executed 193 roster moves between the time he took over and the end of the season. Of the 53 players on the Cardinals' final 2013 roster, 28 (52.8%) were not with the team in 2012.

It was also a very successful year for Keim, who was selected as NFL Executive of the Year by both the readers and staff of Pro Football Talk after helping lead one of the greatest one-year turnarounds in franchise history.

Following a 5-11 season in 2012, the Cardinals finished with a 10-6 record in 2013. That five-win improvement equaled the best one-year turnaround in franchise history in a 16-game season (4-12 in '97 to 9-7 in '98).

The 41-year old Keim originally joined Arizona in May, 1999 as a college scout in the east. He was promoted to Director of College Scouting in 2006, Director of Player Personnel in 2008, and then was promoted to Vice President, Player Personnel in May, 2012.

In his time with the team, Keim and the Cardinals have been commended for their successful draft classes, especially in recent years. Pro Bowlers Patrick Peterson, Larry Fitzgerald, Darnell Dockett and Justin Bethel were acquired through those drafts, as were standouts such as Calais Campbell, Michael Floyd, Tyrann Mathieu and Andre Ellington. Of the 33 different players who started a game for Arizona in 2013, 17 were either drafted by the Cardinals or signed as undrafted rookie free agents. Arizona enters the 2014 season with 27 of the team's draft picks on the roster, with Fitzgerald and Dockett the longest tenured going back to the 2004 NFL Draft. The Cardinals will enter '14 training camp with 45 players who joined the team either as draft picks or undrafted rookie free agents.

Keim attended Red Land High School near Harrisburg, PA and earned a bachelor's degree in communications from North Carolina State 1995. A two-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection as a guard at N.C. State, Keim started 36 consecutive games at left guard for the Wolfpack. He was named the offensive freshman of the year in 1991 and was the ACC Player of the Week following the team's victory over Maryland in November, 1994. During a standout senior season where he was also a captain, Keim was named the N.C. State offensive line MVP and won the Jim Ritcher Award for the highest graded offensive lineman in addition to being named third team All-American from Gameplan magazine.

Keim had a brief stint in pro football as a free agent with the Miami Dolphins (1996) and Edmonton Eskimos (1997) of the Canadian Football League before returning to coach at N.C. State.

He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater for two years, assisted the recruiting coordinator with evaluations, and served as a liaison to NFL personnel wishing to scout Wolfpack football players.

Keim resides in Chandler, AZ with his wife, Kimberly, daughter Sloane, and sons Carson, Brady and Warner.

TURNING OVER THE ROSTER – WITH WINNING RESULTS

As soon as he was hired as GM in January of '13, Steve Keim began the process of reloading the Cardinals roster, a process that was ongoing throughout the season.

From the time he took over as GM through the final week of the season, the Cardinals made 193 roster moves. Of the 53 players on the season-ending roster, 28 were not on the team in 2012, including 10 of the 22 starters in the season finale. Over the final four games, 8 of the team's 11 TDs were scored by players not on the Cardinals roster in 2012.

The Cardinals used all avenues at their disposal – trades, free agency, waiver claims, the NFL Draft, undrafted rookies – to bolster the team. In 2013, the team found contributors in every one of those categories.

BREAKING DOWN THE ACQUISITIONS

Of the 28 players on the 2013 final roster who were not with the Cardinals in 2012:

- 19 combined to start 176 games
- 7 offensive newcomers started 79 games
- 12 defensive newcomers started 97 games
- 6 started all 16 games (Fanaika, Winston, Palmer, Bell, Powers, Dansby)
- 7 combined for 26.5 sacks
- 2 earned NFC Player of the Week honors (Palmer, Abraham)

BRUCE ARIANS

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: Virginia Tech
HOMETOWN: York, PA
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 22/2
DOB: October 3, 1952

NOTECARDS

- Became an NFL head coach for the first time when hired by Arizona on January 17, 2013.
- In his first season, Arians led the Cardinals to a 10-6 record by winning seven of the final nine games; AZ doubled its win total from 2012 and the five-win improvement equaled the team's best one-season turnaround in team history in a 16-game season.
- Among all-time Cardinals coaches, only Norm Barry (11 in 1925) had more wins in his first season than Arians' 10.
- The Cardinals 2013 offense improved 20 spots from 32nd overall in 2012 to 12th overall in '13. Defensively, Arizona went from 12th overall to 6th and against the run went from #28 to #1.
- Arizona's 379 points scored in 2013 tied for the fifth-best total in franchise history; the 1,351 rushing yards allowed were a franchise low for a 16-game season.
- Among the NFL's seven first-year head coaches in 2013, Arians tied Philadelphia's Chip Kelly for the league's best record (both 10-6).
- Arians came to AZ with 20 years of experience as an NFL assistant coach with five different teams: Indianapolis (2012; 1998-2000), Pittsburgh (2004-11), Cleveland (2001-03), New Orleans (1996), and Kansas City (1989-92).

Bruce Arians was named Arizona's head coach on January 17, 2013 when he signed a four-year contract with a team option for a fifth. After earning NFL Coach of the Year honors the previous year as Indy's interim head coach for 12 games, Arians turned in an equally impressive campaign in year one with Arizona.

ARIZONA: In his first season with the Cardinals, the team finished with a 10-6 record after winning seven of its final nine games. Arizona doubled its win total from 2012 and the five-win improvement equaled the best one-season turnaround in team history. It marked the franchise's seventh double-digit win season and first since 2009. Among all-time Cardinals coaches, only Norm Barry (11 in 1925) had more wins in his first season than Arians. Offensively, the team's overall league ranking improved from 32nd to 12th while the defense went from 12th to 6th and finished #1 against the run. Arizona's 379 points scored in 2013 tied for the fifth-best total in franchise history. The 1,351 rushing yards allowed were the fewest ever by a Cardinals team in a 16-game season.

Arizona's eight non-division wins in 2013 represented the highest total in a season since the division realignment in 2002. The Cards finished 4-0 vs. the AFC South and 3-1 vs. the NFC South. They also had a 4-4 road record in '13, marking the team's best since 2009 (6-2) and the ninth time since the 1970 merger that the team had a .500 record or better on the road.

INDIANAPOLIS: Arians came to AZ after one season with the Colts. In addition to offensive coordinator, he served 12 games as interim head coach while Chuck Pagano was treated for leukemia. Arians was selected as the 2012 AP NFL Coach of the Year after leading the Colts to a 9-3 record and a playoff berth while tying the NFL record for most wins ever by an interim coach.

Indy's nine-win improvement (2-14 to 11-5) matched the third-largest single-season turnaround in NFL history. The Colts went through the 2012 season without consecutive losses and were 9-1 in games decided by one score or less.

Arians helped the Colts rank 10th in the NFL (362.4 ypg) in total offense and 7th in passing (258 ypg) and featured rookies that combined for 3,108 yards rushing and receiving, the most of any team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger according to STATS LLC. The Colts completed 65 passes of 20 yards or more that season, ranking third in the NFL (Detroit-67, New Orleans-66).

Rookie QB Andrew Luck, the first overall selection in the 2012 draft, made the Pro Bowl and set NFL rookie single-season records for the most passing yards (4,374), most attempts (627) and 300-yard passing games (six). He also set the NFL single-game rookie record for most passing yards (433, 11/4 vs. Miami). Luck finished third on the NFL's rookie list for TD passes (23) and set the franchise record for rushing TDs by a quarterback (five). His passer rating of 76.5 also was a franchise rookie record. He led the Colts on seven game-winning drives in the fourth quarter or OT, the most by a rookie QB since the 1970 merger.

PITTSBURGH: Prior to Indy, Arians spent eight seasons with the Steelers, five as offensive coordinator (2007-2011) and three as wide receivers coach (2004-2006). During his tenure as offensive coordinator, the Steelers recorded a 55-25 record, tying the Packers for the second-best mark in the NFL in that span. Pittsburgh won three AFC North Division titles, two AFC Championships and earned a victory in Super Bowl XLIII over the Cardinals. Arians was also part of the Steelers Super Bowl XL win as the team's wide receivers coach.

Arians was instrumental in the development of Steelers quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, helping him become the second-youngest quarterback to win two Super Bowls (26 years, 336 days). In 2007, Roethlisberger was selected to his first Pro Bowl and broke Terry Bradshaw's team record for touchdown passes in a season (32). Roethlisberger also finished that season with a team-record passer rating of 104.1.

In 2009, the Steelers offense became the first in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer (Roethlisberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (Santonio Holmes, Hines Ward) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Rashard Mendenhall) in the same season. The team also broke franchise records for passing first downs (210) and passes completed (351).

Arians also helped Hines Ward develop into one of the top receivers in the game. In his eight seasons with Arians, Ward was selected to the 2004 Pro Bowl and was named Super Bowl XL MVP after finishing with 123 receiving yards and a touchdown. Ward also became the Steelers all-time leader in receptions, receiving yards and TDs. In 2010, Ward became the first receiver in Steelers history and fifth in NFL history to reach 11,000 career receiving yards.

In his first season in Pittsburgh (2007), Arians helped the Steelers rank third in the NFL in rushing (2,168 yards) and running back Willie Parker finished fourth in the league with 1,316 rushing yards that season, earning a Pro Bowl selection.

10 WINS IN YEAR ONE

In 2013 Bruce Arians joined Norm Barry (11, 1925) as the only coaches in franchise history to earn at least 10 wins in their first season with the team.

MORE NFL COACHING CAREER: Prior to joining the Steelers, Arians spent three seasons (2001-2003) as offensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns. In 2002 under his guidance, the Browns scored their most points (344) since 1987 and also improved in virtually every major offensive category.

In his first of what would be two stints with the Colts, Arians spent 1998-2000 as the team's quarterback coach, working under offensive coordinator Tom Moore. Arians tutored Peyton Manning in his first three seasons in the league and helped him earn Pro Bowl nods in his second and third seasons (1999-2000). In 2000, Manning set then team single-season records for passing yards (4,413), completions (357), 300-yard games (5), and touchdown passes (33). The 33 TD passes broke the mark established by Johnny Unitas in 1959.

Arians' first job in the NFL was with Kansas City as the team's running backs coach for four seasons (1989-92). With the Chiefs, Arians tutored running back Christian Okoye, who was selected to two Pro Bowls (1989, 1991). Okoye led the league in both rushing attempts (370) and rushing yards (1,480) during the 1989 season and also rushed for 1,031 yards in 1991. Arians spent the '96 season in New Orleans as the Saints tight ends coach.

COLLEGE COACHING CAREER: Arians began his coaching career in 1975 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater and then was elevated to running backs coach. From 1978-80, he coached RBs and WRs at Mississippi State before moving within the SEC to Alabama where he worked under legendary coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. He coached Crimson Tide running backs for two seasons (1981-82) before becoming one of the youngest head coaches in Division I history when Temple University hired him in 1983 at the age of 30. He spent six seasons (1983-88) coaching the Owls but was let go following the 1988 season. Eight stops and two-plus decades later he became a head coach again when he earned the job in Arizona in 2013.

PERSONAL: As a collegiate quarterback at Virginia Tech (1972-74) Arians was voted the team's MVP as a senior. He finished his college career with 78 completions on 174 attempts for 1,270 yards, six touchdowns and eight interceptions in addition to rushing for 539 yards and 14 touchdowns on 135 carries. Arians set a school single-season record for rushing TDs by a QB with 11 in 1974, a mark that was tied by 2014 Cardinals draft pick Logan Thomas in 2009.

A native of Paterson, NJ, Arians grew up in York, PA where he met his wife, Christine. The couple has two children - son, Jake, and daughter, Kristi Anne – as well as a granddaughter, Presley.

INCREDIBLE INTERIM IN INDY

- Named the 2012 AP NFL Coach of the Year after serving 12 games as Indy's interim head coach while Chuck Pagano was treated for leukemia.
- Won both "Coach of the Year" and "Assistant Coach of the Year" by Pro Football Weekly & Pro Football Writers of America, becoming the first to win both in the same year.
- Arians and Pagano shared "Coach of the Year" honors from Philadelphia's Maxwell Club and "AFC Coach of the Year" by Kansas City's NFL 101.

- Led the Colts to a 9-3 record and a playoff berth, while tying the NFL record for most wins ever by an interim coach.
- Indy's nine-win improvement from 2011 (2-14 to 11-5) matched the third-largest single-season turnaround in NFL history.
- QB Andrew Luck set an NFL rookie record with 4,374 passing yards en route to a Pro Bowl selection.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2013, Bruce and Christine Arians created the Arians Family Foundation (AFF) with the goal of helping to prevent the abuse and neglect of children. Through her work as a family-law attorney, Christine has worked with Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) to help ensure that children involved in the court system as a result of abuse or neglect by their families, received the help they need. With the motto "A Voice For Children," Bruce and Christine carry on the work they both hold so close to their hearts—helping provide a future for children to live in where they feel safe and loved.

During its first year, the foundation developed a number of cornerstone events, including the Annual Georgia Celebrity Golf Classic. The inaugural event was held in June of 2013 at Great Waters Gold Club in Reynolds Plantation, GA. The Second Annual Georgia Celebrity Golf Classic was held in June of 2014 at the Oconee Golf Course in Reynolds Plantation. A welcome reception on Sunday preceded the golf tournament on Tuesday, followed by an awards dinner and concert by country star Jessie James.

In November of '13, the AFF held its first annual Putt Putt 4 Purpose Celebrity Golf Challenge at Golfland in Mesa, AZ, in which Cardinals coaches, players, and many others played rounds of putt putt golf to help support the foundation.

With golf again serving as a backdrop, the First Annual Arizona Golf Classic was held March 7-9, 2014 at Westin-Kierland Resort in Scottsdale, AZ. The event was aimed at raising money to train new CASA personnel to help support the 10,000+ kids in foster care in Maricopa County.

In April of '14, the AFF held its inaugural Superhero Walk-Run at Kiwanis Park in Tempe, AZ. Participants were encouraged to dress up as their favorite superhero for a 5K fun run and walk to benefit CASA and the child welfare system in Arizona.

TOM MOORE

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/OFFENSE

COLLEGE: Iowa
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 36/2
DOB: November 7, 1938

NOTECARDS

- Joined the Cardinals on 1/21/13 when he became the team's assistant head coach/offense.
- Enters his 36th season as an NFL assistant. Only Pittsburgh's Dick LeBeau (42nd season) has more experience among active NFL coaches.
- During Moore's 35 seasons in the NFL, his teams have earned 22 postseason appearances, 14 division titles and four Super Bowl appearances (three wins).
- Combined with 13 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level and one year in the World Football League, Moore enters his 50th year of coaching in 2014.
- Has coached Hall of Famers Lynn Swann, John Stallworth, Mike Webster, Barry Sanders, Marshall Faulk, Randall McDaniel and Cris Carter.
- Under his guidance, a total of 23 different NFL players have earned a combined 62 Pro Bowl selections.
- During his time as an offensive coordinator in the NFL, his players have led the league in rushing yards (3x), receiving yards (3x), passing yards (2x), yards from scrimmage (2x), receptions (3x), receiving TDs (once), passing TDs (3x) and passer rating (3x).
- In his first season with Cardinals, Carson Palmer threw for a career-high 4,274 yards, becoming the first player in NFL history to throw for 4,000+ yards with three different teams. Arizona's offense finished with 379 points and 5,542 net yards, both good for fifth in franchise history.
- Coached Peyton Manning for 13 seasons (1998-2010), helping him set Colts franchise records with 54,828 passing yards, 399 touchdowns and 4,682 completions (which all ranked in the top-five in league history) and set an NFL record with four Most Valuable Player Awards (2003-04, 2008-09).
- Only four times in NFL history has a team had two players record 100+ receptions in a single season. Moore served as the offensive coordinator for two of those teams—Indianapolis, 2009 (Reggie Wayne, 100; Dallas Clark 100) and Detroit, 1995 (Herman Moore, 123; Brett Perriman, 108).
- His 1999 unit had Manning with 4,135 yards, running back Edgerrin James with 1,553 yards and wide receiver Marvin Harrison with 1,663 yards, marking only the second NFL offense ever with 4,000-1,500-1,500 performers. The only other team to do that was Detroit in 1995 and their offensive coordinator was Tom Moore.
- In May of 2014, was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame (Western Chapter) in recognition of his 13 seasons as an assistant coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

One of the league's most experienced assistant coaches, Tom Moore enters his 36th NFL season and second in Arizona after he joined the team as assistant head coach/offense on 1/21/13. With a career that dates back to 1961 at his alma mater, the University of Iowa, Moore enters his 50th season as a coach in 2014.

Moore came to Arizona last year after spending the 2011 season as an offensive consultant with the NY Jets and the final five weeks of the 2012 campaign in the same capacity with the Tennessee Titans.

In 2013 with the Cardinals, QB Carson Palmer threw for a career-high 4,274 yards, becoming the first player in NFL history to throw for 4,000+ yards with three different teams. Arizona's offense finished with 379 points and 5,542 net yards, both good for fifth in team history and finished ranked 12th in the NFL. Larry Fitzgerald was selected to his eighth Pro Bowl after having 10 TD receptions.

From 1998-2010, Moore helped coordinate a record-breaking offense in Indianapolis that was among the NFL's most prolific attacks over that stretch. After 12 seasons as the offensive coordinator (1998-09), Moore served as the team's senior offensive assistant in 2010. During those 13 seasons, the Colts offense ranked among the NFL's top five in nine different seasons, five times it led the league in third down conversions, eight times it ranked in the NFL's top three in scoring and seven times it ranked first in fewest sacks allowed. The passing attack ranked in the top five 11 times and never finished lower than sixth during that span. The Colts produced the 10 highest net yardage seasonal totals in club history and topped 5,000 total yards in a franchise-record 13 straight seasons. The club set a franchise seasonal record with 429 points in 2000, then bested the mark in 2003 (447) and again in 2004 (522). Indianapolis amassed 400+ points in 10 of the 13 seasons Moore was with the team. The club scored 522 points in 2004, then the fifth-highest seasonal total in NFL history, while the Colts set a club single-season mark with 66 touchdowns. The Colts boasted a 4,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard rusher and receiver in the same season seven times (1999-2001, 03-04, 06-07), becoming the first team in NFL history to accomplish the feat in three consecutive seasons (1999-01). Under Moore's watch, nine different players from the Colts offense combined for 37 total Pro Bowl selections.

PRO BOWLERS UNDER TOM MOORE

Over Tom Moore's 35 years coaching in the NFL, he has helped 23 players combine for 62 Pro Bowl appearances:

Moore arrived in Indianapolis the same season as Peyton Manning (1998), and under his tutelage Manning went on to earn 11 Pro Bowl selections, six first-team All-Pro nods and became one of the greatest quarterbacks in NFL history. In their 13 years working together, Manning set Colts franchise records with 54,828 passing yards, 399 touchdowns, 4,682 completions (which all ranked in the top-five in league history) and won an NFL-record four Most Valuable Player Awards (2003-04, 2008-09). He is the only player to have 3,000+ yards and 25+ touchdown passes in his first 13 seasons, and he led the NFL in passing yards twice, in passing TDs three times and in passer rating three times. He started the first 208 regular season games of his career, the most in NFL history by any player, and Manning became the only player in the Super Bowl era with 11 double-digit victory seasons and the only player with nine straight seasons with 10+ starting wins.

He threw for 4,000+ yards an NFL-record 11 times and tied Dan Marino's NFL record with 63 300-yard passing performances. In 2004, Manning posted one of the greatest seasons in NFL history by a quarterback, throwing for 4,557 yards and establishing then-NFL records with 49 touchdown passes and a 121.1 passer rating. During his time with Moore in Indianapolis, Manning produced the 13 best seasons in franchise history in completions and yards, the 12 best seasons in attempts, 12 of the 13 best seasons in completion percentage and 13 of the 15 best seasons in touchdown passes.

Also during Moore's tenure with the Colts, wide receivers Marvin Harrison and Reggie Wayne became the two most prolific pass catchers in team history and one of the most formidable tandems in the NFL. Harrison went to eight straight Pro Bowls (1999-06), surpassing 80 receptions and 1,100 yards in all eight of those seasons, including an NFL single-season record 143 catches in 2002. He was a finalist for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2014. Wayne, who joined the Colts as the team's first round pick in 2001, developed into one of the NFL's best WRs with seven straight seasons of 75+ catches and 1,000 receiving yards from 2004-10 and was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (2006-10). Moore also coached running back Edgerrin James from 1999-2005, as James set Colts franchise records with 9,226 yards, 64 rushing TDs and 49 100-yard games on his way to four Pro Bowl selections (1999-2000, 2004-05). James and Harrison topped 100 yards in their respective categories in the same game 22 times, the most by any tandem in NFL history. In 2000, Manning (passing yards) and James (rushing yards) led the NFL in their respective categories, marking only the second time in NFL history (1937, Washington QB Sammy Baugh and RB Cliff Battles) one team had the passing and rushing champion. Manning (11), Harrison (8), Wayne (5), Jeff Saturday (5) and James (4) earned multiple Pro Bowl bids during Moore's tenure. James also won two NFL rushing titles (1999, 2000).

Moore entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1977 where he coached for 13 seasons. In that span, Moore coached wide receivers (1977-82) before assuming the role of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach (1983-89). He helped lead the Steelers to victories in Super Bowl XIII (35-31 over Dallas) and Super Bowl XIV (31-19 over Rams). During his six seasons as wide receivers coach in Pittsburgh, Moore coached future Hall of Famers Lynn Swann and John Stallworth, both of whom earned multiple Pro Bowl selections under Moore. As offensive coordinator, Moore also helped tutor future Hall of Fame center Mike Webster, who went to the Pro Bowl five times during Moore's tenure. In seven seasons at the helm of the Pittsburgh offense, the team piled up over 5,000 yards four different seasons.

Following his tenure in Pittsburgh, Moore joined the Minnesota Vikings (1990-93), serving as assistant head coach/quarterbacks (1990), assistant head coach/offensive coordinator (1991) and wide receivers coach (1992-93). It was under Moore's guidance that future Hall of Famer Cris Carter earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 1993 after setting then-career marks for receptions (86) and receiving yards (1,071). He then joined Detroit as quarterbacks coach (1994) before being promoted to offensive coordinator (1995-96). During that three-year span, Barry Sanders ran for nearly 5,000 yards (5.2 yard avg.). In 1995, Detroit led the NFL in total offense (6,113 yards) and became the first NFL team to have two receivers post 100+ receptions (Herman Moore, 123; Brett Perriman, 108). The 3,174 combined yards by Moore and Perriman set the NFL single-season record for receiving yards by a tandem. Herman Moore posted career-highs in receptions (123), receiving yards (1,686) and receiving TDs (14). Following his tenure in Detroit, Moore spent one season in New Orleans as the Saints running backs coach (1997).

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Iowa, serving as the freshmen team coach from 1961-62. Following a two-year stint serving in the United States Army (1963-64), where he coached a division team in Korea and the post team at Fort Benning, GA, Moore served as offensive backfield coach at Dayton from 1965-68.

He then worked as offensive coordinator at Wake Forest (1969) and offensive backfield coach at Georgia Tech (1970-71) before assuming the offensive backfield position at the University of Minnesota (1972-73). Following one season (1974) in the World Football League with the New York Stars as an offensive assistant, Moore returned to the University of Minnesota as offensive coordinator from 1975-76.

After earning All-America honors as a quarterback at Rochester (MN) High School, Moore went on to play at Iowa (1957-60), winning a Big 10 title in 1958 and earning a share of another in 1960. He earned a bachelor's degree in History at Iowa and a master's degree in Guidance Counseling at Dayton. In 2005, Moore was inducted into the Rochester, Minnesota Sports Hall of Fame.

Moore and his wife Emily, have two children, daughter, Terry and son, Dan.

NOTECARDS

- Hired as Cardinals defensive coordinator on 1/21/13 after spending the 2012 season with Philadelphia Eagles.
- 14-year NFL assistant who has also coached with the New York Jets, Cleveland Browns, Dallas Cowboys and Miami Dolphins during his career.
- In his first year in Arizona, the Cardinals had the NFL's sixth ranked defense and No. 1 ranked run defense. They allowed the fewest rushing yards in team history for a 16-game season (1,351 yards), had 47.0 sacks (third in team history) and 30 takeaways (tied for sixth in NFL), including 20 INTs (fifth in NFL).
- Played defensive back in the NFL for eight seasons with the Washington Redskins (1986-90; 1992-93) and San Francisco 49ers (1991).
- Played collegiately at Temple (1982-85) where he was a team captain under head coach Bruce Arians in 1985.
- Served as interim head coach for the Miami Dolphins for the final three games of the 2011 season, posting a 2-1 record.
- Was a member of the 1987 Washington Redskins Super Bowl XXII championship team.

Todd Bowles enters his second season as defensive coordinator with the Cardinals and 15th as an NFL assistant after he was hired on 1/21/13. In his first season with the Cardinals, Bowles directed a defense that finished as the NFL's sixth-ranked overall unit and featured the league's top-ranked run defense (84.4 yards per game) after allowing the fewest rushing yards in team history for a 16-game season (1,351). The Cardinals also accumulated 47.0 sacks, the third-highest total in franchise history and had 30 takeaways (tied for sixth in NFL), including 20 interceptions which tied for the fifth-best total in the NFL. Patrick Peterson earned his second consecutive selection to the Pro Bowl at cornerback and Pro Bowl OLB John Abraham had 11.5 sacks to lead the team and set a franchise record for most sacks by a linebacker in a single season.

He came to Arizona last year from Philadelphia where he split the 2012 season between working as the Eagles defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach. He was named Philadelphia's defensive coordinator on 10/16/12 after spending the first six games of the 2012 season as the team's secondary coach. The Eagles finished 2012 ninth in the NFL in pass defense (216.9 ypg).

Bowles previously coached in the NFL with Miami (2008-11), Dallas (2005-07), Cleveland (2001-04) and the New York Jets (2000). He is a veteran of eight seasons as an NFL defensive back with Washington (1986-90; 1992-93) and San Francisco (1991).

He joined the Eagles in 2012 after serving as the assistant head coach/secondary coach for Miami from 2008-11. He was named the Dolphins interim head coach for the final three games of the 2011 season and posted a 2-1 record. Under his leadership, Dolphins defensive backs helped hold opposing quarterbacks to a 58.1% completion rating, which ranked seventh in the NFL. In 2010, the Dolphins ranked eigth in the NFL in passing defense and featured Pro Bowl safety Yeremiah Bell.

From 2005-07, Bowles was the secondary coach of the Dallas Cowboys, coaching a unit that compiled 52 interceptions over those three seasons, tying for third-most in the NFC during that span, and ranked fifth in the NFC by holding their opponents to just 310.4 total yards per game. During his time in Dallas, Bowles coached three defensive backs to five Pro Bowl appearances: safeties Roy Williams (2005-07) and Ken Hamlin (2007) and cornerback Terence Newman (2007).

Prior to the Cowboys, Bowles was a four-year defensive assistant for Cleveland (2001-04), serving as both the secondary coach (2004) and the defensive nickel package coach (2001-03). As secondary coach in 2004, the Browns held their opposition to just 181.3 passing yards per game, which ranked fifth in the league. In 2001, his first year with the Browns, Cleveland's defense set a franchise record with a league-leading 33 interceptions, including 28 from defensive backs and 10 from rookie Anthony Henry.

Bowles began his NFL coaching career as the defensive backs coach with the New York Jets in 2000 and coached a secondary that finished sixth in the league in pass defense, allowing 183.3 yards per game.

Following the conclusion of his playing career, Bowles worked in the player personnel department of the Green Bay Packers for two years (1995-96) prior to beginning his coaching career as an assistant under his former Redskins teammate Doug Williams as the defensive coordinator/secondary coach at Morehouse College (1997) and the defensive coordinator/secondary coach at Grambling State (1998-99).

One of Bowles' mentors during his career was 2013 Hall of Fame inductee Bill Parcells. Bowles worked under Parcells with the New York Jets in 2000 (Parcells was GM), Dallas Cowboys in 2005-06 (Parcells was head coach) and Miami Dolphins from 2008-10 (Parcells was Executive VP of Football Operations).

A native of Elizabeth, NJ, Bowles attended Temple University where he was a four-year letterman (1982-85) and a team captain as a defensive back. After going undrafted in the 1986 NFL Draft, Bowles went on to appear in 117 regular season games and had 15 interceptions and seven fumble recoveries in his career. He was also a starter for the 1987 Washington Redskins Super Bowl XXII championship team.

Bowles and his wife, Taneka, have a daughter, Sydni, and three sons, Todd Jr., Troy and Tyson.

HAROLD GOODWIN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: Michigan
HOMETOWN: Columbia, SC
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 11/2
DOB: November 14, 1973

NOTECARDS

- Named Cardinals offensive coordinator on 1/21/13 after working as the Indianapolis Colts offensive line coach in 2012.
- The 2014 season will be the eighth consecutive season Goodwin has worked under Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians after previous assignments with Pittsburgh (2007-11) and Indianapolis (2012).
- During his first season with the Cardinals, Arizona's offense improved 20 spots to 12th overall in 2013. The Cardinals totaled 379 points on the year (tied for fifth in team history) and piled up 5,542 net yards of offense (also good for fifth in franchise history).
- In 2012, Goodwin helped the Colts to a nine-win improvement from 2011 (2-14 to 11-5), which matched the third-largest single-season turnaround in NFL history.
- Played collegiately at Michigan on the offensive line (1992-94) before beginning his coaching career with the Wolverines as a student assistant (1995-96) and a graduate assistant in 1997.
- Brother, Jonathan, is a center for the New Orleans Saints.

Harold Goodwin enters his second season with the Cardinals as offensive coordinator after he was hired on 1/21/13. He joined the Cardinals last year after working one season as the offensive line coach with the Indianapolis Colts (2012) and five seasons (2007-11) as an offensive assistant with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

In his first season in Arizona, Goodwin helped lead a Cardinals offense that ranked 12th in the NFL, totaled 379 points (tied for fifth in franchise history) and collected 5,542 net yards of offense (fifth in team history). QB Carson Palmer threw for a career-high 4,274 yards, rookie RB Andre Ellington totaled 1,023 scrimmage yards (552 rushing, 371 receiving) and WR Larry Fitzgerald earned his eighth career Pro Bowl selection after having a team-high 10 touchdowns.

As offensive line coach with the Colts in 2012, Goodwin helped an Indy offense that finished 10th in the NFL (362.4 ypg) and featured rookies that combined for 3,108 yards rushing and receiving, the most of any team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger according to STATS, LLC. Rookie QB Andrew Luck threw for the most passing yards (4,374) by a rookie in NFL history and had an NFL rookie record six 300-yard passing games. He also led the Colts on seven game-winning drives in the fourth quarter or OT, the most by a rookie QB since the 1970 merger.

Indy's nine-win improvement from 2011 (2-14 to 11-5) matched the third-largest single-season turnaround in NFL history. Rookie RB Vick Ballard ran for 814 yards in 2012, the sixth-most rushing yards by a rookie in Colts team history.

While with the Steelers as an offensive assistant, Goodwin worked closely with the offensive line, which consistently helped produce one of the NFL's top rushing attacks. During his tenure in Pittsburgh, the Steelers averaged 118.5 rushing yards per game. He helped the Steelers win Super Bowl XLIII and advance to Super Bowl XLV.

In 2010, Goodwin assisted in the development of rookie center Maurkice Pouncey, who started all 16 regular season games, earned a trip to the Pro Bowl and was named to The Sporting News and PFW/PFWA All-Rookie teams. Pouncey was the first Steelers rookie to start his first NFL game since Marvel Smith in 2000. Pouncey earned Pro Bowl selections in both of his seasons working with Goodwin.

Goodwin got his start in the NFL with the Chicago Bears, spending three seasons as an assistant offensive line coach (2004-2006). During that span the Bears ranked 10th in the NFL averaging 117.5 rushing yards per game. While coaching the Bears, he faced off against his brother, Jonathan, in the 2006 NFC Championship Game. Jonathan was a reserve lineman with the Saints at the time.

Prior to joining the Bears, Goodwin was the offensive line coach at Central Michigan from 2000-2003, where he worked with future pros Eric Ghiaciuc and Adam Kieft. Goodwin also served as assistant head coach in 2003.

Goodwin began his coaching career at Eastern Michigan where he spent the 1998 season overseeing tight ends and offensive tackles. In 1999, he transitioned to coaching the offensive line. A native of Columbia, SC, Goodwin was a guard at Michigan (1992-1994) and played two seasons (1993-94) before a knee injury ended his career.

Following his playing days, he remained in Ann Arbor and spent the next two years (1995-96) as a student assistant before serving as a graduate assistant with the Wolverines in 1997 when Michigan won the national title. During that time, he worked with an offensive line which featured future seven-time Pro Bowler Steve Hutchinson, along with 2001 first round pick Jeff Backus and 1999 second-round selection Jon Jansen.

Goodwin's brother, Jonathan, is a center in his second stint with the New Orleans Saints. He spent the 2006-10 seasons in New Orleans, earning a Pro Bowl berth in 2010 before signing with San Francisco. Jonathan returned to New Orleans prior to this season.

Harold graduated from Michigan in 1996 with a degree in Sports Management/Communications. He and his wife, Monica, have three children, daughters Kylee and Miya and a son, Bryson.

AMOS JONES

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: Alabama
HOMETOWN: Aliceville, AL
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 8/2
DOB: December 31, 1959

NOTECARDS

- Hired as special teams coordinator on 2/5/13 after spending six seasons in Pittsburgh; Jones spent his first five seasons with the Steelers as assistant special teams coach and was promoted to Pittsburgh's special teams coach on 8/23/12.
- In his first season in Arizona, helped Justin Bethel earn selection to the Pro Bowl as a special teams player while punter Dave Zastudil tied for the NFL lead with 35 punts inside the 20-yard line.
- A veteran of seven seasons as an NFL assistant in addition to working 21 seasons as a college assistant.
- Coached at Temple under then head coach Bruce Arians from 1983-88. He coached tight ends (1983-85) and the defensive line (1986-88), while also coordinating the Owls special teams under Arians.
- Played running back and safety at Alabama under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. Jones started his coaching career as a graduate assistant (1981-82) at Alabama in Bryant's final two years as the head coach.

Amos Jones begins his second season as special teams coordinator with the Cardinals after joining the team on 2/5/13. In 2013, Jones helped Justin Bethel earn his first career Pro Bowl selection as a special teams player after he led the Cardinals with 21 special teams tackles and two blocked field goals. Punter Dave Zastudil tied for the NFL lead with 35 punts inside the 20-yard line and his 45.7-yard punting average ranked as the third-best single-season total in franchise history.

Jones came to Arizona last year after working with Pittsburgh for six seasons, the first five as assistant special teams coach and then as special teams coach in 2012 after he was promoted just prior to the beginning of the season. In 2012, the Steelers featured kicker Shaun Suisham, who was 28 of 31 on field goals, and kick returner Chris Rainey, who had 1,035 kickoff return yards, the third-most in a single season in team history.

With the Steelers, Jones was instrumental in the development of Antonio Brown, who in 2011 set a franchise record with 2,048 all-purpose yards, with 1,062 of those yards coming on returns. Brown returned his first career touchdown on a punt return for 60 yards and registered an 89-yard kick return for a touchdown as well. Dating back to 1941, he became one of just three Steelers players with at least one punt return for a touchdown and one kick return for a touchdown in a season. Brown finished the 2011 season with a 27.3-yard average on kickoff returns and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl as a returner.

In 2009, the Steelers were the NFL's top kickoff return team with a franchise record 1,581 return yards. Stefan Logan had a team record 1,466 kickoff return yards, breaking the previous team record of 1,306 yards by Ernie Mills in 1995. Jones also coached the Steelers to the NFL's top kick coverage unit during the 2008 season. The units were led by Anthony Madison, who led the team with 25 special teams tackles, and Patrick Bailey, who was named the Steelers' Rookie of the Year for his outstanding work on special teams.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Jones spent three years at Mississippi State as special teams/linebackers coach (2004-05) and outside linebackers coach (2006). Under Jones' guidance, three linebackers earned freshman All-SEC recognition and two punters earned all-conference honors.

Jones spent the 2003 season at James Madison University where he served as the Dukes tight ends and special teams coach. Prior to James Madison, Jones coached running backs and special teams for four years (1999-2002) at the University of Cincinnati. While at Cincinnati, he helped All-American placekicker Jonathan Ruffin earn the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker in 2000. During that same span, his punter, Adam Wulfeck, earned All-Conference USA honors, and he coached a pair of 1,000-yard rushers. Jones helped the Bearcats reach three bowl games (2000-01 Motor City Bowl, 2002 New Orleans Bowl) during his tenure at Cincinnati.

A veteran assistant coach at the high school, collegiate and professional level, Jones worked one season as an assistant coach with British Columbia of the Canadian Football League (1997), helping guide them to a Western Division playoff berth. He also coached linebackers at Tulane University for two seasons (1995-96) after spending the 1992 season at the University of Pittsburgh as kicking game coordinator.

A former player at Alabama (1978-80), Jones played safety and running back under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant with the Crimson Tide. He got his start in coaching under Bryant at Alabama as a graduate assistant from 1981-82. He then made the second of his two coaching stints with the Crimson Tide as special teams coach in 1990-91 under head coach Gene Stallings. In 1990 under his guidance, Alabama had the nation's top-rated percentage kicker (Philip Doyle).

Between his two assignments at Alabama, Jones served under head coach Bruce Arians at Temple University (1983-88). He coached tight ends (1983-85) and the defensive line (1986-88) at Temple, while also coordinating the Owls special teams.

A graduate of Alabama with a degree in Physical Education and a minor in History, Jones was a member of the 1978 and '79 Tide teams that went 23-1 and earned back-to-back SEC titles, National Championships and Sugar Bowl crowns. Jones later earned his master's degree in Secondary Education from Alabama.

Jones and his wife Stacey, have four children, daughter Samantha and sons Joshua, Nathan and Jeremy.

PETE ALOSI

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

COLLEGE: Salisbury University
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 5/5
HOMETOWN: Massapequa, NY
DOB: July 31, 1982

Assistant strength and conditioning coach Pete Alosi enters his seventh season with the Cardinals and fifth as a full time staffer after being promoted in June, 2010. He spent his first two seasons as a staff assistant after being hired in February, 2008 and now begins his first season working with strength and conditioning coach Buddy Morris.

Alosi previously served offseason internships with the Cleveland Browns (2006) and New York Giants (2007) before working as a sports performance coach at Arizona State University in 2007.

He played collegiately as a linebacker at Salisbury University (2000-02) before working as a strength and conditioning intern with the Hofstra University football team in the summer of 2003. He then worked as a sports performance coach at Velocity Sports Performance from 2004-05 prior to joining the Browns.

A native of Massapequa, NY, Alosi earned his bachelor's degree in Exercise Science from Salisbury in 2004. His brother, Sal, is the head strength coach at UCLA.

JAMES BETTCHER

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: University of St. Francis (IN) HOMETOWN: Lakeview, IN
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 3/2
DOB: May 27, 1978

James Bettcher enters his second season with the Cardinals as outside linebackers coach after he joined the team on 2/5/13. He is in his third season in the NFL after serving as special assistant to the head coach with the Indianapolis Colts in 2012.

In his first season in Arizona, Bettcher helped coach a Cardinals defense that collected 47 sacks, the third-highest total in franchise history, while also finishing with the NFL's sixth-ranked overall defense and featuring the league's top-ranked run defense (84.4 yards per game). The Cardinals allowed the fewest rushing yards in team history for a 16-game season (1,351). OLB John Abraham was selected to his fifth career Pro Bowl, and first as a linebacker, after he led the team with 11.5 sacks in 2013, the most sacks by a linebacker in a single-season in team history.

In 2012, Bettcher assisted Colts head coach Chuck Pagano and 2012 NFL Coach of the Year Bruce Arians, who served as interim coach for 12 games while Pagano was receiving treatment for leukemia. Bettcher coached the Colts outside linebackers, helping Robert Mathis earn a selection to his first Pro Bowl at OLB and fifth selection overall. The Colts improved from 2-14 in 2011 to 11-5 in 2012, tied for the third-largest turnaround in NFL history and earned a Wild Card berth in the AFC playoffs.

Prior to joining the Colts, Bettcher spent nine years in the college coaching ranks. In 2011, he served as linebackers coach/special teams coordinator at New Hampshire, and he coached the NCAA FCS leading tackler and 2011 Buck Buchanan Award Winner (FCS National Defensive Player of the Year), Matt Evans. He also helped the Wildcats rank in the top 20 nationally in both punt return and punt coverage.

Bettcher coached defensive ends and special teams at Ball State in 2010, where he helped tutor Robert Eddins who led the team in sacks and earned All-MAC honors. From 2007-2009, Bettcher worked as a defensive assistant/defensive graduate assistant at the University of North Carolina, coaching linebackers and special teams and helped the 2009 team finish sixth in the nation in overall defense. At UNC, Bettcher worked with future NFL Pro Bowler Robert Quinn in addition to linebackers Bruce Carter and Quinton Coples. In 2006, he was a defensive graduate assistant at Bowling Green State University, working with the secondary and special teams units.

His coaching career began at his alma mater, the University of St. Francis (IN), from 2003-05 as special teams coordinator and defensive line coach. He also worked with the strength and conditioning staff and was the head track coach in 2003-04. During his stint at St. Francis, the Cougars made three trips to the playoffs, including two national championship game appearances.

During his playing career at St. Francis as an offensive lineman, Bettcher was a three-time NAIA All-America Scholar, a three-time Mid-States Football Association Scholar, a two-time NAIA Coaches All-America choice and a two-time Don Hansen's All-America selection. He earned all-conference honors three times and was the recipient of the Silver Helmet Award for leadership, coachability and performance on the field in 2002. Bettcher was also a five-time track All-America choice for the Cougars, where he placed second in the shot put at the 2001 NAIA Championships.

Bettcher, a native of Lakeville, IN, was inducted into the University of St. Francis Hall of Fame in 2012. He and his wife, Erica, have one son, Colton.

ANTHONY BLEVINS

COACHING ASSISTANT/SPECIAL TEAMS

COLLEGE: Alabama-Birmingham
HOMETOWN: Birmingham, AL
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 2/2
DOB: July 23, 1976

Anthony Blevins enters his second season with the Cardinals after he joined the team as a coaching assistant/special teams on 2/14/13.

He came to the Cardinals after spending the 2012 season at his alma mater, the University of Alabama-Birmingham, as the cornerbacks coach following three seasons at Tennessee State (2009-11) coaching special teams and cornerbacks. He also worked at the University of Tennessee-Martin in 2008 coaching cornerbacks while also serving as recruiting coordinator.

He was a part of the NFL's minority summer coaching internship program with the Indianapolis Colts in 2011, the Cardinals in 2010 and the Chicago Bears in 2008.

Blevins was a three-year letter-winner at UAB as a cornerback for the Blazers (1995-98). He played professionally for the Mobile Admirals of the Regional Football League (1999), the Birmingham Steeldogs of AFL2 (2000) and for the Birmingham Thunderbolts in the XFL from 2000-01.

He began his coaching career as the secondary coach and team community liaison at Meadowcreek (Gwinnett, GA) High School in 2003-04. From 2005-07 he served as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State, helping coach wide receivers and defensive backs for the Bulldogs while also assisting special teams.

A native of Birmingham, AL, Blevins graduated from UAB in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in Sociology and also earned a master's in Instructional Technology.

BRENTSON BUCKNER

DEFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: Clemson
HOMETOWN: Charlotte, NC
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 14/2
DOB: September 30, 1971

Veteran NFL defensive lineman Brentson Buckner enters his second season with the Cardinals and second year as an NFL assistant after joining the team as defensive line coach on 2/5/13.

A second-round pick (50th overall) of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1994 NFL Draft out of Clemson, Buckner played in 174 games with 127 starts in his 12-year NFL career with Pittsburgh (1994-96), Cincinnati (1997), San Francisco (1998-2000) and Carolina (2001-05). He totaled 31 sacks, two interceptions, five forced fumbles and seven fumble recoveries in his career.

In his first year as an assistant coach, Buckner helped a Cardinals defense that finished as the NFL's sixth-ranked overall unit and featured the league's top-ranked run defense (84.4 yards per game). The Cardinals allowed the fewest rushing yards in team history for a 16-game season (1,351) and collected 47 sacks, the third-highest total in franchise history. Defensive end Calais Campbell had a career-high nine sacks and joined defensive tackle Darnell Dockett as Pro Bowl alternates.

As a member of the Steelers, Buckner started all 16 games during the 1995 regular season and three playoff games in helping the Steelers reach Super Bowl XXX, which was played at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe. After three years with Pittsburgh, he was traded to Kansas City in 1997, but was waived by the Chiefs and claimed by Cincinnati prior to the season.

He signed with the 49ers as a free agent in 1998 and spent three seasons in San Francisco, setting a career high with seven sacks in 2000. He then went to Carolina as a free agent in 2001 and played the final five years of his career with the Panthers.

In 2003, he was a part of one of the league's top defensive lines alongside defensive ends Julius Peppers and Mike Rucker and defensive tackle Kris Jenkins. The group helped lead the Panthers to Super Bowl XXXVIII, the first Super Bowl appearance in franchise history. In that year's NFC Championship Game, Buckner had 1.5 sacks in a 14-3 victory at Philadelphia.

After retiring from the NFL following the 2005 season, Buckner entered the high school coaching ranks in his hometown of Charlotte, serving as the defensive coordinator at Victory Christian High School and then as head coach at Northside Christian Academy from 2008-09. He served as a training camp coaching intern with the Steelers for three years (2010-12), and was named the head coach of the Charlotte Speed of the Professional Indoor Football League in July 2012, but the team folded before playing a game.

Born in Columbus, GA, Buckner played collegiately at Clemson (1990-93). A three-year starter, he left ranked third in school history with 22 sacks and fourth with 46 tackles for loss. He helped the Tigers to an ACC Championship in 1991 and a nine-win season in 1993, which was capped off by a 14-13 win over Kentucky in the Peach Bowl when he had 13 tackles and was named Defensive MVP. In 2013, Buckner was named to the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame Class.

MIKE CALDWELL

LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: Middle Tennessee State
HOMETOWN: Oak Ridge, TN
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 18/3
DOB: August 31, 1971

Mike Caldwell enters his second season as linebackers coach, his second stint in Arizona after playing the same position with the Cardinals in 1997. He joined the Cardinals as an assistant on 2/5/13 after a five-year coaching tenure with the Philadelphia Eagles (2008-12).

With the Cardinals in 2013, Caldwell oversaw an inside linebacker group that featured standout seasons from Karlos Dansby and Daryl Washington. A second-team All-Pro selection, Dansby established career highs in tackles (135), INTs (4) and passes defensed (21), while also notching 6.5 sacks. He became just the fourth player with at least six sacks, four INTs and two INT-return TDs in a season since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Washington finished second on the team with 81 tackles while also adding three sacks, 10 tackles for loss, two INTs and a fumble recovery.

Arizona's defense finished as the NFL's sixth-ranked overall unit and featured the league's top-ranked run defense (84.4 yards per game) after allowing the fewest rushing yards in team history for a 16-game season (1,351). The Cardinals also had 47 sacks, the third-highest total in franchise history, and had 30 takeaways, including 20 interceptions which tied for the fifth-best total in the NFL.

After serving as a training camp coaching intern with the Eagles in 2007, Caldwell began his coaching career as a defensive quality control coach with Philadelphia in 2008. He was promoted to assistant linebackers coach in 2010 and elevated to linebackers coach in 2011. During his first season overseeing the linebackers, Caldwell helped develop several young players into key roles, including Jamar Chaney who intercepted three passes to go along with a team-leading 104 tackles. He also integrated two rookies into the rotation – sixth round pick Brian Rolle, who started 13 games and contributed 63 tackles, one sack and a fumble recovery for a TD, and fourth rounder Casey Matthews. In 2012, Caldwell oversaw standout linebacker DeMeco Ryans, who led the team with 113 tackles and 15 tackles for loss.

A linebacker and special teams standout during his playing days in the league, Caldwell enjoyed an 11-year NFL career with Cleveland (1993-95), Baltimore (1996), Arizona (1997), Philadelphia (1998-2001), Chicago (2002) and Carolina (2003).

He played in 159 career regular season games and posted 14.5 sacks and eight INTs, while also proving to be a top special teams performer. He was voted by his teammates as the Eagles special teams MVP in 1998. During his lone season in Arizona in 1997, Caldwell appeared in all 16 games and totaled 33 tackles, two sacks, an INT, a forced fumble and nine special teams tackles.

Born in Oak Ridge TN, Caldwell played collegiately at Middle Tennessee State before being selected in the third round (83rd overall) by the Browns in the 1993 NFL Draft. He earned his degree from Middle Tennessee State in Business Administration. Caldwell and his wife, Sue, have two daughters, Sydnei and Saniah, and a son, Simeon. His niece, Nikki, is the head women's basketball coach at LSU.

RICK CHRISTOPHEL

TIGHT ENDS

COLLEGE: Austin Peay
HOMETOWN: Reading, OH
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 2/2
DOB: October 27, 1952

Veteran collegiate coach Rick Christophel (KRIS-tuh-fell) enters his second season with the Cardinals and second year in the NFL after he joined the team as tight ends coach on 2/5/13. Christophel came to the Cardinals last year after spending the previous six years (2007-12) as the head coach at his alma mater, Austin Peay State University.

With the Cardinals in 2013, Christophel helped Arizona's offense finish 12th overall in the NFL and score 379 points on the year, tied for the fifth-best single season total in franchise history. Arizona's 5,542 net yards of offense last season were also good for fifth in team annals.

While at Austin Peay, Christophel led the Governors to a 7-4 record in his first season at the helm (2007), becoming the first Austin Peay head coach since his mentor, Watson Brown (1979), to win seven games in his initial season. The seven wins represented the highest total by a Governors scholarship program since the 1984 team went 7-4 and their 5-3 Ohio Valley Conference record were their most league victories since 1980.

Prior to his stint as the head coach at Austin Peay, Christophel amassed more than 25 years of experience as a college assistant.

He spent 12 years (1995-2006) at the University of Alabama-Birmingham, where he served in a variety of roles at the school. He began his tenure in 1995 as offensive coordinator/running backs coach before coaching the team's wide receivers from 1996-98 where he tutored junior receiver Darrius Malone, who set the school's single-season record with an average of 22.1 yards per catch. In 1997, he coached quarterback Kevin Drake, who became the first offensive player in UAB history to go to the NFL when he signed a free-agent contract with the Cardinals.

In 1999, Christophel worked with the Blazers offensive tackles and tight ends before serving as wide receivers coach in 2000, also taking on the title of director of football operations that year. In 2001, Christophel began the first of two stints as defensive coordinator at UAB, helping the Blazers defense lead the country in rushing yards allowed (57.3 ypg), ranking fifth nationally in total defense (265.9 yards) and finishing 16th in scoring defense with 18.7 points per game. From 2002-03 he stepped away from coaching, serving as a senior associate athletics director at the school.

He returned to the sideline in 2004 working with both the offensive and defensive line before becoming the assistant head coach/defensive line in 2005 and serving as the defensive coordinator for the second time at the school in 2006.

Prior to working at UAB, Christophel coached wide receivers at Mississippi State for four seasons (1991-94). From 1993-94, he worked alongside Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians, who was the offensive coordinator for the Bulldogs at the time. During Christophel's tenure at Mississippi State, he coached three future NFL receivers – Eric Moulds, Olanda Truitt and Willie Harris. The Bulldogs played in three bowl games during that span as well (Liberty Bowl-1991 and Peach Bowl-1993 and 1995).

He coached at Vanderbilt for five seasons (1986-90), holding various titles including offensive backs coach (1986-88), defensive coordinator and middle linebackers coach (1989) and assistant head coach and offensive backs coach (1990).

Before working at Vanderbilt, Christophel coached quarterbacks and running backs at Rice (1984-85) and was the quarterbacks/tight ends coach at Cincinnati in 1983. Prior to that, he was the offensive coordinator at Southern Arkansas State University in 1982 and coached running backs at Austin Peay for three seasons (1979-81). He got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Austin Peay (1975) and then was an assistant coach at Highlands High School (Fort Thomas, KY) from 1976-78.

Christophel was a four-year starter on the Governors football team (1971-74). A two-time captain, he played safety in his first season before switching to play quarterback for his final three years. His brothers, Rob and Randy, also played quarterback at Austin Peay.

He received a bachelor's degree in Business in 1975 and a master's in Education from Austin Peay. A native of Reading, OH, Christophel and his wife, Connie, have three daughters, Chrissy, Carrie and Sara, and five grandchildren.

COLLEGE: San Jose State
HOMETOWN: San Jose, CA
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 9/2
DOB: March 31, 1964

David Diaz-Infante enters his second season with the Cardinals after he was hired as an offensive assistant in 2013.

Diaz-Infante played seven seasons in the NFL as a guard and center with the San Diego Chargers, Denver Broncos and Philadelphia Eagles. During his NFL career, he played in 69 games with nine starts and earned Super Bowl rings with the Broncos in 1998 and 1999.

He also played in the World League of American Football with the Frankfurt Galaxy (1991-92), the Sacramento Gold Miners in the Canadian Football League (1993-94) and the Las Vegas Outlaws in the XFL (2001).

Diaz-Infante entered the NFL in 1987 with the San Diego Chargers as an undrafted free agent and played in three games as a rookie. The first of his two stints with the Broncos came in 1995-98 before playing with the Eagles in 1999 and finishing his career with Denver in 2001.

Following his playing days, Diaz-Infante worked in television as a studio analyst with FSN Rocky Mountain from 2003-04 before joining ESPN in 2004 as a college football and high school football analyst. He also served as an analyst for the Broncos radio network from 2005-08

A native of San Jose, CA, Diaz-Infante attended Bellarmine Prep (San Jose, CA) where he was the conference lineman of the year in 1981. He played college football at San Jose State where he was an honorable mention AP All-American, a first-team all-conference selection and a four-year letterman while also serving as a team captain. He was inducted into the San Jose State Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

Diaz-Infante earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Science. He and his wife, Audra, have a son, Dante Antonio, and a daughter, Alexis Maria.

DARRYL DRAKE

WIDE RECEIVERS

COLLEGE: Western Kentucky
HOMETOWN: Louisville, KY
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 11/2
DOB: December 11, 1956

Darryl Drake enters his second season with the Cardinals and 11th year as an NFL assistant after he joined the team as wide receivers coach on 2/5/13. He came to Arizona last year after coaching wide receivers the previous nine seasons (2004-12) with the Chicago Bears.

With the Cardinals in 2013, Drake coached wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald, who was selected to his eighth career Pro Bowl after collecting 10 touchdowns, becoming one of just nine players in NFL history with at least 10 TDs in five different seasons. He also helped second-year receiver Michael Floyd to his first 1,000-yard season (1,041 yards) while collecting a career-high 65 receptions. The Cardinals offense finished 12th in the NFL and Arizona's 5,542 net yards of offense were good for fifth in team history.

In 2012 with the Bears, Drake tutored Pro Bowl wide receiver Brandon Marshall, who set Chicago franchise records with 118 catches for 1,508 yards to go along with 11 TDs. Marshall finished second in the NFL in both receptions and receiving yards behind Detroit's Calvin Johnson. Throughout his tenure in Chicago, Drake helped develop young talent at the wide receiver position, including Johnny Knox, Earl Bennett and Devin Hester. In 2011, Knox finished second in the NFL in receiving average (19.6 yards per catch) a year after finishing fifth in the NFL at 18.8 yards per reception. In 2009, Knox's 45 receptions tied for the most ever by a Bears rookie wide receiver, tied for third all-time by a Chicago rookie and was seventh among NFL rookies.

In 2009, the Bears were tied for the fewest dropped passes in the NFL with just 20. During Chicago's Super Bowl run in 2006, the Bears led the NFL by hauling in 95.9% (282 of 294) of the catchable balls thrown their way. The 12 drops by Chicago's receivers that season equaled Buffalo for fewest in the league.

Prior to joining the Bears in 2004, Drake coached for 21 seasons at the collegiate level. He spent six seasons (1998-2003) as the wide receivers coach at the University of Texas, also adding the title of associate head coach on Mack Brown's Longhorns staff prior to the 2003 season. At Texas, Drake guided three different Longhorn wide receivers to first-team All-Big 12 honors and directed three of the most productive receiving duos in Texas history. While coaching the first three 1,000-yard receivers in the school history, the Longhorns averaged nearly 10 wins a season. Drake mentored first-round draft pick Roy Williams, who finished his Texas career as the leading receiver in school history with 251 receptions for 4,017 yards (16.0 yards per reception) and 37 touchdowns. He also coached Wayne McGarity, a fourth-round draft pick of the Dallas Cowboys in 1999.

Prior to working at Texas, Drake spent one season (1997) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Baylor after five seasons coaching wide receivers at Georgia (1992-96). During his time with the Bulldogs, Drake tutored some of the top receivers in the SEC, including NFL Pro Bowler Hines Ward.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Western Kentucky, as a graduate assistant (1983-84) and spent nine seasons with the Hilltoppers, working with the wide receivers for four seasons (1985-88), the secondary for two years (1989-90) and serving as the passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 1991.

Drake starred as a wide receiver for WKU in 1975 and during the 1977-78 seasons. He helped the Hilltoppers to an 8-2 record and the Ohio Valley Conference Championship as a senior and was a member of their 11-2 OVC Championship squad that played in the NCAA Division II Championship game in 1975.

Following his collegiate career, Drake spent time in training camp with the Washington Redskins (1979) and Cincinnati Bengals (1983) in addition to playing one season with the Ottawa Roughriders of the Canadian Football League (1981). The Louisville, KY, native earned his bachelor's degree in 1980 and a master's degree in 1984 from Western Kentucky.

Drake was an All-State performer in football and an All-American in both track and field and basketball at Flaget (Louisville, KY) High School. He and his wife, Sheila, have three daughters, Shanice, Felisha and Marian and two grandchildren.

KEVIN GARVER

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

COLLEGE: Alabama
HOMETOWN: Birmingham, AL
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 2/2
DOB: July 28, 1987

Kevin Garver enters his second season with the Cardinals and second year in the NFL after being hired as an offensive assistant on 2/5/13. He assists Daryl Drake in coaching the Cardinals wide receivers.

In 2013, the Cardinals offense totaled 379 points, tied for the fifth-best single season total in franchise history while also collecting 5,542 net yards of offense, also good for fifth in team annals.

Garver joined the Cardinals in 2013 after spending the previous six years working for the University of Alabama football program under head coach Nick Saban, where he was part of a staff that won three national championships in four years (2009, 2011 and 2012).

He began working with the Crimson Tide football team as a student assistant in February, 2007 after the arrival of Saban and spent three seasons in that role. In 2008, the Tide went undefeated during the regular season and played in the SEC Championship Game. The following season they went 14-0 and won the BCS National Championship Game.

He then spent the next two seasons as a graduate assistant, helping the Tide win their second BCS National Championship Game in 2011.

In 2012, Garver moved into an offensive analyst position and helped Alabama become the first team since Nebraska in 1994-95 to win back-to-back consensus national championships. They ranked second in the SEC and 11th in the country with 38.7 points per game, and quarterback A.J. McCarron led the nation with a 175.3 pass efficiency rating.

He graduated from Alabama with a bachelor's degree in Marketing in 2009 and then earned his master's degree in Marketing in 2012. Garver and his wife, Julie, have one son, Jackson.

STEVE HEIDEN

ASST. SPECIAL TEAMS/ASST. TIGHT ENDS

COLLEGE: South Dakota State
HOMETOWN: Rushford, MN
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 13/2
DOB: September 21, 1976

Veteran NFL tight end Steve Heiden enters his second season with the Cardinals after he joined the team as assistant special teams/assistant tight ends coach on 2/5/13.

In his first season in Arizona in 2013, the Cardinals offense totaled 379 points, tied for the fifth-best single season total in franchise history while also collecting 5,542 net yards of offense, also ranking fifth in team single-season annals.

After playing in the NFL for 11 seasons (1999-2009), Heiden entered the coaching ranks in 2012 as tight ends coach at Concordia University in St. Paul, MN.

A third-round selection (69th overall) of the Chargers in the 1999 NFL Draft out of South Dakota State, Heiden spent three years in San Diego (1999-2001) before being traded to Cleveland where he played eight seasons with the Browns (2002-09). Over his NFL career, Heiden played in 148 games with 83 starts and totaled 201 receptions for 1,689 yards and 14 TDs.

With the Browns, Heiden played two seasons (2002-03) under Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians, who was Cleveland's offensive coordinator at the time. In 2004, Heiden set a career high with five touchdown receptions, which included a franchise-record-tying three TDs in one game (@ Cincinnati, 11/28/04). He then enjoyed his most productive season statistically in 2005 when he started 13 games and recorded 43 catches for 401 yards.

A native of Rushford, MN, Heiden played college football at South Dakota State and totaled 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and eight touchdowns. He earned first-team All-North Central Intercollegiate Athletic Conference honors as a senior in 1998 and was voted second-team All-American by The Sports Network. He is one of only 29 players in school history to be selected in the NFL Draft.

Heiden and his wife, Jessica, have two daughters, Madison and Presley.

ARIZONA AND DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

Every year people across the country turn their clocks ahead in the spring and back in the fall, except in Arizona.

Although Arizona stays on standard time throughout the year, never changing its clock forward or back, the time change, or lack thereof, does affect the Cardinals' local kickoff times during the season.

In 2014, daylight saving time was observed on the second Sunday in March (March 9) and ends on the first Sunday in November (November 2). When daylight saving time is in effect, Arizona is three hours behind the east coast, making a 4:00 p.m. kickoff in New York a 1:00 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

However, when daylight saving time ends, Arizona is only two hours behind the east coast, making a 4:00 p.m. kickoff in New York a 2:00 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

In 1967 the Uniform Time Act was instituted, putting the entire country on daylight saving time. After one year, states could opt out if they wanted and Arizona went back to standard time and stayed there. Residents and lawmakers of Arizona knew there was an abundance of sunshine and did not see the need to move their clocks ahead in order to save any. The only other state that does not observe Daylight Saving Time is Hawaii.

ROGER KINGDOM

COLLEGE: Pittsburgh
HOMETOWN: Vienna, GA
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 1/1
DOB: August 26, 1962

A two-time Olympic Gold Medalist in the 110-meter hurdles in 1984 and 1988, Roger Kingdom enters his first year with the Cardinals as an assistant strength and conditioning coach after he joined the team on 3/6/14. Kingdom is a former world and American record holder and one of only two runners to ever win consecutive Olympic titles ('84 Los Angeles, '88 Seoul) in the 110-meter hurdles.

He joined the Cardinals after spending the past 10 years at California University of Pennsylvania as the Director of the Track & Field and Cross Country programs after he was hired in 2004.

Kingdom is a five-time United States outdoor champion (1985, 1988-90, 1995) and won gold medals at the Pan American Games (1983, 1985), the World Cup (1989), the World University Games (1989) and the Goodwill Games (1990). He set a world record of 12.92 seconds in the 110-meter hurdles in Zurich, Switzerland in August of 1989, a time that would last until it was broken in 1993.

He was named the 1989 USA Track and Field Athlete of the Year, the 1989 Jesse Owens International Amateur Athlete of the Year and the Track and Field News 1989 Athlete of the Year. Kingdom retired from active competition in 1998.

During his tenure at California University (PA), Kingdom mentored a handful of All-Americans as well as several Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) indoor and outdoor champions including 14-time PSAC Champion and two-time All-American Brad Rager who excelled in the 200 and 400-meter dashes and Brice Myers, a six-time NCAA Division II All-American and six-time PSAC champion in the 110 meter hurdles.

In 2006, Kingdom and the Vulcans hosted the PSAC Championships for the first time in program history and in 2008 the men's team posted its best finish in school history at the indoor league championships.

A Vienna, GA native, Kingdom was inducted into the USA Track and Field Hall of Fame in 2005. He has also been inducted into the USTAF Georgia Hall of Fame in 2011, the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2002 and the Western Pennsylvania Hall of Fame in 2002. He got his first taste of the NFL as a volunteer strength and conditioning intern with the Cleveland Browns under current Cardinals strength and conditioning coach Buddy Morris in 2002-03.

Kingdom attended the University of Pittsburgh on a football scholarship and played two seasons while also excelling on the school's track team where he won the NCAA outdoor national championship in the 110-meter hurdles in 1983 and the NCAA indoor national championship in the 55-meter hurdles in 1984.

He graduated from Pittsburgh in 2002. As a student at Vienna (GA) High School, Kingdom won the state title in the 120-yard hurdles, high jump and discus in 1980 and 1981 and was twice selected as the Outstanding Track and Field Athlete in the state of Georgia. Kingdom and his wife, Mary, have three daughters, Jierra, Cierra, and Carina.

CARDINALS AND WALMART PARTNER FOR "NEIGHBORHOOD HEROES"

The Cardinals and Walmart hosted ribbon cutting ceremonies at two Valley high schools last year as part of the "Neighborhood Heroes" program.

Cardinals Cheerleaders and Big Red joined Nicole Bidwill and representatives from Walmart to celebrate the installation of a new football field and scoreboard at Mesa's Dobson High School in August, and in September, the group celebrated the installation of a new football field and irrigation system at Phoenix's Maryvale High School.

Last year was the fourth year of the partnership between the Cardinals and Walmart for the "Neighborhood Heroes" program. The Cardinals and Walmart will renovate two more high school football fields in 2014.

FREDDIE KITCHENS

QUARTERBACKS

COLLEGE: Alabama
HOMETOWN: Gadsden, AL
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 9/8
DOB: November 29, 1974

Former Alabama quarterback Freddie Kitchens enters his eighth season on the Cardinals coaching staff and second in the role of quarterbacks coach after his appointment to the position on 2/5/13. He previously served as Arizona's tight ends coach for six seasons after joining the team on 2/6/07.

A three-year starter at quarterback for the University of Alabama (1995-97), Kitchens finished his playing career with 4,668 yards and 30 touchdown passes for the Crimson Tide. His offensive coordinator as a senior in 1997 was current Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians. Upon his departure, he ranked third in Alabama history in career attempts, fourth in career passing yards and fifth in career completions. Alabama went 22-13 during those three seasons and went to the 1993 Gator Bowl, 1995 Citrus Bowl and the 1997 Outback Bowl.

Following an offseason in 2013 where he fell ill during an OTA practice on June 4 that required immediate emergency surgery at the Arizona Heart Institute due to a defect to his aorta, Kitchens recovered in time for the first day of training camp and helped a Cardinals offense that finished 12th in the NFL. Quarterback Carson Palmer threw for a career-high 4,274 yards and became the first player in NFL history to throw for 4,000+ yards with three different teams. Palmer also had 24 TD passes and completed 362 passes while leading the Cardinals offense that had 5,542 net yards, the fifth-most in franchise history.

In 2012, Cardinals tight end Rob Housler had 45 receptions for 417 yards. In franchise history, only two TE's (Jackie Smith and Freddie Jones) had more catches in a season than Housler did in 2012. In 2011, Kitchens oversaw a group of tight ends that contributed 65 receptions for 712 yards and four touchdowns. In 2007, Kitchens' tight end trio of Leonard Pope, Ben Patrick and Troy Bienemann helped the Cardinals finish with the fifth best passing offense in the NFL as well as helping to record 32 passing touchdowns, a franchise record. As a group, the eight touchdowns caught by the tight ends were the most by the Cardinals since 1988 and the trio also recorded six red zone touchdowns, helping the Cardinals to the second-best red zone scoring offense in the NFL (94.0%).

Kitchens began his NFL coaching career in 2006 with the Dallas Cowboys after seven years of coaching in college. With Dallas in 2006, Kitchens helped tutor Pro Bowl tight end Jason Witten to his third consecutive trip to Hawaii. Witten finished the season with 64 receptions for 754 yards (11.8 yard avg.) and one touchdown while starting in all 16 games.

In 10 years as a player and coach at the college level, Kitchens was a part of teams that captured three conference titles and played in seven bowl games. He went to the NFL after a two-year stint at Mississippi State University where he coached running backs (2005) and tight ends (2004). In 2005, he guided Jerious Norwood, a 2006 third-round choice of the Atlanta Falcons, to a 1,180-yard season, becoming just the second runner to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in school history. Norwood finished his Bulldogs career with a school-record 3,222 career rushing yards. In his first season on the Bulldogs staff in 2004, Kitchens helped implement the West Coast offense that gained tight end Eric Butler All-SEC freshman recognition while setting a Mississippi State single-season record with four TD receptions.

He served as the running backs coach at the University of North Texas (2001-03) and contributed to Mean Green clubs that won three straight Sun Belt Conference titles. In 2003, running back Patrick Cobbs rushed for 1,680 yards and scored 19 touchdowns, earning the Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year award while also leading the nation with a 152.7 yards per game average. Cobbs went on to play five seasons (2006-2010) in the NFL with the Pittsburgh Steelers and Miami Dolphins collecting 580 all-purpose yards and six touchdowns. During his first two seasons, Kitchens developed Kevin Galbreath into the first back in school history to rush for back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. The 2,372 yards gained on the ground in 2002 were the most at North Texas since 1959.

Kitchens joined the North Texas staff after one season as a graduate assistant at LSU (2000) where he served on Nick Saban's first Tigers staff, managing the offensive scout team and helping with special teams. That team went 9-4, including a 28-14 win over Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl.

After a one-year stint playing professionally in Italy in the spring of 1999, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Glenville State College that fall, coaching both running backs and tight ends.

A native of Gadsden, AL, Kitchens earned high school All-America honors and was named Mr. Football in the state of Alabama his senior season. He and his wife, Ginger, have two daughters, Bennett and Camden.

STUMP MITCHELL

RUNNING BACKS

COLLEGE: The Citadel
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 22/11
HOMETOWN: Kingsland, GA
DOB: March 15, 1959

A standout running back and return specialist for nine seasons with the Cardinals (1981-89), Lyvonia "Stump" Mitchell enters his second season as Arizona's running backs coach and 13th overall as an NFL assistant after being hired on 2/5/13.

In 2013, Mitchell helped coach a group of Cardinals running backs that featured rookie Andre Ellington, who totaled 1,023 scrimmage yards (652 rushing, 371 receiving), becoming just the fifth rookie in team history to surpass 1,000 yards from scrimmage. His 5.53-yard rushing average led all NFL players with a minimum of 100 rushing attempts and was the highest average for any rookie in team history and the highest for a Cardinals running back since John David Crow (5.85) in 1960. Combined with veteran Rashard Mendenhall (687 yards and eight TDs), the 2013 season marked the first time since 1988 that the Cardinal had two players with 600+ rushing yards in a season.

Mitchell joined the Cardinals last year after working as the head coach at Southern from 2010-12, where he was re-assigned within the program following a 0-2 start to the '12 season. Prior to his tenure at Southern, Mitchell spent two seasons as the running backs coach for the Washington Redskins (2008-09). During his first season with the Redskins, he oversaw the NFL's eighth-ranked rushing attack, and Clinton Portis, who was selected to the Pro Bowl that season, had 1,487 yards, which at the time was the second-highest single season total in franchise history. He also tutored FB Mike Sellers, who joined Portis in the Pro Bowl in 2008.

He began his NFL coaching career in 1999 and served nine years as the running backs coach for the Seahawks under head coach Mike Holmgren. Mitchell coached a 1,000-yard rusher in each of his first seven seasons with Seattle (Ricky Watters and Shaun Alexander). Under his tutelage, Alexander was a three-time Pro Bowler and was named 2005 NFL MVP after leading the NFL with a franchise-record 1,880 rushing yards and setting a then-NFL record with 28 TDs (NFL-record 27 rushing TDs, 1 receiving TD). In 2004, Alexander led the NFC with 1,696 rushing yards and 20 TDs. During the 2003 season, Alexander made his first career Pro Bowl after rushing for 1,435 yards, and in 2002, he had 16 rushing TDs. Alexander's backfield teammate, FB Mack Strong, was also voted to the Pro Bowl in 2005 and 2006 under Mitchell's guidance.

Mitchell joined the Seahawks following three years as head coach of Morgan State University (1996-98). He originally joined the MSU staff in 1995 as offensive coordinator before being promoted the following year. Under Mitchell's tutelage, the Bears boasted a rushing attack that averaged 148.9 yards per game in 1997.

A ninth-round selection (226th overall) by the Cardinals in the 1981 NFL Draft, Mitchell spent his entire nine-year NFL career with the Cardinals. He currently holds the franchise record with 11,988 all-purpose yards and ranks second all-time in rushing yards (4,649), punt return yards (1,377) and kickoff return yards (4,007), while also adding 1,955 career receiving yards. Mitchell's 42 career TDs are tied for the 10th best total in team annals. Throughout his career, Mitchell posted 14 100-yard rushing games and finished with a 4.7-yard rushing average, which ranks as the second-highest career mark in team history. He posted a 5.6-yard rushing average in 1981 (31 for 175), earning All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly, who also awarded him All-NFC honors as a kickoff returner in 1984.

In addition to his success on the field, Mitchell was also honored with the Chuck Drulis Award in 1982 and the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in 1984 for his work in the community.

Mitchell's coaching career began in the spring of 1991 when he served as running backs coach for the San Antonio Rough Riders of the World League of American Football (WLAF). He then held the head coaching position at Casa Grande (AZ) High School (1991-94), where he led the team to the state playoffs in his second year.

BUDDY MORRIS

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

COLLEGE: Pittsburgh
HOMETOWN: South Park, PA
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 4/1
DOB: September 29, 1957

Buddy Morris enters his first season as the Cardinals strength and conditioning coach after being hired on 3/4/14. Previously with the Cleveland Browns from 2002-05 where he worked with current Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians, Morris is back in the NFL after working at the collegiate level for 19 years.

A native of South Park, PA, Morris has an extensive background in strength and conditioning dating back to his first job at his alma mater, the University of Pittsburgh, where he began his coaching career in 1980 in the first of his three stints with the Panthers. He worked under head coach Jackie Sherrill from 1980-89 and aided in the development of future NFL Hall of Famers Dan Marino, Rickey Jackson, Chris Doleman and Russ Grimm. During that period, Morris helped train 13 first round NFL draft picks and 15 first-team All-Americans.

Morris specializes in workouts that focus on strength training, speed development, conditioning, agility training and flexibility.

After working as the wellness director for the Horizon Hospital System in Sharon, PA from 1989-97, Morris went back to Pittsburgh and worked from 1997-2001. During his second tenure at Pitt, the Panthers made three bowl appearance, the 1997 Liberty Bowl, the 2000 Insight.com Bowl and the 2001 Tangerine Bowl. Morris also developed the moniker for the Panthers strength and conditioning program, "The Pitt Iron Works." In 2009, Muscle & Fitness Magazine named Morris' gym one of the 10 toughest in America.

Morris then joined Butch Davis and the Cleveland Browns for three seasons before working at the University of Buffalo in 2006 as its Director of Sports Performance. After one season in Buffalo, Morris went back for his third stint at Pitt under head coach Dave Wannstedt where he worked from 2007-10. The Panthers qualified for the 2008 Sun Bowl and the 2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl during that period.

Following his third stop at Pitt, Morris and his family opened a private gym in Buffalo called the New York Sports Center where he worked with athletes at all levels through personal training, group fitness classes and injury rehabilitation.

Morris worked with Roger Kingdom, the Cardinals assistant strength & conditioning coach and 1984 and 1988 Olympic gold medalist in 110-meter hurdles. He also helped develop NFL Hall of Fame running back Curtis Martin and Pro Bowl guard Ruben Brown while both were at Pitt.

He graduated from Pittsburgh in 1980 after lettering for four years (1977-80) in track and field. Morris is married to Monica and has two daughters, Kara and Claire, and two stepsons, Fred and Troy.

TOM PRATT

PASS RUSH SPECIALIST

COLLEGE: Miami (FL)
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 36/2
DOB: June 21, 1935

Veteran assistant coach Tom Pratt enters his second season with the Cardinals as pass rush specialist and 36th season in the NFL after being hired on 2/5/13. Only Pittsburgh's Dick LeBeau (42nd season) and Cleveland's Jimmy Raye (37th season) have more experience among active NFL coaches. After starting as a coach at his alma mater, the University of Miami, in 1957, Pratt enters his 43rd season as an assistant coach in 2014.

Pratt, who began his professional coaching career with Kansas City in 1963, helped the Chiefs win AFL championships in 1966 and 1969 and reach Super Bowl I and Super Bowl IV. He has coached four players who have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Buck Buchanan, Derrick Thomas, Curley Culp and Warren Sapp).

He is also the only current coach in the league with the distinction of coaching in the NFL in six different decades – '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s, '00s and '10s and is also the only active NFL assistant to have coached in the American Football League.

Pratt returned to coaching in 2013 after spending the previous three years as a defensive coordinator consultant with IMG Academies in Florida, helping to train draft eligible players for the NFL. Prior to joining the Cardinals, his last job in the NFL was the assistant defensive line coach with the Chiefs in 2000, helping out while defensive line coach Bob Karmelowicz was being treated for cancer. That was Pratt's third different stint with Kansas City (1963-77, 1989-94 and 2000).

With the Cardinals last season, Pratt helped a defense that finished as the NFL's sixth-ranked overall unit and featured the league's top-ranked run defense (84.4 yards per game). The Cardinals allowed the fewest rushing yards in team history for a 16-game season (1,351) and collected 47 sacks, the third-highest total in franchise history. Defensive end Calais Campbell had a career-high nine sacks and joined defensive tackle Darnell Dockett as Pro Bowl alternates.

During his first stop with the Chiefs (1963-77), Pratt had a hand in molding some of the finest defensive performers to ever wear a Kansas City uniform. In the 1960s, when he served as an assistant under Hall of Fame coach Hank Stram, the Chiefs defensive front helped the club win its lone World Championship in 1969 with a 23-7 victory over Minnesota in Super Bowl IV.

Hall of Fame tackles Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp combined with ends Jerry Mays and Aaron Brown to form arguably the finest defensive line in the AFL's 10-year history. Buchanan, who passed away in 1992, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990, and Culp was selected as a member of the 2013 Pro Football Hall of Fame class.

After his initial 15-year stay in Kansas City, Pratt coached the defensive line with the New Orleans Saints (1978-80) and Cleveland Browns (1981-88) before returning to the Chiefs for another six seasons (1989-94) under Marty Schottenheimer. While in Cleveland, he worked with defensive tackle Bob Golic, who was a three-time Pro Bowl selection (1985-87), and defensive end Reggie Camp, who had 14 sacks in 1984 and accumulated 29.5 sacks from 1984-86.

In his second stint with the Chiefs as defensive line coach (1989-94), Pratt tutored the late Derrick Thomas, a 2009 Hall of Fame inductee. Even though Thomas was listed as a linebacker, he played the Chiefs "rushbacker" position in 1993 and worked with Pratt on the defensive line. Thomas made his fifth straight Pro Bowl appearance that season as Kansas City advanced to the AFC Championship Game. Defensive end Neil Smith also flourished under Pratt, recording four straight Pro Bowl berths under his guidance (1991-94), while defensive tackle Dan Saleaumua earned first-team Pro Football Weekly All-Pro honors in 1990.

Pratt spent the 1995 season as defensive line coach with Tampa Bay, tutoring Hall of Fame defensive tackle Warren Sapp in his rookie season, before coaching at the United States Coast Guard Academy in 1997. He then spent two years (1998-99) as a football ambassador in Osaka, Japan for the Asahi Challengers in the Japanese Company League of American football. He returned to work with the Challengers for the 2000 season as they won the Japanese Super Bowl. He also served as a consultant at Kyoto University in Japan from 2002-04.

He played linebacker collegiately at the University of Miami from 1953-56 where Stram was an assistant coach at the time. Pratt earned All-American honors in 1956 and was inducted into the University of Miami Sports Hall of Fame in 1991. After graduating from Miami in 1957 with a degree in Education, he stayed at his alma mater as an assistant for four years (1957-60). He then coached at the University of Southern Mississippi from 1961-62 before joining Stram's staff in Kansas City in 1963.

Pratt and his wife, Hope, have three children, daughters Kendra and Shana, and son Tyler, seven grandchildren and one great grandchild.

NICK RAPONE

DEFENSIVE BACKS

COLLEGE: Virginia Tech
HOMETOWN: New Castle, PA
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 2/2
DOB: April 25, 1956

Long-time college coach Nick Rapone (ruh-PONE) enters his second season with the Cardinals and second year in the NFL after he joined Arizona as defensive backs coach on 2/5/13.

Rapone, a veteran of 35 seasons as a coach, including 30 as a collegiate assistant, joined the Cardinals in 2013 after spending the previous seven years (2006-12) at the University of Delaware as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach.

With the Cardinals in 2013, Rapone helped a defense that finished as the NFL's sixth-ranked overall unit and forced 30 takeaways, including 20 interceptions which tied for the fifth-best total in the NFL. Patrick Peterson made his second consecutive Pro Bowl at cornerback and was also named first-team AP All-Pro.

At Delaware, Rapone was a part of two NCAA national runner-up teams, including the 2010 season when he helped the Blue Hens to a 12-3 record and a share of the Colonial Athletic Association title. For his coaching efforts that season, Rapone was named the 2010 FootballScoop NCAA Division I FCS Coordinator of the Year. That season his defense led the nation in scoring (12.1 points per game), ranked fifth in total defense (280.7 yards allowed per game) and was 12th in rushing defense (105.3). The secondary included four All-CAA performers, including All-American selections Anthony Walters and Anthony Bratton at safety. The Hens also ranked ninth in the nation in passing efficiency (102.7), and the team's 21 interceptions were the third-highest total in the nation at the FCS level.

Rapone helped the Blue Hens to another outstanding season in 2007 when Delaware went 11-4 and advanced to the NCAA Division I FCS title game with quarterback Joe Flacco. The Blue Hens captured the Lambert Cup Trophy as the top team in the East and was named the ECAC Team of the Year.

A native of New Castle, PA, Rapone was an All-State receiver at New Castle High School prior to attending Virginia Tech where he was a four-year letterman for the Hokies (1974-77). While at Virginia Tech, he played with Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians in 1974 when Arians was a senior and Rapone was a freshman. Arians then served as a graduate assistant (1975-76) and running backs coach (1977) while Rapone played for the Hokies.

Rapone began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh in 1979 where he worked with the secondary for two seasons before serving as defensive backs coach at East Tennessee State (I-AA) from 1981-82. He reunited with Arians as part of his staff at Temple, coaching the Owls secondary for six seasons (1983-88) while also serving as defensive coordinator from 1985-88.

He returned to Pitt as defensive backs coach for four years (1989-92), doubling as defensive coordinator in 1992. Rapone then became the head coach at his alma mater, New Castle High School, for two seasons (1993-94). He returned to the college game in 1995 at then Divsion I-AA University of Connecticut under head coach Skip Holtz, serving as defensive coordinator and secondary coach for four seasons, leading the Huskies to the I-AA playoffs for the first time in school history in 1998. That squad was ranked No. 7 in the final The Sports Network Top 25 poll and was led by a defense that forced 29 turnovers on the season.

Rapone then returned for his second tenure at Temple and served as defensive backs coach and kickoff coverage coach for seven years (1999-2005). The Owls were one of only eight teams in the nation to rank in the top 20 in total defense in both 2001 and 2002.

He earned his bachelor's degree in Education from Virginia Tech in 1979 and his master's degree in Education from Pittsburgh in 1981. Rapone has two daughters, Johanna and Mary.

HOMETOWN: Paulsboro, NJ
DOB: January 16, 1962

Former Pro Bowl defensive back Kevin Ross begins his second season with the Cardinals as cornerbacks coach after he joined the team on 2/5/13. A 14-year NFL veteran as a player, Ross enters his ninth season as an assistant coach after previous jobs with Oakland (2010-11), San Diego (2007-08) and Minnesota (2003-05). In Arizona, Ross reunited with head coach Bruce Arians, under whom he played as a team captain during his senior season at Temple in 1983.

Last season, Ross helped the Cardinals defense finish as the NFL's sixth-ranked overall unit and force 30 takeaways, including 20 interceptions, which tied for the fifth-best total in the NFL. Patrick Peterson made his second consecutive Pro Bowl at cornerback and was also named first-team AP All-Pro.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Ross coached safeties with Oakland from 2010-11, helping the Raiders record 30 interceptions in two seasons. His tenure in Oakland followed one season as an assistant for the New York Sentinels of the United Football League (2009).

From 2007-08, Ross assisted in coaching defensive backs for the San Diego Chargers. In 2007, the Chargers led the NFL in INTs during both the regular season (30) and postseason (six). The 30 INTs during the regular season were the most by a San Diego defense in 38 years, and it marked the first time a Chargers defense ever led the NFL in interceptions.

Ross began his NFL coaching career with the Minnesota Vikings in 2002 at training camp as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Program. In 2003, he worked as the Vikings assistant secondary coach where he stayed through the 2005 season. In his first year in Minnesota, the Vikings were second in the NFL with 28 INTs. In his second season, the Vikings advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoffs.

He played defensive back in the NFL for 14 seasons (1984-97) and was a two-time Pro Bowl selection. Ross was selected by Kansas City in the seventh round (173rd overall) of the 1984 NFL Draft and made an immediate impact with the Chiefs as a rookie when he posted a career-high six INTs to earn consensus All-Rookie honors. He played 11 seasons with Kansas City (1984-93; 1997), earning Pro Bowl selections in 1989 and 1990. He also played two seasons in Atlanta (1994-95) and one with San Diego (1996). He retired following the 1997 season with 1,142 tackles, 38 INTs and two touchdowns. Ross was inducted into the Chiefs Hall of Fame in 2011.

Prior to joining the NFL coaching ranks, Ross spent four years coaching high school football at Camden High School (1999-00) and at Woodrow Wilson High (2001-02) in his native Camden, N.J.

Ross was an All-State and all-conference linebacker and running back at Paulsboro (N.J.) High School and a four-year letterman at Temple (1980-83). While at Temple, Ross appeared in 39 games and totaled 249 tackles with 13 INTs. Ross has three daughters, Celia, Cherrelle and Kassidy, and two sons, Jovair and Kevin, Jr.

RYAN SLOWIK

DEFENSIVE ASST./ASST. DEFENSIVE BACKS

COLLEGE: Wisconsin-Oshkosh
HOMETOWN: Vernon Hills, IL
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 10/6
DOB: December 27, 1980

Ryan Slowik enters his sixth season with the Cardinals and second as defensive assistant/assistant defensive backs following his appointment on 2/5/13. He previously served as Arizona's outside linebackers coach in 2012 after spending three years as defensive quality control coach, assisting with the team's linebackers, after joining the organization on 3/2/09. Slowik came to the Cardinals in 2009 after working the previous four seasons with the Denver Broncos.

In 2013, Arizona's defense finished as the NFL's sixth-ranked overall unit and featured the league's top-ranked run defense (84.4 yards per game) after allowing the fewest rushing yards in team history for a 16-game season (1,351). The Cardinals also had 30 takeaways, including 20 interceptions, which tied for the fifth-best total in the NFL. With the Cardinals in 2012, Slowik helped an Arizona defense that finished with the NFL's fifth ranked passing unit while also collecting 33 total takeaways, the fourth-best total in the league in 2012.

He joined the Broncos in 2005 as a defensive assistant and worked two seasons in that capacity before working as a special teams assistant in 2007 and then as the assistant defensive backs coach in 2008. In 2007, Slowik assisted veteran NFL special teams coach Scott O'Brien in the instruction of Denver's special teams. Broncos kicker Jason Elam became the first kicker since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to convert four walk-off, game-winning field goals in the same season with two in regulation and two in overtime.

In 2005-06, Slowik worked closely with the Broncos defensive backs as cornerback Champ Bailey was the runner-up for NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2006 after tying for the NFL lead with 10 interceptions and leading the league with 11 takeaways. In 2005, Denver's secondary totaled 20 interceptions, the most by the team in four years. Bailey was named first-team All-Pro and joined safety John Lynch in being selected to the Pro Bowl.

A former strong safety in college at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh (2002-03), Slowik began his playing career at Youngstown State before transferring to UW-Oshkosh. Slowik then worked as an assistant secondary coach for UW-Oshkosh in 2004. His secondary played a key role in the Titans posting the ninth best turnover margin in Division III that season.

Slowik's father, Bob, is a long-time NFL assistant who previously coached with the Redskins, Packers, Broncos, Browns, Bears and Cowboys.

Slowik was born in Gainesville, FL and attended Adlai Stevenson (Lincolnshire, IL) High School. He and his wife, Valerie, have a son, Tye, and a daughter, Averie.

LARRY ZIERLEIN

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: Fort Hays State College
HOMETOWN: Lenora, KS
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 10/2
DOB: July 12, 1945

Larry Zierlein (ZURL-line) enters his second season with the Cardinals and 10th in the NFL after he joined the team as assistant offensive line coach on 2/5/13. He previously coached in the NFL as the offensive line coach with Pittsburgh (2007-09), the assistant offensive line coach with Buffalo (2006) and the offensive line coach with Cleveland (2001-04).

In his first season in Arizona, the Cardinals offense finished 12th overall in the NFL and scored 379 points on the year, tied for the fifth-best single season total in franchise history. Arizona's 5,542 net yards of offense last season were also good for fifth in team annals.

While in Pittsburgh, Zierlein helped the Steelers win Super Bowl XLIII after ranking third in the NFL in rushing with 2,168 yards in 2007. Running back Willie Parker finished fourth in the league with 1,316 rushing yards that season, earning a Pro Bowl selection, while guard Alan Faneca was selected to his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl. The Steelers had two 1,000-yard backs in three seasons with Zierlein in charge of the offensive line (Parker with 1,316 yards in 2007 and Rashard Mendenhall had 1,108 yards in 2009).

Prior to his one year in Buffalo, Zierlein helped Cleveland's offense average 4.1 yards per rush and 104.4 rushing yards per game in 2003. During his stops in both Pittsburgh and Cleveland, Zierlein worked under then offensive coordinator Bruce Arians.

Zierlein, who has 39 years of coaching experience at the high school, collegiate and professional level, spent four seasons as offensive line coach for the University of Cincinnati (1997-2000) and added the title of running game coordinator in 2000. He helped Cincinnati set a Conference USA rushing record with 215.5 yards per game in 1997, and his 1999 offensive line set a school record by allowing just eight sacks, the fewest in the nation that year, despite having four first-year starters.

In addition to his tenure at Cincinnati, Zierlein had two stints as the offensive line coach at Tulane (1995-96 and 1988-90), spent two seasons at LSU (1993-94) and served as offensive line coach at the University of Houston (1978-86) for nine seasons.

Zierlein gained experience at the professional level as co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League of American Football (WLAF) in 1991-92 and as an assistant coach for the Washington Commandos of the Arena Football League in 1987. He also worked as offensive line coach with the Hartford Colonials in the United Football League in 2011.

In addition to coaching, Zierlein also served in the United States Marine Corps from 1966-68, including a one-year tour of duty in Vietnam (1967).

A 1971 graduate of Fort Hays (KS) State College after playing defensive end, Zierlein began his coaching career at his alma mater as a graduate assistant/linebackers coach. After two years at Fort Hays State, he spent six years at the high school level, coaching at Abernathy (TX) High School from 1972-74 and Lamar Consolidated (TX) High School from 1975-77.

A native of Lenora, KS, Zierlein and his wife, Marcia, have three children, sons Lance and Mike and daughter Nicci, nine grandchildren and one great grandchild.

TERRY McDONOUGH

VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER PERSONNEL

COLLEGE: Massachusetts
HOMETOWN: Boston, MA
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 23/2

Terry McDonough begins his second season with the Cardinals and first as Vice President, Player Personnel after being promoted in January, 2014. In his new role, McDonough will take on an increased role in both college and pro personnel evaluation and also with contract negotiations.

Entering his 23rd year of scouting in the NFL, McDonough joined the Cardinals in 2013 as an Eastern Regional Scout after spending the previous 10 years with the Jacksonville Jaguars, including the last four seasons as the team's Director, Player Personnel. He joined the Jaguars in 2003 and was promoted to Director, Player Personnel in January, 2009. In that role, McDonough scouted the top collegiate players throughout the nation as well as the top free agent prospects each year.

A Boston, MA native, McDonough began his NFL scouting career as an intern with the San Francisco 49ers in 1989. Following his graduation from Massachusetts with a degree in Sports Management, he was named player personnel director of the Barcelona Dragons of the World League in 1990. While with the Dragons (1990-92), McDonough handled a variety of personnel assignments, serving as the team's West Coast scout and helping each team prepare for the WFL draft. McDonough toured both NFL and CFL training camps to grade potential WFL players. The 1991 Barcelona team finished with a 9-3 record, losing the league title to London in the World Bowl. The following season, the Dragons captured the European title.

In 1992, McDonough was hired by the Cleveland Browns as the southeast area scout, and he moved to Baltimore with the franchise in 1996. With the Ravens, McDonough served as the eastern college supervisor for three years under the direction of General Manager Ozzie Newsome. During McDonough's tenure with the Ravens, the team won Super Bowl XXXV following the 2000 season.

McDonough was all-conference as a running back at Hingham (MA) High School in football as well as in baseball, and he also lettered in basketball before he transferred to Bridgton Academy.

He is the son of the late Will McDonough, the long-time sports reporter and columnist for The Boston Globe who also worked at CBS Sports and NBC Sports. He is also the brother of Phoenix Suns general manager Ryan McDonough, and his other brother Sean McDonough, is the play-by-play voice of Monday Night Baseball on ESPN who was previously on air for CBS Sports and was the television voice of the Boston Red Sox.

McDonough and his wife, Lynette, have three children, sons, Patrick and Brendan and daughter, Caroline.

COLLEGE: Williams College
HOMETOWN: West Bloomfield, MI
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 8/2

Mike Disner (pronounced DIZZ-ner) enters his second season with the Cardinals after being hired as Director, Football Administration in February, 2013. He joined the Cardinals from the NFL Management Council where he worked for four years as Labor Operations Manager (2012) and Labor Operations Coordinator (2009-11).

Disner has an extensive background and experience in salary cap regulations and player contract compliance. While at the NFL Management Council, he was an active participant in negotiations in helping to develop the most recent Collective Bargaining Agreement. He also helped develop the rookie system, managed the salary cap reconciliation process and developed analytical tools to assist clubs in decision-making processes.

Prior to working for the NFL Management Council, Disner worked with the New England Patriots for two years after beginning his professional career as a scouting assistant in 2007. He interned with the Patriots for two summers (2005 and '06) while working on his degree in Economics which he received from Williams College (MA) in 2007.

This past offseason, Disner was selected to Forbes "30 Under 30" list, honoring 30 athletes or executives making a mark in the sports industry.

The West Bloomfield, MI native played baseball at Williams College where he was a two-year starter as a pitcher. Disner and his wife, Gail, reside in Chandler, AZ.

QUENTIN HARRIS

DIRECTOR, PRO SCOUTING

COLLEGE: Syracuse
HOMETOWN: Wilkes-Barre, PA
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 12/11

Former Cardinals safety Quentin Harris begins his seventh season in Arizona's scouting department and second as Director, Pro Scouting after being promoted in May, 2013. Originally hired in June, 2008 as a pro scout, Harris was first elevated to Assistant Pro Personnel Director in 2010. A free safety for four seasons with the Cardinals (2002-05), Harris began his scouting career in 2008 after finishing his NFL playing days with the Denver Broncos in 2007.

Harris was signed by the Cardinals as an undrafted rookie free agent on May 3, 2002 out of Syracuse and appeared in 54 games over four seasons, including six starts. He led the Cardinals in special teams tackles for two consecutive seasons (19 in 2004, 24 in 2005) before signing as a free agent with the New York Giants in 2006. After being waived by the Giants following training camp, Harris was signed by the Broncos later that season and appeared in six games.

He finished his NFL career with 50 tackles (42 solos), a sack, an interception, five passes defensed, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and 58 special teams tackles in 60 career games (six starts).

Harris was a four-year starter at free safety for Syracuse where he finished his Orange career with 327 tackles (183 solos), four forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and 10 interceptions in 42 career games. Harris left Syracuse ninth in school history for career interceptions while also being chosen as an honorable mention All-American, first-team All-Big East conference selection and a second-team choice from the conference's coaches as a senior in 2001.

Harris was an honorable mention All-America selection at Wyoming Seminary Upper School in Kingston, PA. He received a bachelor's degree in Information Studies from Syracuse in 2001.

Mancini came to Arizona after working the previous 18 seasons with the St. Louis Rams, including the last 16 in the team's personnel department.

He spent 10 years as a college scout with the Rams before serving as Director of College Scouting from 2009-12. He joined the Rams in their inaugural season in St. Louis in 1995, beginning his career in the ticket office before moving into merchandise and then as a scouting assistant in 1997. During his tenure with the Rams, Mancini worked on both the pro and college sides of player personnel.

A Long Island, NY native, Mancini is a graduate of the State University of New York at Plattsburgh with a degree in Business Management. Mancini and his wife, Theresa, have a son, Dominic, and daughters, Avarie and Brooklyn.

JOHN RITCHER

AREA SCOUT

COLLEGE: North Carolina State
HOMETOWN: Raleigh, NC
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 4/3

John Ritcher begins his third season with the Cardinals and fourth in the NFL after joining the team's scouting department in May, 2012. He came to Arizona after working as a scouting assistant with the Miami Dolphins in 2011. After beginning his Cardinals career scouting in the northeast region, he is now responsible for scouting the southeast region of the country for Arizona.

He joined the Dolphins in 2011 after serving three seasons on the strength and conditioning staff at Florida State. He went to work for Florida State in 2008 and also helped out with the Seminoles tight ends.

Prior to his arrival at FSU, Ritcher played fullback and linebacker for the Georgia Force in the Arena Football League in 2007. With the Force, Ritcher had 20 carries for 58 yards and a touchdown to go along with two receptions for 20 yards and two touchdowns.

He played collegiately at N.C. State where he was a four-year letter winner as a tight end and had 16 receptions for 138 yards and one touchdown. He was given the Mike Hardy Award in 2004, given to the player who shows a winning attitude and plays beyond his capabilities, as well as the 2005 Bob Warren award for integrity and sportsmanship. Following his graduation from N.C. State, Ritcher spent two years as the head strength and conditioning coach at his high school alma mater, Ravenscroft High School in Raleigh, NC.

He guided his team to an 11-1 record as a senior and won the independent schools state championship while also being selected as an NCISAA All-State performer at tight end as a junior and senior.

Ritcher graduated from N.C. State with a bachelor's degree in Zoology in 2005 and then received a Master's of Science in Sport Management from Florida State in 2010. He and his wife Ashley, have a son, James, and a daughter, Sophia.

JOSH SCOBEY

AREA SCOUT

COLLEGE: Kansas State
HOMETOWN: Oklahoma City, OK
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 9/6

Former Cardinals running back Josh Scobey enters his third season in the team's scouting department and first as an area scout after being elevated to the position in May, 2014. His primary area of responsibility with the Cardinals is scouting the western region of the country.

Scobey previously worked with the Cardinals as a pro scout in 2013 where he helped scout prospects in the NFL, CFL and Arena Football League. He joined the team as a scouting assistant in May, 2012 after serving as an intern in 2010.

A sixth-round pick (185th overall) of the Cardinals in the 2002 NFL Draft, Scobey played in 62 games over six seasons in the NFL. After spending the 2002 season on injured reserve with a thumb injury, he led the NFL in kickoff returns in 2003 with 73 for 1,684 yards and a touchdown. He was claimed off waivers by Seattle in 2005, and totaled 1,326 yards on 59 kickoffs and was named a captain in Super Bowl XL in his first season with the Seahawks. He played in three games with the Buffalo Bills in 2007 before finishing his career by returning to the Seahawks for four games that same season.

For his career, Scobey had 189 kickoff returns for 4,160 yards (22.4 yard avg.), 27 carries for 89 yards and 19 receptions for 200 yards.

Scobey was a two-time All-Big 12 selection at Kansas State after a standout junior college career at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M. In two seasons at Kansas State, he set an all-time school record with 31 rushing touchdowns and ranked in the top 10 in program history with nine 100-yard rushing games, 1,981 rushing yard, and 186 points scored. He also set a single-season school record with 1,263 rushing yards on 240 carries as a senior in 2001.

He was an honorable mention All-American selection by USA Today at Del City High School in Oklahoma City, OK where he set a single-season rushing record with 1,819 yards and 21 touchdowns in 1997. He graduated from Kansas State with a degree in Social Science.

PRO SCOUT

COLLEGE: South Dakota State
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 2/2

Glen Fox enters his second season with the Cardinals and first as Pro Scout after being promoted in May, 2014. He joined the Cardinals as a scouting assistant in 2013 following a playing career that featured stops in the UFL and AFL.

Following a four-year collegiate career as a wide receiver at South Dakota State, Fox participated in rookie minicamp with Green Bay in 2010 and later played in the AFL and UFL. During his time in the Arena Football League, he played with the Arizona Rattlers (2011) and Orlando Predators (2012) while also playing in the United Football League with the Omaha Nighthawks and Sacramento Mountain Lions (2011-12).

At South Dakota State, Fox finished third all-time in receptions and sixth all-time in receiving yards. He was a team captain as a senior and was a two-time All-Missouri Valley Conference performer during his junior and senior campaigns. After ranking second in receiving touchdowns (10), third in receptions per game (5.5) and fourth in receiving yards per game (66.0), Fox's 66 receptions as a junior were the fourth most in a season by a Jackrabbit. During his senior season, Fox had 62 receptions for 787 yards and four touchdowns. He also played in three games as a member of the SDSU men's basketball team during the 2005-06 season.

A Cedar Rapids, IA native, Fox received his bachelor's degree in Business Economics in 2010. He resides in Phoenix, AZ.

COLLEGE: Robert Morris
HOMETOWN: Morristown, NJ
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 17/8

Robert Brakel begins his eighth season with the Cardinals as video director after being hired to the position in June, 2007. The Morristown, NJ native joined Arizona after spending nine seasons as a video assistant with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

With the Steelers, Brakel was part of the Super Bowl XL staff in addition to working three AFC Championship games and two Pro Bowls.

In 2001, Brakel served as video director for the World Bowl Champion Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe. His duties included shooting all practices and games both home and away and producing cut-ups for the coaching staff.

As a student at Robert Morris University, Brakel was the video coordinator for the football team from 1996-98 and for the hockey team from 1997-98. He received bachelor's degrees from the school in Sports Management and Communications before joining the Steelers in 1998.

ARIZONA CARDINALS HOST HEADS UP FOOTBALL CLINICS IN MEXICO

The Cardinals hosted a pair of "Heads Up Football" clinics in Guadalajara, Mexico in March for mothers and youth football players as well as youth football coaches.

The first day in Mexico featured a "Football Safety Clinic" for more than 100 mothers of youth football players, which covered proper tackling, equipment fitting, heat and hydration education and concussion awareness. Former Cardinals running back Damien Anderson and offensive lineman Rolando Cantu joined the attendees for on-field drills. That was followed by a Gatorade Jr. Training Camp for mothers and children with football stations that taught various football techniques and tested speed and agility.

The following day, the Cardinals group hosted a "Heads Up Player Safety Coach Clinic" for 100 youth football coaches from all across Mexico. The coaches were introduced to proper equipment fitting, heat and hydration education and concussion awareness while Anderson and Cantu led them through "Heads Up Football" tackling drills.

BIDWILL AND CARDINALS HONORED AT WESTMARC "BEST OF THE WEST" AWARDS

The Cardinals and team President Michael Bidwill received the "West Valley Regional Advancement Award" from Western Maricopa Coalition at the 21st Best of the West Awards last November at the Wigwam Resort in Litchfield Park.

"The support Michael Bidwill and the Arizona Cardinals have shown for the West Valley is extraordinary," said Bradley Wright, Chairman of WESTMARC's Board of Directors. "Since the opening of University of Phoenix Stadium in 2006, the Cardinals have sold out every one of its home games and have brought nearly 5 million Arizonans and out-of-state visitors to the West Valley. The team successfully staged its inaugural training camp at the stadium and brought thousands more. The Super Bowl is returning to University of Phoenix Stadium bringing to our region an economic impact of $500 million."

WESTMARC was founded in 1990 to promote a positive image for Western Maricopa County and to advocate on its behalf in matters of public policy.

COLLEGE: South Carolina
HOW ACQUIRED: FA-13
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 15/2
HOMETOWN: Timmonsville, SC
DOB: May 6, 1978

PRO BOWL SELECTION: 2001, 2002, 2004
PRO BOWL SELECTION: 2010, 2013

NOTECARDS

- The NFL's active leader with 133.5 career sacks, Abraham ranks ninth on the NFL's all-time sacks list. After posting 11.5 sacks in 2013, his first season in Arizona, he moved past Hall of Famers Derrick Thomas (126.5), Rickey Jackson (128.0) and Lawrence Taylor (132.5) on his way to the top-10.
- Voted to his fifth career Pro Bowl in 2013, earning a nod with his third different team. Previously he went three times with the Jets (2001-02, '04) and once with the Falcons (2010).
- The only active NFL player with at least a partial sack against all 32 NFL teams.
- Has posted double-digit sacks eight times in his first 14 years in the NFL, including 11.5 sacks in 2013 with the Cardinals, which ranks as the highest single-season total in franchise history for a linebacker. He became the first Arizona player with double-digit sacks in a season since Bertrand Berry (14.5) in 2004.
- Posted a team-high four forced fumbles in 2013. His 48 career forced fumbles are tied with Jason Taylor for the most in NFL history.
- One of just four players in the NFL with at least 11.0 sacks and four forced fumbles in 2013.
- Had three sacks in a game twice in 2013 and has now done it 10 times in his career. In NFL history, only Lawrence Taylor (12) and Reggie White (12) had more games with at least three sacks in their career. Became just the second player in Cardinals history with at least three sacks in multiple games in a season (2, Curtis Greer, 1983).
- Has 31 multi-sack games in his career (his team is 24-7 in those games), including three multi-sack performances for Arizona in '13.
- Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance in the Cardinals Week 14 win vs. St. Louis in '13, when he had three sacks against the Rams. Has now been named Defensive Player of the Week five times in his career, winning two in the AFC (Week 8, 2001; Week 5, 2004) and three in the NFC (Week 1, 2006; Week 15, 2011; Week 14, 2013). Earned AFC Defensive Player of the Month honors twice during his time with the Jets (November 2001; October 2004).
- Has played in 191 career games (174 starts) and has 643 tackles (468 solos), 48 forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries and one INT. Also has started eight postseason games and totaled 19 tackles, four sacks and two passes defensed.
- Played seven seasons (2006-12) with Atlanta and set the Falcons franchise record with 68.5 sacks. Totaled 32.5 sacks in the last three seasons alone.
- Was a first-round pick (13th overall) of the Jets in the 2000 NFL Draft. The Jets acquired the pick in a trade with Tampa Bay that sent WR Keyshawn Johnson to the Buccaneers in exchange for two first-round draft choices (13th and 27th overall). Abraham was the third LB selected in 2000, following LaVar Arrington (Washington) and Brian Urlacher (Chicago).

CARDINALS CARAVAN PRESENTED BY ARIZONA LOTTERY VISITS FIVE ARIZONA CITIES

Arizona Cardinals team mascot Big Red, Cardinals Cheerleaders and the Arizona Lottery Street Team took to the road in March, April and May to visit five Arizona cities for the "Cardinals Caravan" presented by Arizona Lottery to engage with Cardinals fans throughout the state.

The caravan group signed autographs and provided Cardinals giveaways at Safeway and Albertsons locations across the state. Arizona Lottery's Street Team also offered a "Spin-to-Win" promotion.

The group made stops in Sedona and Yuma in March, Tucson and Safford in April and Prescott in May.

Cardinals fans who purchased a $10 Arizona Lottery Lucky Life Scratchers® ticket at the participating stores during the caravan events had the opportunity to win a Cardinals VIP Getaway, which included two tickets to a 2014 Cardinals home game, VIP tailgate passes, pre-game field passes, a one night stay at Valley resort and a $100 gas card.

ACHO SHINES OFF THE FIELD

LB Sam Acho had an outstanding career at the University of Texas before making his mark in the NFL over his first three seasons. As much as he has accomplished on the field, Acho's achievements off the field are equally impressive.

The Quest To Build A Hospital

Acho's parents, Dr. Sonny (family and marriage counselor) and Christie Acho (nurse), were both born in Nigeria and founded the Living Hope Bible Fellowship Church as well as Living Hope Ministries, which provides medical care to the poor in Nigeria. Every summer, Acho joins his father and brother, Emmanuel, on medical mission trips to Nigeria along with a team of medical professionals and volunteers. The services they provide help save the lives of rural villagers who otherwise lack basic medical services and supplies. In 2014, the foundation celebrated its 25th year of providing these services.

The long-term goal of Living Hope Ministries is to build a much-needed hospital that will serve over 3,000 residents in remote villages. To help make that happen, Acho has enlisted his Cardinals teammates and other local celebrities to raise money by putting on the annual "Hope for Life Celebrity Auction and Fashion Show." The second annual event, with all proceeds going directly towards the goal of building the hospital, was held in December 2013 at the Ritz Carlton Phoenix and featured many specialized auction items such as rounds of golf, wine tastings and bowling outings, with one bidder winning the opportunity for QB Carson Palmer to take their children to school.

Serving The Children Of Arizona

In addition to his work overseas, Acho is one of the Cardinals' most visible figures in the local community. Despite a broken fibula suffered early in the 2013 season, Acho maintained a high profile with appearances throughout the Valley while rehabbing from the injury. A former University of Texas academic All-American, a significant portion of Acho's community efforts are aimed at youth in Arizona and helping them focus in on the importance of education, reading and fitness.

In past years, Acho has served as the keynote speaker at the Boys & Girls Clubs of America's national "Youth of the Year" celebration, given speeches and dozens of schools throughout the Valley, taken part in the "Big Red Rally" program to help prevent childhood obesity and volunteered his time at St. Dominic Savio Academy, a school in Tempe for autistic children. In 2011, he visited the Cardinals Preparatory Academy and spoke to fifth to eighth grade students about the importance of continued education. He also spoke to various schools in Phoenix in 2012 about the important roles that school and decision-making have in attaining personal goals. At each visit, Acho spent time answering questions as well as signing autographs.

During the holidays, Acho has become a regular visitor to both the Phoenix Children's Hospital and the Ronald McDonald House, helping spread holiday cheer to children suffering from illness. In each of the last three years, he has been part of a group that passed out personalized teddy bears to children at Phoenix Children's Hospital as part of the annual "Teddy Bear Express" program. He has also joined teammates at the Ronald McDonald House for the annual "Light the House" holiday party. The group provides the children and their families with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the kids.

In 2011, Acho joined teammates and team representatives for a ceremonial field groundbreaking at Kings Ridge Preparatory Academy on behalf of the NFL's Grassroots program. The school district received a $200,000 grant to install an acrylic grass field surface at the academy's athletic fields.

Exploring Arizona On EVB Live

While recovering from his season-ending leg injury last fall, Acho had a weekly television segment on 12 News called "Sam in the City." From a visit to the Barrett-Jackson auto auction to a reading program at UMOM, a homeless shelter, Acho introduced viewers to the people, places, events, and organizations that make Phoenix great. He also wrote an accompanying weekly column for the Arizona Republic.

Academic Honors

During his time at the University of Texas, Acho was one of the nation's most highly decorated student athletes. Below is a list of a few of his achievements in that time:

- Earned a double bachelor's degree in Business Administration/Marketing from Texas' McCombs School of Business Honors Program with a 3.601 GPA.
- Winner of the William V. Campbell Trophy, also known as the Academic Heisman, for "combined academic success, football performance and exemplary community leadership."
- Named the men's 2010-11 Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year, an honor that recognizes student-athletes who display an extraordinary degree of sportsmanship and/or community service during the academic year.
- Winner of the Wuerffel Trophy, given for many of the same accomplishments as the Campbell Trophy.
- One of just seven Longhorns to earn ESPN The Magazine Academic All-American honors multiple times.
- Winner of the ARA Sportsmanship Award in major college football.
- In September of 2010, was named one of the Sporting News' "20 Smartest Athletes." Joined Georgia Tech center Sean Bedford and Alabama QB Greg McElroy as the only college athletes on the list.
- Seven-time member of UT's Athletic Director's Honor Roll.
- Inductee of UT's Friar Society, the oldest and most prestigious honor society at Texas.
- A 2009 and 2010 Arthur Ashe Award Recipient (national award for minority athletes).
- Member of the Spanish Honor Society, the Intercultural Club and the student government and is fluent in Spanish.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

A two-time Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year honoree as a member of the Washington Redskins (2010-11), linebacker Lorenzo Alexander has established himself as one of the NFL's most active community participants throughout his career. During his first season in Arizona in 2013, Alexander made a profound impact in the local community with a host of appearances throughout the Valley, extending on the work he has performed in the Greater Washington, DC area and in his hometown of Oakland, CA.

In addition to his annual charity events in DC and California in support of his A.C.E.S (Accountability, Community, Education, Sports) Foundation, this past year Alexander participated in various kids camps, made numerous appearances in support of the Phoenix Children's Hospital and the Ronald McDonald House, hosted a football safety clinic for mothers of youth football players, participated in a charity bike ride in support of the American Diabetes Association and helped promote the NFL's Play 60 campaign.

Since coming to Arizona, Alexander has served as a key supporter of both the Ronald McDonald House and the Phoenix Children's Hospital. He has joined teammates in regular appearances at the Ronald McDonald House and in December, participated in the annual "Light the House" holiday party to help spread holiday cheer. At the event, players and members of the Cardinals front office helped provide families with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the children. Alexander also made numerous visits to the Phoenix Children's Hospital, and this past April joined teammates for an ABC-15 Telethon that helped raise money for patient care, along with critical programs and services to patients and their families. At the event, Alexander helped answer phones and spent times visiting with children.

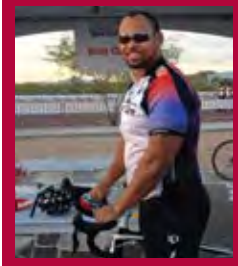
Also in December, Alexander turned up to support teammate Calais Campbell for his 4th Annual "Christmas with Calais" event that benefitted Campbell's CRC Foundation. Alexander joined Campbell and numerous other Cardinals players at a local Target as they hosted 55 children from UMOM Day center and Campbell's Right Track After School program as each child was treated to dinner and taken on a $200 shopping spree. Later that month, Alexander was part of a Cardinals contingent that visited Palm Valley Elementary School to reward to school with a $10,000 grant on behalf of the NFL's "Play 60" program that promotes children getting at least 60 minutes of exercise each day. The money goes to help the school with health and wellness programming and equipment.

In March of this year, Alexander joined Cardinals teammates and coaches to host a "Football Safety Clinic" geared to a group of 100 mothers of youth football players from "Heads Up Football" leagues around the state of Arizona. The clinic, held in conjunction with USA Football's "Heads Up Football" program, included classroom discussion about proper nutrition and hydration as well as concussions and also focused on proper techniques for tackling, equipment fitting and general safety.

A spokesman for the National Kidney Foundation and American Diabetes Association, in March of this year Alexander joined Cardinals teammate Frostee Rucker for "Tour De Cure", a 100-mile charity bike ride in support of the American Diabetes Association.

The mission of Alexander's A.C.E.S. Foundation is to support youth through emphasizing self-accountability, taking pride in community, striving for education excellence while promoting a healthy mind and body through sports. The goal is that every youth will be inspired to obtain a higher education, pursue a career, maintain a strong family unit and give back to their community. The A.C.E.S. Foundation is a chapter of the National Alliance of African American Athletes (NAAAA). It provided enrichment programs for youth in his hometown of Oakland the Greater DC area.

Some of the programs through the foundation include "Real Talk Workshops" that provide youth with information and resources to promote health prevention and good decision making. The "Readers are Leaders" program, tutoring support, test taking strategies, problem solving techniques and SAT prep class help emphasize education for high school, middle school and elementary students.



Annual events in California like his celebrity bowling benefit, the Mother's Day brunch, the "Hold the Line Youth Camp" and his back to school giveaway help various groups of people in his home state. Alexander also remains active in the Virginia/DC area with events such as an annual golf tournament, a celebrity bowling benefit, and the annual "All Pro Sports Camp" which is a free two-day football clinic for high school and junior high school football players through a partnership with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Grace Covenant Church.

This past April, Alexander continued one of his biggest fundraising events when he hosted the 5th Annual "Ride to Provide" charity bike ride in Virginia. The bike ride has offered both children and adults the opportunity to get exercise on a scenic Virginia trail while being joined by NFL players and local celebrities. The event has also included a silent auction and a post-ride celebration featuring food, drinks and entertainment.

Alexander participated in a variety of events during his time with the Redskins, including in 2010 when he joined President Barack Obama and First Lady Michelle Obama at the White House Easter Egg Role to help kids learn the value of good health. He helped distribute turkeys and Thanksgiving food baskets at FedEx Field to local residents in need during the holiday season and was a regular participant in team youth fitness zones to help children learn more about the benefits of good nutrition and health. In 2011, he hosted a Play 60 youth flag football clinic and participated in the National Kidney Foundation's "Kidney Walk," a community fundraiser that calls attention to the prevention of kidney disease and the need for organ donation. He also participated in the "Redskins Read" program, which speaks to local elementary schools about the importance of reading and also took part in the "Holiday Wishes Come True" event which took local youth on a Christmas shopping spree.

Through the NFL Youth Football Fund in 2010, his ACES Foundation was awarded a grant to help support his youth football camps. In 2008, Alexander was one of 89 NFL players whose foundation was awarded a grant from NFL Charities for its community work. Alexander has also partnered with United Way and the NFL to serve as an Ambassador to promote reading and the importance of education.

HOMETOWN: Homestead, FL
DOB: April 3, 1990

ROUND 3B
91st Overall

NOTECARDS

- Selected with the Cardinals second pick of the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft (acquired from the Saints in a first round trade), Brown became the second Pittsburg State player ever selected by the Cardinals, joining RB Ronald Moore who was taken in the third round (87th overall) in 1993.
- At the 2014 NFL Combine, Brown ran the 40-yard dash in 4.34 seconds, which ranked as the third-fastest time of any player at the event behind WR Brandin Cooks (4.33) and RB Dri Archer (4.26).
- After sitting out of college football for two seasons (2009-10), scored a TD on an 84-yard punt return the first time he touched the ball for Pittsburg State.
- Hails from the same hometown – Homestead, FL – as Cardinals 2014 fifth round pick Ed Stinson. The duo played local youth football together before going on to star at different high schools.

COLLEGE CAREER:

Began his collegiate career at Mars Hills University in 2008 and finished his final three years of eligibility at Pittsburg State (2011-13) following the tragic shooting death of his half-brother, James Walker, in the summer of 2010 … after the 2008 season at Mars Hill, academic problems forced him to miss the 2009 season and he transferred to Coffeyville (KS) Community College, where he sat out the 2010 season … transferred to Pittsburg State prior to the 2011 season … started 34 of 36 games at Pittsburg State and holds school career records with 185 receptions for 3,387 yards (18.3 avg.) and 34 TDs … added 394 rushing yards and six TDs on 48 carries … one of the nation's top special teams players, he returned 78 punts for 1,063 yards and three TDs, as his average of 13.6 yards rates the third-best in school history … added 1,400 yards with two TDs on 52 kickoff returns, ranking fourth in PSU annals with an average of 26.9 yards … scored 272 points and amassed 6,244 all-purpose yards, also fourth-best in school history … his 3,387 receiving yards and 34 TD grabs both placed fifth on the MIAA all-time list and he is just the fourth player in MIAA history to generate at least 6,000 all-purpose yards … ranks second on the school's single-season record chart with 1,216 receiving yards in 2011 and placed third with 1,198 yards in 2013, joining Ronnie West (1990-91) as the only players in school annals to record multiple 1,000-yard seasons … his 63 catches in 2012 were good for second in school history, and his 61 grabs in both 2011 and 2013 are tied for third on the PSU annual list … set the school season-record with a 32.4-yard kickoff return average in 2013 … for his complete college career, Brown appeared in 47 games with 36 starting assignments, pulling in 212 catches for 4,006 yards (16th on the NCAA Division II career-record chart) and 41 TDs (tied for 20th in DII annals) … rushed 54 times for 412 yards (7.6 avg.) and six TDs and returned 93 punts for 1,180 yards (12.7 avg.) with three TDs, along with scoring twice via 81 kickoff returns for 2,118 yards (26.2 avg.) … scored a total of 320 points and gained 7,716 all-purpose yards, the 12th-best career total by a Division II player..

2013: A three-time team captain, Brown was a consensus All-American and unanimous All-MIAA first-team choice, while adding Allstate AFCA Good Works Team and All-Super Region III accolades as a senior … led the team for the third-straight year with 61 receptions for 1,198 yards (19.6 avg.) and 14 TDs; his 61 grabs tied his 2011 figure for third on the school's single-season record list … his receiving yards also placed third on the team's annual list and his TD reception total ranks second all-time … also rushed 17 times for 100 yards (5.9 avg.) and two TDs … on special teams, returned 23 punts for 264 yards (11.5 avg.) and 12 kickoffs for 389 yards and a TD, setting the school single-season record with a 32.4-yard average … scored 102 points and amassed 1,951 all-purpose yards, an average of 162.6 yards per game … captured Pitt State's all-time receiving record with a nine-catch, 237-yard performance in the game vs. Lincoln, as he also scored five total TDs in the contest to tie the PSU single game scoring record (30 points), along with compiling 294 all-purpose yards to earn MIAA Offensive Player of the Week honors; his 237-yard receiving total ranks second on Pitt State's single game chart and fifth in MIAA single game history.

2012: Earned consensus All-American first-team honors, in addition to receiving All-MIAA and All-Super Region III accolades as a junior after leading the league and ranking second in the nation with 2,000 all-purpose yards … serving as a team captain, led the team with 63 receptions for 973 yards (15.4 avg.) and eight TDs … also picked up 202 yards and a TD on 13 carries (15.5 avg.) … led the MIAA and placed 14th nationally with a 15.4-yard average (fourth-best in PSU history) on 28 punt returns for 430 yards and a TD … placed third in the conference with 16 kickoff returns for 395 yards (24.7 avg.) … the MIAA Special Teams Player of the Year, Brown also received Football Gazette National Special Teams Player of the Year honors.

2011: Named a team captain, the Daktronics and Football Gazette All-American first-team pick also received national recognition as a special teams performer by The NFL Draft Report and Associated Press … was a second-team All-MIAA choice as a WR and first-team selection as a return specialist … started 12 of 14 games and hauled in a team-leading 61 passes for 1,216 yards (19.9 avg.) and 12 TDs … also carried the ball 18 times for 92 yards (5.1 avg.) and three TDs … on special teams, returned 27 punts for 369 yards and two TDs, while also returning 24 kickoffs for 616 yards and a TD … for the year, compiled 2,293 all-purpose yards (163.8 ypg), the 13th-best figure in the nation.

2010: Redshirted in his only season at Coffeyville Community College, but did not play football … later transferred to Pittsburg State.

2008: In his lone season at Mars Hill University, was named the South Atlantic Conference's Freshman of the Year despite starting just two of the 11 games he appeared in … led the league and finished 25th in the nation with 1,472 all-purpose yards … caught 27 passes for 619 yards (22.9 avg.) and seven TDs, returned 29 kickoffs for 718 yards (24.8 avg.) with one TD and also returned 15 punts for 117 yards … named the SAC Special Teams Player of the Week after returning a kickoff 87 yards for a score vs. Lenoir-Rhyne.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Since joining the Cardinals, Calais Campbell has established himself as one of the team's leading philanthropists through his work with the team and his "CRC Foundation." The Cardinals 2011 "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year," Campbell has made it his mission to give back to the Arizona community through team events and his foundation work.

In 2010, he founded the "CRC Foundation," named after his late father, Charles. The foundation is committed to the enhancement of the community by teaching life skills to assist with the development of young people. Through sports, the enrichment of creative talents, vocational skills, guidance of positive financial skills and quality health and nutrition, the foundation seeks to empower and provide self-awareness for future leaders.

Campbell has hosted a variety of events since the creation of the foundation to help it grow including this past April when he hosted his second annual golf tournament at Ocotillo Golf Resort in Chandler, AZ. In 2013, Campbell and the CRC Foundation launched Right Track, a daily after-school program serving students from the Roosevelt School District in south Phoenix. In partnership with the Black Family and Child Service Center, Right Track provides students ages 5-14 with tutoring, mentoring and a meal.

This past year, Campbell and the "CRC Foundation" have also extended their existing philanthropic programs to include a Thanksgiving turkey drive and support local youth football programs. In December of 2013, Calais hosted his fourth annual Christmas with Calais, an evening which treats 50 homeless children to a shopping spree at Target with Campbell and his teammates, a holiday meal and visit from Santa. One of eight children, Calais has continued to award two college scholarships each year to students from large families through his foundation.

A new initiative in 2013 was the Cheer for a Cause program. At every home game last season, CRC Foundation representatives selected one fan wearing a Campbell jersey at University of Phoenix as a winner. Winners received a donation to a charity of their choice from Calais, with the amount dependent on his game performance. (Campbell's CRC Foundation will donate $500 for a team win, $1,000 for a one-sack game, and culminates with $15,000 for a five-sack game). At the completion of the 2013 season, Calais had given away $12,000 to various charities including The Wounded Warrior Project and The Robert Tate Dyslexia Foundation.

Last September, Campbell hosted his third annual fundraiser dinner at Fleming's Steakhouse to benefit his foundation and raise money through a silent and live auction. Campbell joined his Cardinals teammates and other celebrities to dine alongside guests. Last April, he served as the celebrity host at the "Comedians for a Cure" benefit comedy show for Phoenix Children's Hospital at Stand Up Live in Phoenix.

Campbell has also partnered with United Way and the NFL as the Cardinals spokesperson to promote reading and the importance of education. In addition to helping to recruit volunteer readers, tutors and mentors, Campbell took part in the United Way's Great Phoenix Literacy Fair in January of 2013 to promote the importance of literacy of elementary school students. In March of 2013, he was the keynote speaker to a group of college students at Deloitte and United Way's Alternate Spring Break. In February of 2014, he was the keynote speaker at a Generation United event for the Valley of the Sun United Way where he spoke to 200 young professionals about the importance of community service. He is currently recruiting volunteer mentors, readers and tutors to join him in helping to cut high school dropout rates as part of his work with Team NFL and United Way. To encourage Cardinals fans to volunteer, Campbell created an incentive program that rewards fans that sign up to mentor under Team Calais, the first and only one among United Way's NFL representatives. Fans can sign up at www.unitedway.org/calais.

He also represented the team at Jefferson Elementary School in November of 2011 and led students in fitness activities as part of the NFL's Play 60 program. Jefferson was selected as a Super School and won a $10,000 grant from the NFL for health and wellness programming and equipment. The Play 60 program helps to promote at least 60 minutes of physical activity per day to combat childhood obesity.

He joined teammate Sam Acho as well as other Cardinals players to travel to Nigeria in the summers of 2012 and 2013 to serve on a medical mission through Acho's "Living Hope Foundation." The group brought doctors, nurses, surgeons and dentists to give free medical care to people in need.

Previously, Campbell joined representatives from Albertsons and distributed 50 meals to current and former residents of the Chicanos Por La Causa shelter during Thanksgiving of 2010. The CLPC shelter provides safe, temporary housing for women and their children who have been forced to leave their homes due to domestic violence. He also distributed 40 turkey dinners to families in the Chandler school district at Hamilton High School and Hancock Elementary to help brighten the holidays of those in need that same year.

Campbell also served as a keynote speaker for the 2010 Spotlight Dinner through the Chandler Youth Football League. The dinner recognized student athletes earning scholarships to four-year colleges and universities.

NO ONE LIKE HIM

DE Calais Campbell has played six NFL seasons, and although he has yet to receive the recognition he deserves, he demands the attention of every opponent that lines up against the Cardinals on gameday.

Following another outstanding season in 2013 – in which he established a career high with nine sacks – Campbell was named a Pro Bowl alternate for the first time. His full stat line for the season read 71 tackles, nine sacks, tied for the team-high with 12 tackles for loss, five passes defensed, two fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and 27 QB pressures.

Another Season With 50 & 6.0

After posting five tackles and a half-sack at Philadelphia in Week 13, Campbell reached 52 tackles and six sacks in '13. It marked the fifth consecutive year that the 6-8 defender had at least 50 tackles and six sacks in a season.

Campbell is the only player in team history with 50+ tackles and six sacks in five different seasons.

He joins DE Curtis Greer (5) as the only defensive linemen in team history with at least six sacks in five different seasons.

NOTECARDS

- The Cardinals first round selection in the 2013 NFL Draft and the 7th overall pick; was the first guard taken and the fourth offensive lineman behind tackles Eric Fisher (1st overall, Chiefs), Luke Joeckel (2nd overall, Jaguars) and Lane Johnson (4th overall, Eagles).
- After earning a starting spot at LG in training camp, Cooper's rookie season came to an end after he suffered a broken leg in the Cardinals preseason matchup vs. San Diego. He was placed on injured reserve on 8/30/13.
- Became the first guard taken in the top eight of the NFL Draft since 1982, when future Hall of Famer Mike Munchak was selected by the Houston Oilers with the eighth overall pick.
- Became the first North Carolina player ever selected as a finalist for the Outland Trophy as the nation's top interior lineman.

PRO CAREER:

The Cardinals first-round selection (7th overall) in the 2013 NFL Draft, Cooper suffered a broken leg in the team's third preseason game and was placed on injured reserve on 8/30/13.

2013: Suffered broken leg in the preseason game vs. SD (8/24) and was placed on injured reserve on 8/30.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Jonathan Cooper, the Cardinals first-round pick in the 2013 NFL Draft, didn't waste time getting active in the Arizona community. Although he missed his rookie season after being placed on injured reserve, he still was able to attend multiple team community events.

During his rookie campaign, Cooper was a regular participant in the team's Milk and Cookies program, visiting elementary schools throughout the Valley promoting literacy by reading to children. Cooper also took part in team kids camps, spending afternoons performing NFL drills with elementary students across the Valley.

In November, Cooper joined teammates in a tour of Luke Air Force Base and met with military members as part of a Veterans Day celebration. While at the event, the players, Cardinals cheerleaders and team mascot Big Red, took pictures and signed autographs after taking a tour of an F-16 aircraft and hangar.

In the offseason, the Cardinals hosted a Football Safety Clinic geared to a group of 100 mothers of youth football players that Cooper and several teammates participated in by demonstrating on-field drills using proper technique. The clinic also held a classroom discussion about proper nutrition and hydration, as well as concussions.

PICKS IN BUNCHES

Antonio Cromartie has five career multi-INT games, the most recent coming on 9/18/11 when he picked off Jacksonville's Luke McCown twice. Since Cromartie's rookie year in 2006, only Ed Reed (nine), Asante Samuel (eight) and Charles Woodson (six) have more games with multiple INTs.

Cromartie's Career Games with Multiple INTs

INTs	Opponent	QB
3	11/11/07 vs. Ind	Peyton Manning
2	9/18/11 vs. Jax	Luke McCown
2	9/22/08 vs. NYJ	Brett Favre (1) Kellen Clemens (1)
2	12/2/07 @ KC	Damon Huard (1) Tyler Thigpen (1)
2	10/28/07 vs. Hou	Matt Schaub

Cromartie is the only player to record three INTs of Peyton Manning in the same game in Manning's 240 career regular season games.

AN ELITE COMBO

Antonio Cromartie joins Patrick Peterson as Arizona's projected starters at CB in 2014, and the two have combined for five total Pro Bowl selections. The Chicago Bears are the only other team to have two CBs with multiple Pro Bowl selections (Charles Tillman and Tim Jennings – 2 each).

Cromartie has been named to the Pro Bowl three times, including each of the last two years (2007, 12-13). That puts him in select company as one of only six active players who have been named a Pro Bowler at CB three or more times.

A HANDFUL OF TDS

Antonio Cromartie has found the end zone five times in his career, scoring in three different ways (INT return, fumble return, missed FG return).

9/9 vs. Buffalo (INT Return)
Picked off Ryan Fitzpatrick pass intended for David Nelson and returned it 40 yards on Buffalo's first drive of the third quarter to give the Jets a 34-7 lead.

9/22 vs. NY Jets (INT Return)
On the first play of the second quarter, intercepted Brett Favre's pass for Laveranues Coles and went 52 yards to put the Chargers in front 17-7 on Monday Night Football.

11/4 at Minnesota (Missed FG Return)
Set record for the longest TD in NFL history (since tied by Cordarrelle Patterson) when he caught Ryan Longwell's missed 57-yard FGA on the final play of the first half and returned it 109 yards and a 14-7 San Diego lead.

10/28 vs. Houston (INT Return, Fumble Return)
Scored first two career TDs. Gave Chargers a 14-0 lead when he recovered an errant punt snap in the end zone in the first quarter. Then in the second quarter, made it 28-3 with a career-long 70-yard return of a Matt Schaub pass intended for Kevin Walter.

MASTER OF HIS CRAFT

CARDINALS SUPPORT RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE

Led by a group from the Cardinals Women's Club, Cardinals players, Big Red and Cardinals Cheerleaders visited the Ronald McDonald House in Phoenix for the "Light the House" party last December to help spread holiday cheer.

All of the houses were lit with holiday lights and the group from the Cardinals provided the families with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the children. The "Light the House" event is one of many that the Cardinals take part in at the Ronald McDonald House in Phoenix.

The Ronald McDonald House Charities of Phoenix provides a welcoming "home away from home" for children and their families who travel to Phoenix to receive treatment for serious, often life-threatening illnesses and injuries. They help lessen the burden by ensuring families have the stability they need to support their children by providing an atmosphere of comfort, hope and courage while also supporting programs that directly benefit children and their families in the community.

AN UNCLE'S INSPIRATION

Faced with unspeakable tragedy at an early age, Darnell Dockett remembers a time when he thought he was more likely to end up in prison or dead than in the NFL. He credits his uncle, Kevin, as the one individual responsible for turning his life around.

At the age of 13, Darnell arrived home to find the body of his mother, Cheryl Hambrick, who had been killed by a gunshot to the head. Shortly thereafter, Darnell moved from Decatur, GA to Maryland to be with his father, Darnell Sr., who was dying of pancreatic cancer.

Only a few months after moving in with his father, Darnell Sr. passed away and Darnell became an orphan. That's when Kevin Dockett, his father's brother, took him into his Burtonsville, MD home and probably saved his life. Additional challenges would follow but he credits his uncle with providing a foundation and instilling a sense of perspective that enabled him to meet and move past each of them.

Tattooed on Darnell's right forearm is a poem of gratitude to his uncle:

when no one else would.
When the odds were against me,
beside me you stood.
For being my friend,
brother, confidant and father.
Because of you I know blood is thicker than water.
Words can't express my gratitude,
nor any amount of money.
From the bottom of my heart,
thank you and I love you
Donny

NOTECARDS

- Totaled 1,023 scrimmage yards (652 rushing, 371 receiving) in 2013, becoming just the fifth rookie in franchise history to surpass 1,000 yards from scrimmage in a season and first since Anquan Boldin (1,417) in 2003.
- With 652 rushing yards on just 118 attempts in 2013, Ellington's 5.53 rushing average led all NFL players with a minimum of 100 rushing attempts. His 5.53 average was the highest total for a Cards RB (min. 100 attempts) in a season since John David Crow averaged 5.85 yards per attempt in 1960 (183 for 1,071).
- Earned the FedEx Ground Player of the Week after piling up 154 rushing yards on 15 attempts in Week 8 vs. Atlanta in his first career NFL start. The performance included an 80-yard TD run that tied for the third-longest run in franchise history.
- In Week 15 at Tennessee, posted 71 rushing yards on 10 attempts (7.1 avg.) and 87 receiving yards on four receptions (21.8 avg.). In doing so, he became just the ninth player in NFL history (dating back to at least 1960) to average 7.0 yards per rush attempt (min. 10 attempts) and 20.0 yards per reception (min. 4 receptions) in a game – and the only rookie.
- With his performance in Tennessee, became just the second rookie in franchise history to post 70+ rushing yards and 80+ receiving yards in a single game, joining Hall of Fame RB Ollie Matson, who accomplished the feat on 10/26/52 vs. Pittsburgh.
- Averaged 5.5 yards per carry for his career at Clemson, never averaging below 5.1 yards per attempt in any of his four seasons.
- One of just four players in Clemson history to rush for 1,000 yards twice in their career.

In Tennessee, Ellington became the first Cardinals player to lead the team in both rushing yards and receiving yards in a game since Marcel Shipp (79 receiving yards, 79 rushing yards) on 12/15/02 at St. Louis.

ROOKIES GOING OVER 150

Ellington's 158 yards from scrimmage in Week 15 was his second-highest output of the season (162 yards vs. Atlanta in Week 8). He became the first Cardinals rookie since Anquan Boldin (2, 2003) to post multiple games with at least 150 scrimmage yards in a season.

ELLINGTON GETS 1,000 IN YEAR ONE

Rookie RB Andre Ellington, the Cardinals sixth round pick (187th overall) in the 2013 NFL Draft, totaled 1,023 scrimmage yards on the season (652 rushing, 371 receiving). He became just the fifth rookie in franchise history to surpass 1,000 yards from scrimmage in a season and first since Anquan Boldin (1,417) in 2003.

- A major contributor to various community efforts throughout his career, Feely was named the 2013 Arizona Cardinals/Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year and he was one of three finalists for the NFL's 2013 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award. Additional recognition Feely has earned for his work in the community include the Atlanta Falcons 2002 Man of the Year, the United Way's Hometown Hero Award recipient with the NY Giants, the Muscular Dystrophy Man of the Year in 2010 and the Game Changer award at the Phoenix Rescue Mission for his years of service and dedication.
- Since entering the NFL in 2001, Feely has scored 1,437 points. Among all active players, his 1,437 points rank fourth in the NFL behind Adam Vinatieri (2,006), David Akers (1,721) and Sebastian Janikowski (1,489).
- Has successfully converted 359 consecutive PATs dating back to 11/9/03 (@ NYG) as a member of the Atlanta Falcons, the second-longest active streak in the NFL behind only New England's Stephen Gostkowski (360).
- In 13 NFL seasons, has appeared in 207 of 208 possible games during the regular season, missing his only career game at the beginning of the 2008 season when he signed with the Jets after the season opener.
- Named a team captain for the first time in his career with the Cardinals in 2011 and again served as a team captain during the 2013 season.
- Totaled 127 points in 2013, his ninth career 100-point season. Has reached 100+ points in three of his four seasons with the Cardinals and led all NFL kickers in points during the 2002 (138) and 2005 (148) seasons.
- His 127 points in 2013 represent the second-highest single-season point total in franchise history, trailing only the 140-point campaign for Neil Rackers in 2005.
- Had a streak of 17 consecutive FGs made in 2013, giving him at least a share of four of the five longest consecutive FG streaks in team history (19, 18, 17 and 15). As a member of the NY Jets, connected on 24 consecutive FG attempts between 2008-09, establishing a franchise record. Also had a streak of 22 consecutive successful FG attempts between 2006-07 with the Giants and Dolphins.
- Had two game-winning FGs in 2013, including an OT winner against the Titans in Week 15. Feely now has 11 game-winning kicks in his career. Of those 11 game-winners, six have come during his four seasons in Arizona.
- Of his 11 career game-winners, seven have come in OT and four at the end of regulation. He is one of just eight players in NFL history with 7+ career OT FGs.
- Earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance at Tennessee in Week 15 of the '13 season. It marked his third career Player of the Week award and second as a member of the Cardinals. He earned Player of the Week honors for his performance vs. Denver in Week 14 of the '10 season as a member of the Cardinals and Player of the Week honors in Week 7 of the 2002 season vs. Carolina as a member of the Falcons.
- Hit a career-long 61-yard FG to tie the game in the fourth quarter vs. Buffalo in Week 6 of the '12 season. It marked the longest FG in franchise history (previous long was 55) and Feely became just the 11th player in NFL history to connect on a FG attempt of 60+ yards.
- With his 22-yard game winner in overtime against the Cleveland Browns in Week 15 of the '11 season, became just the second kicker in NFL history to kick OT FGs with four different teams (also had game-winners with Atlanta, NY Giants and NY Jets). He joined Todd Peterson (Arizona, Kansas City, Pittsburgh and San Francisco) as the only kickers to have accomplished that feat.
- Against the Denver Broncos in Week 14 of the '10 season, earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors after totaling 25 points in the Cardinals victory, the second-highest point total by a kicker in NFL history (Rob Bironas, 26 pts, 10/21/07 vs. Houston). Feely scored his first career TD in the win vs. Denver on a five-yard run off a fake FG attempt, becoming the first kicker in franchise history to score a TD. The TD was the first by a kicker since Dallas' Tim Seder scored on an 8-yard run on 10/7/01 at Oakland.
- In the 25-point performance vs. Denver, Feely scored 22 consecutive points in the game (5 FG, TD, PAT) after the Broncos took an early 3-0 lead. It represented the most consecutive points scored in a game by an individual player in the Super Bowl era (post 1967).

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Cardinals 2013 "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year," veteran kicker Jay Feely spends a lot of his time helping out in the community, both stateside and abroad.

Feely was selected last season as one of 32 NFL Man of the Year winners and was awarded with a $1,000 grant from the NFL to the charity of his choice. He was also chosen as a league-wide finalist and received $5,000 from NFL Charities. While in New York at the Super Bowl to be honored as a finalist, Feely spoke at the United Nations as part of a global ambassador award program.

As an active participant in the Arizona community, Feely is a supporter and regular visitor at the Phoenix Ronald McDonald House, including last December at the annual Light the House holiday party to help spread holiday cheer. The group of players and their wives provided the families at the house with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the children. His involvement with the Ronald McDonald House also included joining Cardinals president Michael Bidwill in January of 2012 for a ribbon cutting ceremony to celebrate the opening of a new, fully furnished Cardinals themed two-bedroom apartment.

Feely is a yearly participant at the team's Feed the Hungry program to celebrate the Thanksgiving holiday at the Phoenix Rescue Mission. At this year's event, he was given the Game Changer award by the Rescue Mission for his years of service and dedication. He also passed out personalized teddy bears at Phoenix Children's Hospital in December as part of the annual Teddy Bear Express program.

Jay and his wife, Rebecca, are supporters of the House of Refuge, a non-profit organization helping homeless families and individuals as they strive towards self-sufficiency and seek to obtain permanent housing.

In addition to his community work in Arizona, he made his fourth trip to Haiti during the 2014 offseason after going last year in the offseason and twice in 2012. Feely traveled to Haiti to take part in relief efforts following the devastating earthquake in 2010. This year, Feely once again joined a group from The Grove church, located in Chandler, AZ, to continue the process of rebuilding a church that was destroyed by the earthquake. The group also spent time at an orphanage outside of Port Au Prince, bringing clothes and other goods for donation. After his first visit in February of 2012, Feely traveled to Haiti later that year, partnering with Mission of Hope to bring a team of nurses and dentists to provide mobile clinics. Mission of Hope has a school attended by over 2,000 students, and they distribute 65,000 meals daily throughout Haiti. Feely is also working with Mission of Hope to build a sports complex that will provide chances for the children of Haiti to develop soccer, basketball and track skills.

Along with his family, Jay created the "Feely Family Foundation" which focuses on the protection, education and rehabilitation of children. The foundation grants scholarships based on financial need, educational achievement and community service. It also supports worthy charities in their efforts to help provide hope to children.

One of the programs set up through the foundation is the World Ministries Football Club. The club encourages educational and playing opportunities beyond high school, assisting each player to explore all of the possibilities available and enabling or providing scholarships to overcome financial needs.

In September of 2011, Feely visited Desert Vista High School for a Breast Cancer awareness pep rally and to help recognize breast cancer survivors. The Desert Vista football team wore pink jerseys provided by the Cardinals to help recognize Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

A DECADE-LONG STREAK

Jay Feely has successfully converted 359 consecutive PATs dating back to 11/9/03. His 359 consecutive PATs rank as the second-longest active streak in the NFL, behind only New England's Stephen Gostdowski (360).

Consecutive PATs—Longest Active Streak

PATs	Player
360	Stephen Gostkowski
359	Jay Feely
285	Rob Bironas
266	Nick Folk

For his career, Feely has hit on 444 of 446 PATs. His last miss came on 11/9/03 @ NY Giants when he had a third quarter PAT blocked. Feely has hit on all 124 PATs in four seasons with the Cardinals.

A HISTORIC DAY

Jay Feely scored his first career TD on a 5-yard run off a fake FG attempt during the Cardinals 2010 victory over Denver. It was the first-ever TD by a Cardinals kicker. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, prior to Feely's 5-yard TD run, the last NFL placekicker to score a TD of any kind was Tim Seder of Dallas with an 8-yard run on 10/7/01 at the Raiders.

Feely became just the 4th kicker since the 1970 merger to score a rushing TD: Dallas' Seder (10/7/01 & 11/12/00); Cleveland's Phil Dawson (10/10/99); NY Giants Jess Atkinson (10/13/85).

In addition to his TD, Feely tied a career-high with five FGs and four PATs, giving him 25 points for the game. That total represents the second-highest point total by a kicker in NFL history, trailing only the 26 points posted by Tennessee's Rob Bironas on 10/21/07 vs. Houston (8 FGs, 2 PATs). Feely became the first player in NFL history to score a TD and kick five FGs in a game.

Most Points By Kicker—NFL Record

Pts	Player (Team)	Game
26	Rob Bironas (Ten)	10/21/07 vs. Houston
25	Jay Feely (Ari)	12/12/10 vs. Denver
23	Bill Cundiff (Dal)	9/15/03 vs. NY Giants
22	Jim Bakken (StL)	9/24/67 vs. Pittsburgh

22 STRAIGHT POINTS

After Broncos K Steven Hauschka's 32-yard FG gave Denver a 3-0 lead with 10:36 remaining in the first quarter, Feely accounted for all of the game's next six scores and all 22 points in the next 44:16. It wasn't until Hauschka's 30-yard FG with 11:20 remaining in the fourth quarter that Denver got back on the scoreboard, with Arizona leading 22-6. Feely's run of 22 points looked like this:

- 36-yard FG (3-3 Tie)
- 48-yard FG (6-3 Arizona)
- 5-yard run on fake FG, followed by PAT (13-3 Arizona)
- 55-yard FG (16-3 Arizona)
- 23-yard FG (19-3 Arizona)
- 49-yard FG (22-3 Arizona)

Feely's 22 consecutive points marked the most consecutive points scored in a game by an individual player in the Super Bowl era (post 1967). Prior to that the last player to score more than 22 uninterrupted points was Green Bay's Paul Hornung, who totaled 24 consecutive points in a 45-7 win vs. Baltimore on 10/8/61. In that game, Hornung kicked a 38-yard FG, then scored three consecutive TDs (and PATs) on a 1-yard run, an 8-yard reception and another 1-yard run.

FEELY FOR 50 and 7

Feely's third FG of the day was a 55-yarder that tied for the longest FG of his career at that point and tied for the longest FG in franchise history. It was the fourth 55-yard FG he has made and the first since 11/1/09 vs. Miami as a member of the Jets. With the 55-yard FG, Feely became the first player in 46 years to kick a 50+ yard FG and score a TD in the same game. The last player to do so was the Boston Patriots' Gino Cappelletti on 11/20/64 vs. Denver. In that game, Cappelletti caught a 25-yard TD pass and kicked a 51-yard FG.

CARDINALS OFFER PREGAME ENTERTAINMENT OPTIONS FOR FANS PRIOR TO HOME GAMES

For fans attending Cardinals home games at University of Phoenix Stadium, the team has created various entertainment options prior to kickoff.

CARDINALS FLIGHT DECK

The "Arizona Cardinals Flight Deck" takes place on the north plaza outside of University of Phoenix Stadium and opens three hours and 25 minutes prior to each home game. The "Flight Deck" is a pregame destination for Cardinals fans that is anchored by the Plaza Lounge, a 50' x 100' shade structure providing seating as well as cooling towers, Cardinals Cheerleader autographs and an oversized LED video wall for watching early NFL games. Food and beverage options are available for purchase through mobile gourmet concessions and portable bar service that fans could bring into the stadium. Other activities include a Kids Combine, football themed games and an interactive display by Valley Chevy Dealers.

CARDINALS PREFLIGHT PARTY

The "Arizona Cardinals Preflight Party" takes place at Westgate's WaterDance Plaza, adjacent to the dancing fountains. The pregame festivities at the "Preflight Party" begin three hours before kickoff for each home game and include an outdoor beer garden in addition to live music, Cardinals Cheerleader autographs, Cardinals-themed inflatables, photo boards and other fan friendly interactive experiences.

CARDINALS GREAT LAWN

An eight-acre expanse of grass surrounded by sycamore trees, the Great Lawn extends west from 95th Avenue to the Loop 101. The lawn stretches over 1,000 feet and is designed for use by fans while tailgating at games or to use during other activities outside the stadium. In addition to the uninterrupted expanse of grass, the Great Lawn includes areas for vendors and musicians on the Hyundai Main Stage. The Great Lawn opens 4 hours prior to kick-off.

CARDINALS PARACHUTE TEAM

Sixty minutes prior to kickoff at each home game, the Cardinals parachute team jumps over University of Phoenix Stadium and lands on one of the nearby lawns in Sportsman's Park.

BIG RED AIR RAID SIREN

As part of a new gameday tradition at University of Phoenix Stadium, the Big Red Air Siren sounds off to help the crowd get fired up as the Cardinals take the field prior to kickoff.

NOTECARDS

- Originally selected by the Cardinals in the first round (third overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft and has started 155 of the 156 games in which he has appeared. Only players taken ahead of him were QB Eli Manning (No. 1 to San Diego) and T Robert Gallery (No. 2 to Oakland). Signed a four-year contract on 3/11/08 and signed an eight-year contract on 8/20/11 that will keep him in a Cardinals uniform through the 2018 season.
- Voted to his seventh consecutive (eighth overall) Pro Bowl in 2013. His eight career Pro Bowl selections are tied with Hall of Fame safety Larry Wilson for the most in franchise history. Earned MVP honors in the 2008 Pro Bowl and his eight career TDs represent a Pro Bowl record.
- Franchise career leader in receptions (846), receiving yards (11,367), receiving TDs (87), total TDs (87), 100-yard receiving games (36) and consecutive games with a reception (149).
- In Week 12 of the 2013 season vs. Indianapolis, reached 11,000 career receiving yards. At 30 years, 85 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach the career milestone.
- With 10 TD receptions in '13, became one of just nine players in NFL history with at least 10 TDs in five different seasons.
- Is one of just 13 players in NFL history with 11,000+ career receiving yards and 85+ career TD receptions in their career.
- In Week 8 of the '13 season vs. Atlanta, reached 800 career receptions. At 30 years, 57 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach the milestone.
- After hauling in 82 receptions in '13, now has 846 career receptions, which ranks 23rd on the NFL's all-time receptions list.
- Has caught at least one pass in a franchise-record 149 consecutive games. Fitzgerald enters the 2014 season with the NFL's longest active streak of consecutive games with a reception.
- Has started 61 consecutive games, which represents the longest active streak in the NFL among WRs.
- One of just five players in NFL history to record at least 1,400 receiving yards four times in their career, joining Jerry Rice (6), Randy Moss (4), Marvin Harrison (4) and Andre Johnson (4).
- In 2012, was named one of three finalists for the "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" Award and was also named the recipient of the 14th Annual Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian Award by Pro Football Weekly, which is given to the NFL player whose contributions to the community and charitable organizations are especially outstanding.
- Was the first player in NFL history to record 90+ receptions five times in their first seven seasons.
- At 28 years, 74 days old, he became the third-youngest player in NFL history to reach 70 career receiving TDs behind only Randy Moss (26 years, 269 days old) and Hall of Famer Jerry Rice (28 years, one day old). Led the NFL in receiving TDs in both 2008 (12) and 2009 (13) and with 10 TD receptions in '07, became the first player in franchise history to record 10+ TDs in three consecutive seasons.
- Has twice been named NFC Offensive Player of the Week, with both award-winning performances coming in consecutive seasons against the Philadelphia Eagles. In Week 10 of the '11 season, he earned the honor for the first time in his career following his performance against the Eagles (7 rec, 146 yards, 2 TDs). In Week 3 of the '12 season, earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week after hauling in nine receptions for 114 yards and a TD against Philadelphia.
- Had one of the best postseasons of any player in NFL history during the Cardinals run to Super Bowl XLIII in 2008, shattering the NFL single postseason record for receptions (30), receiving yards (546) and receiving TDs (seven). His 30 receptions surpassed the previous record of 27, shared by Carolina's Steve Smith (2005) and New England's Wes Welker (2007). His 546 receiving yards surpassed Jerry Rice's 1988 total of 409 yards and his seven TD receptions topped Rice's 1988 total of six.
- Has nine TD receptions in six career postseason games, an NFL record for a player in his first six postseason games.
- With 100 yards receiving in each of the team's four postseason games in '08, set the NFL record for most consecutive playoff games with 100 yards receiving. Has at least 100 yards receiving in four of the six postseason games he has appeared in.
- With 96 receptions for 1,431 yards in 2008, joined wide receivers Anquan Boldin (89-1,038) and Steve Breaston (77-1,006) to mark the fifth time in NFL history that a team had three players all reach 1,000 receiving yards in the same season.
- His 103 receptions in 2005 set a franchise single-season mark, breaking Boldin's previous mark of 101 set in 2003.
- In 2005, Fitzgerald and Boldin became only the second tandem in NFL history to top 100 receptions and 1,400 receiving yards in the same season (Detroit's Herman Moore and Brett Perriman in 1995).
- At 22 years, 123 days old became the youngest receiver in NFL history to record a 100-catch campaign when he reached the milestone at Indianapolis on 1/1/06.

Larry Fitzgerald First Down Fund

Established by Larry Fitzgerald to help kids and their families by funding positive activities for kids during the summer and throughout the year, the First Down Fund supports kids and families in crisis as well as health-related organizations that work with families. Larry and the First Down Fund have made significant contributions – in time, money and resources - to numerous organizations across the country.

Most recently, in May of 2014, Larry teamed with Lenovo to help provide advanced tablet computer technology to schools in both Minneapolis and Phoenix that serve disadvantaged youth. Larry and Lenovo delivered a total of 1,000 pieces of equipment including tablets, keyboards and portable storage and charging stations that were donated to five schools in Minneapolis and four schools in Phoenix and that will be used for a variety of school needs. The goal of the program is to help disadvantaged students gain have access to the latest technology to support their education and their future.

During the summer of 2013 Larry teamed up with Riddell to make a donation of 1000 state of the art youth football helmets, as well as training, to outfit the entire Minneapolis Parks and Recreation youth football program where Larry first played football as a young child..

In 2012 the First Down Fund refurbished a basketball court at the park in Minneapolis where Larry first played football and basketball. He has previously donated football equipment and holiday gifts to the park. During the past several years, the First Down Fund has made donations after each season to charitable organizations across the country nominated by fans.

In recent years, the following organizations received donations as a result of this initiative: Thornydale Elementary of Tucson Arizona, for playground equipment and school supplies, TyREDD, an organization raising awareness about the dangers of drowsy driving, Arthritis Foundation, Weekend Backpack Program of Feedmore in Richmond Virginia, Virginia Tech Relay for Life, Creative States Youth Theater of Arizona, Youth House in Atlanta Georgia, Educational Fund to Stop Gun Violence based in Washington DC, Teen Lifeline of Arizona, PEN in the Classroom, a program of PEN Center USA, Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, Camp Kesem at Arizona State University, Johnson County Nebraska CAN, The Guild School and Neuromuscular Center in Spokane Washington, Phoenix Children's Hospital, Autism Speaks, The Kingman AZ Foodbank, Donorschoose.org, Phoenix Youth at Risk, Special Olympics of Minnesota, Starkey Hearing Foundation, Special Olympics of Arizona, Desert Dance Theater, YWCA of Oahu, Hawaii, Parenting with a Purpose, Pinal Council for CASA/ Foster, Catholic Charities in Flagstaff, Camp Simcha, Streetlight USA, Operation Homefront of Arizona, the African American Breast Cancer Alliance, the Laura Drier Breast Center at Banner Good Samaritan, Starlight Children¹s Foundation, the Tempe Community Action Agency, St. Jude¹s Children¹s Hospital, the American Cancer Society, the Camp Goodtimes Project, Valley America Red Cross, AZ Girls Golf Program of YWCA, Bethlehem Pennsylvania People Who Care, the American Foundation For Suicide Prevention, the West Valley Child Crisis Center, Laura Drier Breast Center at Banner Good Samaritan, Starlight Children's Foundation Arizona, Peoria Parks District, Ryan House, Phoenix Children's Hospice, Tempe Community Action Agency, St. Jude's Children's Hospital, Camp Goodtimes Project, Muscular Dystrophy Association, Valley American Red Cross, AZ Girls Golf Program of YWCA, Bethlehem Pennsylvania People Who Care, AZ Southwest Human Development, AZ Phoenix Children's Hospital, American Foundation For Suicide Prevention, West Valley Child Crisis Center, Technology Student Associatio,n Horizons Youth Program at Sabathani Community Center, Pillsbury United Communities.

Annually Larry makes a donation to Plano Child Development Center, which provides vision care to children who otherwise would not have access to it. Plano was founded by Larry's late grandfather, Dr. Robert Johnson. Larry has also made donations to Make-A-Wish Arizona and Big Brothers Big Sisters AZ, and the Southside Minneapolis Boys & Girls Club. In the summer of 2011 the Larry Fitzgerald First Down Fund distributed funds to the Southern Arizona American Red Cross for wildfire relief. According to the Red Cross the donation prevented 10 families from becoming homeless. The Larry Fitzgerald First Down Fund has also distributed funds to the Jerry Gamble Boys & Girls Club in North Minneapolis for summer youth programming, the Boys and Girls Club of Metropolitan Phoenix for summer youth programming, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Arizona for summer youth programming, Horizons Youth Program at Sabathani Community Center in Minneapolis for summer youth programming, Minnesota Helps - North Minneapolis Recovery Fund to help families affected by the tornado, and Martin Luther King Jr. Park in Minneapolis for a summer film series. Larry also donated a computer lab to Horizons Youth program, which was leveraged by the organization to establish a computer lab open to the entire community. Larry has also made several donations to the foundations established by other NFL athletes.

At his Morton's celebrity server event in 2013, Larry and Morton's of Scottsdale raised $200,000 for charity, including $15,000 for Phoenix Children Hospital's Camp Rainbow. The remaining proceeds will be donated to a mix of breast cancer awareness and prevention organizations, and organizations promoting healthy children and their families, in Phoenix, Minnesota, and across the country.

For his support of children in Arizona and throughout the world, Fitzgerald was honored with the Alfredo J. Molina Community Lifetime Award in June of 2013. The award was given by Teen Lifeline, a Phoenix based organization whose mission is to provide a safe, confidential and life-saving crisis service for teens across Arizona.

Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund

The Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund was established in honor of Larry's late mother who passed away from breast cancer in 2003. It supports causes that Larry's mother held close to her heart, such as the education of urban youth on HIV/AIDS and breast cancer issues. The Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Benefit, Morton's Celebrity Servers Night and the Celebrity Softball Game and VIP After Party are all annual events hosted by Larry, with proceeds supporting both the Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund and the Larry Fitzgerald First Down Fund.

Breast Cancer Awareness

One of the causes closest to Larry's heart is breast cancer research. Following the death of his mother, Larry became very involved in the cause and in November of 2013, he was honored as the recipient of the NFL Players Association Georgetown Lombardi Award, which was established to honor a leader in the sports industry whose life and family have been touched by cancer, and who encourages cancer research, prevention and treatment through awareness and philanthropy. The award is given jointly by the NFL Players Association and the Georgetown Lombardi Comprehensive Cancer Center in Washington, DC.

Over the past five seasons, Larry has proved a key figure in the NFL's annual Breast Cancer Awareness Month in October, using his play on the field and his popularity on social media to earn funds to help raise awareness for breast cancer research. In each of the last four years, Fitzgerald donated thousands of dollars for each catch and TD he hauled in during the month of October. During the '13 season, Fitzgerald pledged to donate $1,000 for every catch and $10,000 for every TD reception during the month of October. He finished the month with 15 receptions and two TDs, raising $35,000 for his play on the field. Larry also donated 25 cents for every new follower gained on social media during the month. Between 2010-13, Larry donated over $115,000 to breast cancer research as a result of his play on the field. The following organizations have received significant donations as a result of this initiative: The National Breast Cancer Foundation, the American Cancer Society, African American Breast Cancer Alliance, and Sistas of AZ Pink 365 campaign providing free mammograms.

After earning a trip to the Pro Bowl following the 2010 season, Larry provided two breast cancer survivors—Liz Dodson and Maureen Hanna, with trips to accompany him to Hawaii.

Humanitarian Travel – Famine Relief and Helping to Restore Hearing

During the last few years, Larry has taken part in humanitarian trips in Africa during the offseason.

- In March of 2013 Larry traveled to Senegal with Oxfam America, and friends Anquan Boldin and Roddy White, to support economic development projects and raise awareness about needs in that part of the world. In March of 2012, he joined former teammate Anquan Boldin and partnered with Oxfam America on a trip to Ethiopia. The duo was there to raise awareness of the drought and famine crisis that has affected millions of people in the region. Among the projects they worked on were irrigation systems and planting trees.

- Larry is also a tireless volunteer the Starkey Hearing Foundation, an international relief group dedicated to provide hear aids and hearing health awareness to those less fortunate and also supporting research and education. In 2013 Larry traveled to the Philippines with Starkey Hearing Foundation to fit children with hearing aids. In May of 2012, Fitzgerald again joined the Starkey Hearing Foundation on a trip to Malaysia and in late July, just prior to the start of training camp, he flew to Uganda to assist President Clinton and his daughter Chelsea fit hearing aids for those in need. In previous years Larry traveled to Thailand and India to fit hearing aids for children.

- In March of 2011, Fitzgerald joined Pros for Africa and the Starkey Hearing Foundation on a trip to Uganda and Rwanda to bring over 22,000 hearing aids to people with no way to afford them.

Youth Football Initiatives

In addition to teaming up with Riddell to donate helmets, 2013, Larry volunteered his time to serve as the national spokesman for USA Football's Protection Tour, promoting proper technique and protective equipment.

Larry has also hosted a youth football camp in Minnesota and in Arizona for several years. Every year scholarship slots are funded by Larry so that underprivileged youth can attend. The camps provided boys and girls ages 7-14 the opportunity to learn fundamentals from Fitzgerald and other NFL players and coaches.

Supporting the Military

Having had a number of family members serve in the Armed Forces, Larry has long been a big supporter of the military.

- In June of 2011, Larry joined EAS on a promotion for the Semper Fi Fund. He did numerous interviews to raise awareness for the "Views for Vets" Semper Fi Fund initiative. For every click on the funds website, donations were made that raised immediate financial support for injured and critically ill members of the United States Armed Forces.

- Twice in his career, Larry has joined other NFL players on week-long NFL/USO tours of Iraq and Afghanistan, spending several days meeting with troops deployed to the Persian Gulf. Larry has visited numerous bases and met with thousands of troops, taking pictures, signing autographs and participating in "football roundtables," where troops were able to ask the players questions. During one trip they also met up with a group of Navy SEALs and were challenged to compete against a number of top SEALs in the obstacle training course.

Man of the Year

Fitzgerald was named the "Arizona Cardinals/Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" in 2012 and was one of three finalists for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award.

In August of 2012, Fitzgerald was honored as the recipient of the 14th Annual Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian Award by Pro Football Weekly, an award given to an NFL player whose contributions to the community and charitable organizations are especially outstanding.

Most recently, Fitzgerald was honored as the male recipient of the 2014 Henry P. Iba Citizen Athlete Award this past June. Created by the Rotary Club of Tulsa (OK) in 1994, the award annually recognizes male and female athletes who are positive role models and give back to their communities. The Rotary Club selects recipients who excel in their sport and who are personally dedicated and involved in charities.

POSTSEASON PERFORMER

During the 2008 postseason, Larry Fitzgerald was unstoppable, breaking virtually every postseason receiving record imaginable. He shattered the NFL records for receiving yards in a single postseason (546), receptions (30) and TDs (7). Fitzgerald recorded four 100-yard games in the postseason as well, a new NFL record for consecutive games with 100-yards receiving.

Fitzgerald added to his status as a force in the playoffs with his performance in the team's two postseason matchups in 2009. With 159 receiving yards in the '09 postseason, Fitzgerald had 705 receiving yards in his first six postseason games, second in NFL history behind Steve Smith (706).

587	Tom Fears, LA Rams, 1949-55
582	Anthony Carter, Minnesota, 1987-89

Fitzgerald had more receiving yards (628) through his first five postseason games than any receiver in NFL history through their first six games, outside of Smith.

With his two TD receptions in the Wild Card contest vs. Green Bay, Fitzgerald recorded at least one TD reception in his first five consecutive postseason games, tying the third-longest streak in NFL postseaon history. Only John Stallworth (8) and David Givens (7) had longer streaks than Fitzgerald.

A MAN OF MANY MILESTONES

Becoming the youngest player in NFL history to reach 11,000 career receiving yards was one of many career milestones for Larry Fitzgerald during his first 10 NFL seasons.

800 Receptions

- In Week 8 of the '13 season vs. Atlanta, Fitzgerald reached 800 career receptions. At 30 years, 57 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach the milestone.

10,000 Receiving Yards

- In Week 6 of the 2012 season vs. Buffalo, Fitzgerald surpassed 10,000 career receiving yards. At 29 years, 44 days old, he joined Randy Moss (28 years, 314 days) as the only players in NFL history to reach the milestone before the age of 30.

700 Receptions

- In Week 3 of the '12 campaign, Fitzgerald surpassed 700 career receptions. At 29 years, 23 days old, Fitzgerald became the youngest player in NFL history to reach that mark. He was over a year younger than the previous record holder—Dallas TE Jason Witten (30 years, 133 days old).

9,000 Receiving Yards

- At 28 years, 81 days old, Fitzgerald reached 9,000 career receiving yards in Week 11 of the 2011 season, becoming the second-youngest player in NFL history to reach the career milestone. Only Randy Moss (27 years, 310 days old) reached the mark at a younger age than Fitzgerald.

70 Career TD Receptions

- Fitzgerald reached 70 career TDs in Week 10 of the '11 season vs. Philadelphia and at 28 years, 74 days old, he became the third-youngest player in NFL history to accomplish the feat, trailing only Randy Moss (26 years, 269 days) and Hall of Famer Jerry Rice (28 years, one day).

8,000 Receiving Yards

- Fitzgerald's 125 receiving yards in Week 15 matchup vs. the Panthers in '10 gave him 8,053 yards for his career as he became the second youngest receiver in NFL history to reach 8,000 yards, trailing only Randy Moss (26 years, 297 days old).

7,000 Receiving Yards

- Against the Lions in Week 15 of 2009, reached 7,000 receiving yards for his career. At 26 years, 111 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach the milestone, surpassing Randy Moss (26 years, 220 days old).

6,000 Receiving Yards

- Reached 6,000 career receiving yards in Week 1 of '09 vs. San Francisco at 26 years and 13 days old, becoming the second-youngest receiver in NFL history to reach the milestone behind only Randy Moss (25 years, 270 days).

600 Receptions

- In Week 15 of the '10 season at Carolina, surpassed 600 receptions for his career. At 27 years, 110 days old, became the youngest player in NFL history to reach the milestone, surpassing Randy Moss (28 years, 266 days old).

2004: The Cardinals first-round selection in the 2004 Draft (third overall), led the team and finished second among NFL rookies in receiving with 58 receptions for 780 yards and eight TDs … in his first career start @ StL (9/12), caught nine passes for a team-high 70 receiving yards; opened the game with a 37-yard flea flicker reception from Josh McCown which was the longest offensive play of the game for either team … had a team-high five receptions for 94 yards and scored his first career TD, a 24-yard pass from McCown @ SF (10/10) … recorded a 39-yard reception on the second play of the game en route to four receptions for a team-high 73 yards vs. Sea (10/24); attempted a pass on the first play of the game but was sacked for a loss of seven yards; recorded a 25-yard TD grab on the Cardinals second drive of the game, putting the Cards on the board first with a 7-0 lead … did not record a reception for the first time all season @ Buf (10/31); in the windy conditions the Cardinals completed only nine passes … tied Boldin for receptions with five for 92 yards @ Mia (11/7); four of those receptions came for 84 yards in the fourth quarter; set up a five-yard Emmitt Smith TD run after connecting with McCown for a 32-yard gain; caught a 48-yard pass from McCown to put the Cardinals on the Miami three yard-line with 1:07 remaining and four plays later tied the score at 23 with a two-yard TD reception with 19 seconds remaining; Neil Rackers extra point gave the Cardinals a 24-23 lead to win the game; his 48-yard reception at Miami was the team's longest all season … snagged two 29-yard TD passes from McCown in the fourth quarter @ Sea (12/26) to put the Cardinals within three points; finished the game with four receptions for 70 yards … became the first Cardinals receiver since the 1970 NFL/AFL Merger to catch two TD passes in consecutive games.

THE FRANCHISE

During his first 10 NFL seasons, Larry Fitzgerald has broken virtually every major Cardinals career receiving record. With those records in his pocket, the only remaining question is how high the numbers will go by the time he is done.

In 2011, Fitzgerald became the franchise all-time leader in receiving yards, receiving TDs, career 100-yard games and total TDs. He became the franchise all-time receptions leader in 2010 and he has been building on those records since.

CARDINALS AND THE ROOMSTORE PARTNER TO HOST HOLIDAY TOY DRIVE

The Cardinals and The RoomStore partnered to host a toy drive that benefitted "Arizonans for Children" prior to last December's Cardinals-Rams game at University of Phoenix Stadium.

RoomStore volunteers teamed with Cardinals Cheerleaders to collect new unwrapped toys and donations for underprivileged children outside of each stadium entrance prior to the pat down area.

The toy collection at the game marked the end of the team's annual toy drive that began in November with the kickoff event at The RoomStore location in Phoenix. Cardinals defensive end Calais Campbell joined team mascot Big Red and Cardinals Cheerleaders in hosting the kickoff event.

Arizonans for Children is a non-profit organization that exists to facilitate opportunities and provide effective solutions to alleviate hardships and improve the fragile lives of the abused, abandoned, and neglected children in foster care.

WIDE RECEIVER | 6-2 | 220 15

HOW ACQUIRED: D1/12 (13th)
YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 3/3
HOMETOWN: St. Paul, MN

NOTECARDS

- The Cardinals first round selection in the 2012 NFL Draft and the 13th overall pick; was the second wide receiver taken behind Oklahoma State's Justin Blackmon (5th overall to Jacksonville). Became the first Notre Dame WR taken in the first round since Heisman Trophy winner Tim Brown was selected sixth overall by the Raiders in 1988.
- Had a breakout year in his second NFL season, hauling in 65 receptions for 1,041 yards and five TDs in 2013. He became the 12th different player in franchise history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season.
- Posted six receptions for 193 yards against the Jaguars in Week 11 of the '13 season, including a 91-yard TD reception in the third quarter. His 193 yards represent the seventh-best single game total in franchise history and the most since Anquan Boldin recorded 217 yards on 10 receptions at Detroit on 9/7/03.
- Averaged 32.16 yards per reception in the game against the Jaguars. In the last 23 years (since 1990), only seven NFL players averaged more yards per reception (min. six rec.) in a game.
- Hauled in his first career game-winning catch in Week 16 of the '13 season at Seattle. His lone reception of the game was a spectacular 31-yard TD catch late in the fourth quarter which snapped the Seahawks NFL-best 14-game home win streak.
- Had five TD catches over the final 11 games of '13, after totaling two TD receptions in his first 21 career games.
- Between Weeks 10-16 of the '13 season, had 25 consecutive receptions for first downs, which was the longest active streak in the NFL before it was snapped with his first catch in the season finale. Of his final 34 receptions in 2013, 30 accounted for first downs.
- Has appeared in all 32 games (19 starts) in his first two NFL seasons. Started all 16 games in 2013.
- His 166 receiving yards in the Week 17 finale at San Francisco in 2012 marked the highest total for a Cardinals rookie since Anquan Boldin totaled 217 yards on 9/7/03 at Detroit. It also tied for the fourth-best single-game total by a rookie in franchise history.
- First career NFL reception was an eight-yard TD catch against Philadelphia in Week 3 of the '12 season. First career college reception was a 22-yard TD catch against San Diego State in 2008.
- Grew up in St. Paul, MN and attended Cretin-Derham Hall High School, which is less than 10 miles from Larry Fitzgerald's prep alma mater, Academy of the Holy Angels, in Minneapolis. Both were All-State and All-American WRs during their prep career, and they became friends while Floyd attended Cretin-Derham.

PRO CAREER:

Selected by the Cardinals in the first round (13th overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft, Floyd has appeared in all 32 games (19 starts) in his first two NFL seasons.

2013: Started all 16 games and set career highs with 65 receptions for a team-best 1,041 yards (16.0 avg.) and five TDs ... had a streak of 25 consecutive receptions for first downs that stretched from Weeks 10-16 ... recorded multiple receptions in 15 of 16 games ... caught four passes for 82 yards @ StL (9/8), including a one-handed 44-yard reception on the first play of the second quarter that led to a Cardinals TD two plays later ... led the Cardinals with 87 yards on five receptions @ TB (9/29); had four catches for 83 yards in the second half, including three receptions of 20+ yards ... led the team with five receptions for 61 yards vs. Car (10/6) ... caught five passes for 44 yards, including a 10-yard TD in the third quarter @ SF (10/13) ... caught three passes for 30 yards and had a 15-yard TD catch in the second quarter vs. Atl (10/27) ... recorded two receptions for 31 yards before leaving in the first half with a shoulder injury vs. Hou (11/10); surpassed 1,000 career receiving yards ... despite being questionable with a shoulder injury, posted his finest game as a pro @ Jax (11/17), recording six catches for a career-high 193 yards and a career-long 91-yard TD reception in the third quarter; 91-yard TD tied for the sixth-longest play from scrimmage in franchise history and 193 yards are the seventh-best total in team history; averaged 32.16 yards per catch, a franchise record for a player with at least six receptions; had four catches

BREAKOUT SEASON FOR FLOYD

Second-year WR Michael Floyd hauled in 65 receptions for 1,041 yards and five TDs in 2013. It marked the first 1,000-yard season of his career, and he became the 12th different player in franchise history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season. Floyd's 2013 campaign marks the 28th all-time 1,000-yard receiving season in franchise history.

CARDINALS PARTICIPATE IN PRO VS. G.I. JOE PROGRAM

Cardinals players including linebacker Matt Shaughnessy, cornerback Justin Bethel, quarterback Ryan Lindley, and linebacker Lorenzo Alexander competed for the fifth consecutive year in a video game competition with Marines from the Wounded Warrior Regiment as part of the "Pro vs. G.I. Joe" program last November at the Cardinals Training Facility.

The "Pro vs. G.I Joe" program had the Cardinals players and troops, home and abroad, playing Call of Duty: Ghosts via XBox. While they were playing the games, the competitors were able to see and hear each other through a webcam using Skype. Likewise, the crowd on both sides of the competition were able to see the live action as well.

Pro vs. GI Joe is a private, non-profit organization that provides America's heroes with the opportunity to participate in real-time video game competitions online and in-person between professional athletes and celebrities, and troops stationed all over the world. Pro vs. GI Joe connects the troops and athletes through the assistance of the USO who facilitates the events for the soldiers overseas.

The United States Marine Corps Wounded Warrior Regiment provides and enables assistance to wounded, ill, and injured Marines, sailors attached to or in support of Marine units, and their family members in order to assist them as they return to duty or transition to civilian life.

CARDINALS HOST ANNUAL HOLIDAY FOOD DRIVE

The Cardinals held a holiday food drive benefiting St. Mary's Food Bank Alliance prior to last November's Cardinals-Colts game at University of Phoenix Stadium.

Volunteers from St. Mary's Food Bank Alliance and Cardinals Cheerleaders were at collection points outside of all five stadium gates and the Great Lawn, and fans were encouraged to bring non-perishable food items and/or money for donation.

St. Mary's Food Bank Alliance, the world's first food bank, is a non-sectarian, nonprofit organization that alleviates hunger by efficiently gathering and distributing food more than 400 sites that serve the hungry. Serving nine of Arizona's 15 counties, the organization is committed to volunteerism, building community relationships, and improving the quality of life for Arizonans in need. Last year, the Food Bank distributed approximately 70 million pounds of food to families and individuals, provided enough food for 250,000 meals every day, and garnered 290,000 service hours from nearly 82,000 volunteers.

NOTECARDS

- Signed a three-year contract with the Cardinals on 3/13/14 as an unrestricted free agent after spending his first seven NFL seasons with the Dolphins (2007-09), 49ers (2010-12) and Panthers (2013).
- During his first seven seasons, Ginn appeared in 104 games (40 starts) and amassed 10,610 all-purpose yards (2,604 receiving, 239 rushing, 1,741 punt return and 6,026 kickoff return) and 19 TDs.
- Posted 1,496 all-purpose yards in 2013, which marked his sixth season with 1,400+ all-purpose yards. Among active players, only Darren Sproles and Wes Welker (seven each) have more seasons with 1,400+ all-purpose yards.
- Joins Darren Sproles as the only players in NFL history with 200+ rushing yards, 2,500+ receiving yards, 1,500+ punt return yards and 6,000+ kickoff return yards in their career.
- One of just 14 players in NFL history, and four active players, with multiple rushing, receiving, punt return and kickoff return TDs.
- His three career TDs of 100+ yards (102, 101, 100) are tied with Josh Cribbs, Percy Harvin, Tony Horne and Cardinals HOFer Ollie Matson for the most in NFL history.
- Of his 19 career TDs, 16 covered at least 25 yards, 10 covered 40+ yards and seven covered 50+ yards. Of his last 16 TDs, 15 covered at least 25 yards.
- Had 36 receptions for 556 yards and a career-high five receiving TDs in 2013 as a member of the Panthers. His 15.4-yard receiving average also represented a career high.
- Earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Month in November of 2009 and was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance in Week 8 of the '09 season. For the month, returned 21 kickoffs for 646 yards (30.8 avg.) and two TDs in five games. In Week 8 vs. the Jets, tied an NFL record and set a team record with two kickoff returns for TDs, scoring on returns of 100 and 101 yards.
- Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Week 1 of the '11 season after returning both a kickoff and a punt for TDs in the fourth quarter of San Francisco's victory over Seattle, becoming the first player in 49ers history to return a kickoff and punt for a TD in the same game.
- One of just 10 players in NFL history with two KOR TDs in a single game and joins Josh Cribbs (KOR TDs of 100 and 103 yards in 2009) as the only two players in NFL history with multiple 100-yard TDs in a single game.

CARDINALS PREPARATORY ACADEMY

The Arizona Cardinals Preparatory Academy (8520 N. 19th Avenue, Phoenix), in partnership with the Washington Elementary School District, Cardinals Charities, Communities in Schools Arizona and founding partner University of Phoenix, was established in 2007 as a small public middle school (fifth through eighth grades) whose aim is to create a learning environment that will receive all the successful programs, services and resources each organization has to offer.

The academy opened its doors in August 2007 with its first class of 40+ fifth and sixth grade students. Grades seven and eight were added over the following two years. In 2009, the newly constructed facilities and campus were dedicated.

The Cardinals Academy offers a small-school environment with high parental involvement and a community service focus. Accelerated instruction is provided to focus students on their education and service learning to help them achieve success. The academy promotes small class size with adult mentors, quality teachers, and community resources delivered in an accessible way to reduce or eliminate non-scholastic barriers to staying in school.

THE MISSING PIECE

One of the most memorable moments of the Cardinals 2013 season came in Week 3 at New Orleans when S Rashad Johnson was forced to leave the game with a little less of himself. Johnson lost the end of his left middle finger while he attempted a tackle of New Orleans RB Darren Sproles during a punt return in the second quarter.

Originally thinking he broke the finger, Johnson noticed blood soaking through his glove. After trainers cut off a portion of the glove, he realized that his finger was "pretty much severed" at the top and still inside his now-removed glove. The fifth-year safety took the gruesome injury in stride.

"To lose part of a finger, that's something you can't really just put back on," Johnson said. "It's something I have to adjust to. But at the end of the day, I've got nine more."

After missing the next two games, Johnson returned to the lineup and showed that he was indeed able to adjust to the missing digit.

In the 10 games he played in following the injury, Johnson recorded 39 tackles, three INTs, five passes defensed and six special teams tackles. Prior to losing a portion of his finger, Johnson had three total INTs in 59 career games.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Long snapper Mike Leach's fifth year in Arizona was filled with countless community appearances throughout the Valley. The Cardinals 2010 "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year," Leach continued his community involvement by spending time away from the field as a panel member for the team's Community QB Award, visiting various schools for the Cardinals Milk and Cookies program, coaching kids at Gatorade Jr. Training Camps and serving as the team representative for Garth Brooks' "Teammates for Kids Foundation," which Cardinals Charities helps support.

He and his wife, Julie, continued to make monthly visits to Phoenix Children's Hospital after furnishing the Teen Room at the hospital in 2010 with a new flat screen television and new chairs for the kids. He visited the hospital in February of 2012 and helped deliver gift baskets to the children as part of the Baskets of Hope program to help inspire and give hope to newly diagnosed children and their families affected by cancer or other serious illnesses. Leach took part in the annual ABC-15 telethon benefiting Phoenix Children's Hospital last April. He answered phones and visited with the kids and their parents at the hospital.

They joined other players and their wives at the Phoenix Ronald McDonald House for the team's annual Light the House holiday party to help spread holiday cheer. The group provided the families at the house with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the children. They also visited the Ronald McDonald House last October to spend time with the families in addition to coloring and doing crafts with the children.

Leach also once again took part at the team's annual Feed the Hungry event at the Phoenix Rescue Mission during Thanksgiving and passed out personalized teddy bears during the holiday season at Phoenix Children's Hospital as part of the annual Teddy Bear Express program. For the second time since coming to the Cardinals, Leach joined teammates and participated at the NFL and United Way Hometown Huddle event to assist with a beautification project at the Balsz Elementary School in Phoenix while hosting a PLAY 60 kids camp for 100 children. The project included two murals that were created and designed by the students at the school.

Every May since coming to the Cardinals, Leach has also been a guest instructor at the team's Kicking, Punting and Snapping camp for high school students from Arizona, New Mexico and Utah.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

In his first two seasons with the Cardinals, quarterback Ryan Lindley has made an impact in the Arizona community and also in his hometown of San Diego.

This past offseason, Lindley teamed up with Athletes for Charity and First Book to help deliver nearly 1,000 brand new books to elementary students in the San Diego area as part of the Ryan Lindley Virtual Book Drive. He also raised money to purchase additional books for children in need and encourage reading in schools. Lindley also served as the principal for a day at his former elementary school, Alpine Elementary, spending the day reading to select classes and providing students with advice on how to succeed academically.

He has been a regular participant in the Cardinals Milk and Cookies reading program as well as coaching at Gatorade Jr. Training Camps and team kids camps. Lindley joined teammates and passed out personalized teddy bears at Phoenix Children's Hospital the past two years as part of the team's annual Teddy Bear Express program. He also visited patients at the VA Medical Center this past fall along with Nicole Bidwill and her therapy dog, Barney.

Lindley is a regular visitor with the children at the Phoenix Ronald McDonald House, including the past two years at the annual Light the House holiday party to help spread holiday cheer. The group of Cardinals players provided the families at the house with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the children. In December, he joined teammates and visited the Black Family and Child Services agency to host a Christmas party for 500 children.

Last season, Lindley joined teammates and participated in the Pro vs. G.I. Joe program where Cardinals players competed in video games with Arizona soldiers who are based in Iraq and Kuwait as part of a program set up through the USO. He joined President Michael Bidwill and Cardinals players at the team's annual Feed the Hungry event to serve Thanksgiving dinner to the less fortunate at the Phoenix Rescue Mission.

Lindley visited students at Palm Elementary School in Goodyear, AZ in 2013 and led the kids in fitness activities as part of the NFL's Play 60 program. Palm Elementary was selected as a Super School and won a $10,000 grant from the NFL for health and wellness programming and equipment.

During the 2013 offseason, he partook in the ABC15 telethon benefitting Phoenix Children's Hospital and helped answer phones while also visiting with kids and their parents. Just prior to beginning his rookie season, Lindley joined teammates and team president Michael Bidwill at the Salvation Army Kroc Community Center in May of 2012 for a ceremonial field groundbreaking on behalf of the NFL's Grassroots program.

STANDOUT DEBUT

From the time he first stepped on the field in a Cardinals uniform, S Tyrann Mathieu proved Arizona had something special in the team's third round pick (69th overall) in the 2013 NFL Draft.

It took Mathieu just over 12 minutes into his first NFL game to make one of the Cards biggest plays of the season, and as the season progressed he became the team's most versatile defender and a frontrunner for NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year before tearing the ACL and LCL in his left knee in Week 14 vs. St. Louis, ending his season.

A Glimpse Of What Was To Come

In the first quarter of the season opener at St. Louis, Mathieu chased down Rams TE Jared Cook after a long pass play and knocked the ball loose from behind just as Cook was about to cross the goal line. The ball rolled into the end zone where it was recovered by LB Karlos Dansby for a touchback.

Mathieu Earns NFL Honor For October

Mathieu's play was quickly noticed around the league. In just his second month as a pro, he was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for October after he totaled 21 tackles, 2 TFL, a sack, an INT and five passes defensed in the month.

A Season Snapshot

In 13 games played, Mathieu recorded 63 tackles, a sack, two INTs, 15 passes defensed, a forced fumble, five tackles for loss and three QB pressures.

He was one of just three rookies in the NFL with at least two INTs, a sack and a forced fumble on the season, joining Buffalo LB Kiko Alonso and New England CB Logan Ryan.

Vs. Detroit (Week 2)

- Making his first career start, it was Mathieu's fourth down tackle of WR Nate Burleson that left the Lions one yard short of a first down (on a 4th-n-4 from the DET 43-yard line), ending the game and sealing the Cards 25-21 victory.

At New Orleans (Week 3)

- Finished second on the team with a season-high eight tackles and recorded an INT and a pass defensed in his first career NFL game in his hometown.

Vs. Carolina (Week 5)

- Notched his first career sack, taking down Cam Newton in the second quarter and forcing a punt. On the ensuing drive, the Cards scored their first points on a FG that tied the game at 3.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Rookie safety Tyrann Mathieu's transition to the NFL has included his desire to give back to the Arizona community in which he now lives. During his first season, he was a frequent participant at Cardinals kids camps around the Valley and also took part in two special events which impacted two different groups of Valley residents.

In October as part of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, Mathieu visited Perry High School in Gilbert, AZ for a special pregame presentation for 10 breast cancer survivors prior to a high school football game. He joined Nicole Bidwill and presented each survivor with an honorary pink jersey while the Cardinals provided the Perry High School football team with pink jerseys, wrist bands and hats. The event had special meaning to Mathieu as two of his aunts passed away from breast cancer.

Later in his rookie season, Mathieu hosted the first Red Stars Rising event at the W hotel in Scottsdale in November which featured food, entertainment and celebrity appearances with the proceeds from the silent auction benefiting Phoenix Children's Hospital.

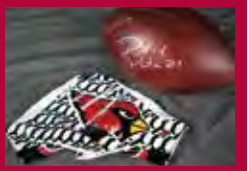
PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME RECOGNIZES CARDINALS ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN 2013

The Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, OH commemorated two historic accomplishments by Arizona Cardinals players in 2013.



In the Cardinals Week 2 win over the Lions, cornerback Patrick Peterson had both a 17-yard reception and a 17-yard pass completion, becoming the first NFL defender since the 1970 merger to post a reception and a completion in the same game. The HOF displayed the gloves he wore in the game as well as the football used in the pass completion.

Then, in Week 17 against the 49ers, quarterback Carson Palmer surpassed 4,000 yards passing for the season, becoming the first player in NFL history to throw for 4,000+ yards for three different teams, and the Hall of Fame commemorated the accomplishment by displaying the jersey he wore during the game.

In addition to the many artifacts from pro football's history on display in Canton, the Hall also collects current items that reflect significant achievements of the present day.

NOTECARDS

- Acquired by the Cardinals on 4/2/13 in a trade with the Oakland Raiders that involved swapping 2013 draft picks (a sixth round pick to Oakland in exchange for its seventh round pick) and a conditional pick in 2014. Following the trade, Palmer agreed to a three-year contract with the Cardinals.
- In his first season in Arizona, Palmer started all 16 games and threw for a career-high 4,274 yards, becoming the first player in NFL history to throw for 4,000+ yards with three different teams (Cincinnati, 2006-07, Oakland, 2012). Palmer also became the third QB in franchise history to top 4,000 yards in a season and the first since Kurt Warner (4,583 in 2008).
- For the season, Palmer completed 362 of 572 pass attempts (63.3%) with 24 TDs. The 362 completions and 572 attempts both rank second in franchise history for a single season. The 4,274 yards ranks third, 63.3 completion percentage is fourth and 24 TD passes is tied for sixth.
- Reached 30,000 career passing yards and 200 career TD passes during the '13 season. Enters the 2014 season ranked 25th all-time in NFL history with 33,739 career passing yards.
- Palmer had two 400-yard passing games (419 at Jacksonville, 11/17/13; 407 vs. San Francisco, 12/29/13) and five 300-yard games in 2013, trailing only Kurt Warner (7, 2008) and Neil Lomax (7, 1984) for the most in a season in team history. For his career, has thrown for 300+ yards in a game 32 times, including seven career outings with 400+ passing yards.
- Five 300-yard games in 2013 represent the second-highest total of his career for a single season, trailing only his six 300-yard games in 2012 with Oakland.
- Threw for season-high 419 yards and two TDs on 30-of-42 passing in Week 11 at Jacksonville, including a career-long 91-yard TD pass to Michael Floyd, tied for the sixth-longest play in franchise history.
- Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week after completing 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards and two TDs against the Colts in Week 12 of the '13 season. Marked his third career Player of the Week honor after winning AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors twice (Week 7-2009 and Week 13-2004).
- In Week 14 against the Rams, he completed 27 of 32 passes (84.4%) for 269 yards and a TD. The 84.4 completion percentage was the highest of his career and the second-best single-game completion percentage in franchise history. Only Kurt Warner (NFL-record 92.3% at Jax on 9/20/09) ranks higher.
- For his career, Palmer has started 137 of the 138 games he has appeared in, completing 2,930 of 4,682 pass attempts (62.6%) for 33,739 yards, 213 TDs, 152 INTs and a passer rating of 85.9.
- Has thrown for over 4,000 yards in a season four times (2006-07, '12-13) and thrown for 20+ TDs seven times (2005-07, '09-10, '12-13). The 2013 season marked his fourth with both 4,000+ yards and 20+ TDs.
- Among active QBs, enters the 2014 season ranked 5th in career completions (2,930), 6th in pass attempts (4,682) and 7th in both career passing yards (33,379) and TD passes (213).
- Has been the architect of 24 career game-winning drives, including 16 fourth quarter comebacks. Tied his career high for a single season with three fourth quarter comebacks in 2013.
- A two-time Pro Bowl selection (2005-06), Palmer was named the game's MVP in 2006.
- Led the NFL in completion percentage (67.8) and TD passes (32) in 2005.
- Dating back to the 2004 season, Palmer's first year as a starter, only Tony Romo (32), Drew Brees (26) and Peyton Manning (25) have more passing TDs of 50+ yards than Palmer's 24, which ties both Eli Manning and Tom Brady.
- Named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for September in 2005.
- The 2002 Heisman Trophy Winner at USC, Palmer was selected by Cincinnati with the first overall selection in the 2003 NFL Draft. After eight seasons with the Bengals, he left Cincinnati ranked third in franchise history in career pass attempts (3,217), second in completions (2,024), first in completion percentage (62.9%), third in passing yards (22,694) and third in TD passes (154).

PRO CAREER:

Selected by Cincinnati in the first round (1st overall) of 2003 NFL Draft. Re-signed with the Bengals on 12/29/05. Placed on the reserve/did not report list by Cincinnati on 7/29/11 before being traded to Oakland on 10/18/11 for the Raiders first-round selection in 2012 and the Raiders second round choice in 2013. Reinstated from reserve/did not report on 10/19/11 and signed a new contract with the Raiders the same day. Traded to the Cardinals on 4/2/13 and signed a three-year contract with the team.

2013: After being selected as an offensive captain by his teammates prior to the season, started all 16 games and threw for a career-high 4,274 yards and 24 TDs on 362-of-572 passing (63.3%) … became the first QB in NFL history to throw for 4,000+ yards with three different teams (Bengals, 2006-07; Raiders, 2012) … ranks among the top 10 single-season performances in franchise history in completions (second), attempts (second), passing yards (third), completion percentage (fourth) and TD passes (tied for sixth) … became first QB in team history with multiple 400-yard passing games in a season and his five 300-yard games are tied for the third-most in a season in Cardinals history … was the only QB to take a snap for the Cardinals all season, marking just the third time since 1970 that the team had only one QB play all season (Jake Plummer, 2001; Timm Rosenbach, 1990); Cardinals and Steelers were only teams in the NFL in 2013 whose backup QBs did not take a snap all season …

PALMER MAKES HISTORY AGAIN

In Week 11 at Jacksonville, QB Carson Palmer completed 30 of 42 pass attempts (71.4%) for 419 yards and a passer rating of 119.0. Against the Colts in Week 12, he completed 26 of 37 attempts (70.3%) for 314 yards and a passer rating of 114.0.

Palmer became the first player in team history with 300+ passing yards, a 70.0+ completion percentage and a 110.0+ passer rating in back-to-back games. He joined Denver's Peyton Manning (Games 3-5) as the only players in the NFL to accomplish the feat in back-to-back games in 2013.

Another Note From Week 12

- Palmer joined Kurt Warner as the only players in franchise history with back-to-back games of 300+ passing yards and a 70+ completion percentage. Warner accomplished the feat in 2008 (76.1 and 328 vs. San Francisco, 11/10; 72.7 and 395 @ Seattle, 11/16).

Palmer Makes History With 400

Against Jacksonville in Week 11, Palmer became the first QB in franchise history to throw for 400+ yards and complete 70+ percent of his passes in a win.

Prior to Palmer, two QBs in team history had completed 70.0% of their passes while throwing for at least 400 yards – Kurt Warner (484, 11/25/07 vs. SF, 70.8%; 472, 9/28/08 @ NYJ, 70.2%) and Neil Lomax (468, 12/16/84 @ Was, 80.4%) – and the Cardinals lost all three of those contests.

Palmer's performance marked just the fifth time in team history – and first time since Boomer Esiason on 11/10/96 (522 yards in 37-34 OT victory @ Washington) – that a Cards QB threw for 400+ yards in a win.

In 2013, Palmer became the first QB in Cardinals history with two 400+ yard passing performances in a single season. It also marked the first time in his career that he threw for 400+ yards in multiple games during a season.

2003: Did not appear in a game during his rookie season … inactive (3rd QB) for Games 1-5 and 13-16 … DNP as the backup to Jon Kitna in Games 6-12.

COLLEGE:

Played 53 games with 45 starts, competing over five seasons (1998-2002) because of injury-shortened '99 campaign for which he received a medical redshirt … left USC as the Pac-10's all-time leader in passing yards (11,818), completions (927) and total offense (11,621) while his 72 career TD passes had also set a school record … as a senior in 2002, won the Heisman Trophy after leading the Trojans to 11-2 record, including a 38-17 Orange Bowl win over Iowa … established USC season records for completions (309), passing yards (3,942) and TD passes (33), and threw only 10 INTs … led Trojans to wins in the last eight games of his senior season, with the team averaging 41.5 points per game during that stretch … established a school record with seven 300-yard passing performances and threw at least two TD passes in nine straight games … established a USC record with 147 consecutive pass attempts without an INT … as a junior in 2001, completed 221 of 377 pass attempts (58.6%) for 2,717 yards, 13 TDs and 12 INTs … led the team to four consecutive victories to end the season after a 2-5 start … as a redshirt sophomore in 2000, completed 228 of 415 pass attempts for 2,914 yards, 16 TDs and 18 INTs … as a true sophomore in 1999, led Trojans to victories in first two games, but suffered a season-ending broken right collarbone just before halftime at Oregon that led to a medical redshirt season … his four starts as a freshman in 1998 made him only the second true freshman at the time to start a game at QB for the storied program (following Rob Johnson, who started one game in '91).

PERSONAL:

Attended Santa Margarita (Rancho Santa Margarita, CA) High School where he passed for 31 TDs and just four INTs while leading his team to a 14-0 record and its second consecutive state championship as a senior in 1997 … established 27 school records in high school … brother, Jordan, played QB at UTEP and in the NFL with Washington, Cincinnati, Jacksonville and Chicago … along with his wife, Shaelyn, the couple have three children.

PALMER PROVIDES THREE COMEBACKS

QB Carson Palmer led three fourth quarter comebacks for the Cardinals during the 2013 season. Of those comebacks, none was bigger than his performance in Week 16 at Seattle when he helped snap the Seahawks league-leading 14-game home win streak.

After Seattle took a 10-9 lead midway through the fourth quarter, Palmer brought the Cardinals right back, leading a 10-play, 80-yard TD drive that took 5:13 off the clock and helped earn the win. On the game-winning drive, Palmer completed 3 of 4 pass attempts for 56 yards, including a 31-yard TD pass to WR Michael Floyd that proved to be the game-winner.

Earlier in the game-winning drive, with the Cards facing a crucial 3rd-n-3 from their own 27-yard line, Palmer completed a 17-yard pass to TE Jake Ballard on the run after escaping pressure in the pocket. Seven plays later, he connected with Floyd for the TD on 3rd-n-6 with just over two minutes left.

The win over Seattle was the 16th fourth quarter comeback of Palmer's career and it was also his seventh fourth quarter comeback on the road. Palmer's three game-winning fourth quarter drives in 2013 tied his career high for a single season, matching his 2009 total as a member of the Bengals.

NOTECARDS

- The Cardinals first-round selection in the 2011 NFL Draft and the fifth overall pick, Peterson was the first cornerback taken in draft.
- Named first-team All-Pro and was voted to his third straight Pro Bowl in 2013 as a cornerback. Has been selected to the Pro Bowl twice at cornerback (2012-13) and once as a kick returner (2011) while also earning first-team All-Pro honors at both cornerback (2013) and kick returner (2011). Became just the seventh player in NFL history to be selected to three Pro Bowls before his 24th birthday and just the second player in Cardinals history (Hall of Fame HB Ollie Matson) ever to be selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first three NFL seasons.
- A first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection as a kick returner following his rookie season in 2011, joins Hall of Famer Rod Woodson as the only NFL players ever to be selected to the Pro Bowl as both a defender and kick returner.
- In Week 2 of the '13 season vs. Detroit, became the first NFL defender since at least the 1970 merger to post a reception and a completion in the same game. Peterson's gloves as well as the football used on the pass completion are now on display at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, OH.
- In his first three NFL seasons, started all 48 games at cornerback and recorded 162 tackles, 12 INTs, a sack, 60 passes defensed and a fumble recovery.
- His 12 INTs dating back to 2011 are tied with Buffalo's Jairus Byrd and San Diego's Eric Weddle for third-most in the NFL that span.
- Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance at Tampa Bay in Week 4 of the '13 season, when he recorded two INTs in the final four minutes of the 13-10 victory over Tampa Bay. His first INT came with 3:23 remaining and the Cards tied the game on the following play. His second INT came with under a minute remaining and clinched the win.
- Joins teammate Calais Campbell as the only players in franchise history to earn Player of the Week honors on both special teams and defense. Peterson was named Special Teams Player of the Week twice during his rookie season in 2011 (Weeks 9 and 12).
- In 2012, ranked fourth in the NFL with seven INTs and became the first Cardinals player since Aeneas Williams in 1994 to record an INT in four consecutive games (Games 11-14).
- As a rookie in 2011, tied the NFL record and became just the fourth player in league history to return four punts for TDs in a single season. Joined Jack Christiansen (Detroit, 1951) as the only rookies in NFL history with four punt return TDs during their inaugural season.
- With punt return TDs of 99, 89, 82 and 80 yards in '11, became the first player in NFL history with four punt return TDs of 80+ yards in a single season.
- Led the NFL in punt return yards (699) and TDs (four) in '11 while finishing second in punt return average (15.9) behind Chicago's Devin Hester (16.2).
- Established an NFL rookie record with 699 punt return yards, surpassing the previous record of 656, set by Pittsburgh's Louis Lipps in 1984. In addition to being a rookie record, his 699 punt return yards rank as the second-highest single-season total in NFL history behind Desmond Howard's 875 yards for Green Bay in 1996.
- His 99-yard punt return TD in overtime against St. Louis in Week 9 of the '11 campaign was the second-longest punt return in NFL history (103, Robert Bailey, 10/23/94). It also tied for the longest play in overtime in NFL history (99-yard pass from Philadelphia's Ron Jaworski to Mike Quick, 11/10/85).
- Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for November during the 2011 season.
- Is a cousin of former Cardinals and Steelers CB Bryant McFadden, CB Walter McFadden and WRs Santana Moss (Washington) and Sinorice Moss.

PETERSON ADDS MORE HONORS

In his first game of his rookie season in 2011, CB Patrick Peterson was tasked with covering Panthers All-Pro WR Steve Smith. In all 47 games that followed, Peterson was always given the task of covering the opponent's top receiver.

Far from shying away from the task, Peterson embraced it and the results include 12 INTs, 60 passes defensed, two Pro Bowl selections (as a cornerback) and – most recently – a spot on the NFL's first-team All-Pro list.

A Pro Bowler in each of his first two seasons (Kick Returner, 2011; Cornerback, 2012), Peterson earned his third career Pro Bowl selection and was named first-team All-Pro in 2013. He becomes the seventh player in NFL history to be chosen to three Pro Bowls before his 24th birthday and joins Ollie Matson (1952, '54, '55) as the only players in team history selected to the Pro Bowl in each of their first three seasons.

PETERSON EARNS POW

CB Patrick Peterson was named the "NFC Defensive Player of the Week" for his performance in the Cards Week 4 victory over Tampa Bay.

It was the first "Defensive Player of the Week" selection for Peterson and he became just the second player (Calais Campbell) in team history to win "Player of the Week" honors in two different categories. Peterson was previously selected as "Special Teams Player of the Week" twice as a rookie punt returner in 2011 after Weeks 9 and 12.

Campbell was chosen as "Defensive Player of the Week" in 2012 and "Special Teams Player of the Week" in 2009.

Peterson became the 24th different Cards defender to win the "Defensive Player of the Week." He had two INTs in the final four minutes of the win over the Bucs. His first INT came with 3:23 remaining when he stepped in front of a Mike Glennon pass intended for Vincent Jackson and the Cards tied the game on the following play. His second INT came with under a minute remaining in the game and clinched the win. It was the first multi-INT game of Peterson's career.

He became the first Cardinals player to record two fourth quarter INTs in a game since Kwamie Lassiter in 2001 and the first Cardinals player since Tim McDonald in 1991 to record two INT's in the final four minutes of the fourth quarter.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Pro Bowler Patrick Peterson's play on the field has made him one of the team's highest profile stars. He has used his status to give back to the community through his foundation and his various charitable contributions.

In 2012, he created the "Foundation for Success" to give all youth a safe haven to turn to and a place that delivers hope, encourages positive direction and inspires purpose in their lives. The foundation hopes to implement an excellent balance for community development. Each year the foundation gives children in need new sneakers, book bags and school supplies.

This past June, he hosted the first "Celebs and Steaks" event at Donovan's Steak and Chop House along with Cardinals teammates and celebrities. The money raised from that event will help provide Arizona low-income and inner city youth with opportunities and resources to reach their full potential.

Last December, Peterson joined Cardinals teammates and hosted his first Shop with a Jock event at Walmart for 50 children from A New Leaf. The event gave underprivileged children from Phoenix a shopping spree as well as food and games around the holiday season and a visit from Santa.

One of his annual events is the Walking on Sunshine family fun day in Baton Rouge, LA, where Peterson attended college. The event brings hope to children who are battling cancer through a positive financial blessing while also increasing awareness to all of the devastating effects of childhood cancer. This issue is very important to Peterson since his mom, Shandra, is a cancer survivor.

This past June, he held his annual football camp featuring NFL players, high school and college coaches instructing kids ages 7-17 in his hometown of Pompano Beach, FL. Peterson helps to raise money for his foundation through the sales of various eye black stickers on his website.

In addition to his foundation work, Peterson also took part in the team's annual Feed the Hungry event at the Phoenix Rescue Mission during Thanksgiving in 2012. He joined team President Michael Bidwill and Cardinals teammates to serve Thanksgiving dinner for the less fortunate.

In the spring of 2013, Peterson joined Cardinals teammates, President Michael Bidwill, head coach Bruce Arians and GM Steve Keim and took part in a tweetup hosted by Sports Illustarted's Peter King at Tom's Tavern the night before Pat's Run to benefit the Tillman Foundation.

For more information about Peterson's foundation and community work, visit www.p2nation.net/Foundation.

CARDINALS AND UNITED WAY HOST 15TH ANNUAL HOMETOWN HUDDLE

The Cardinals teamed with the Valley of the Sun United Way last October for the 15th annual NFL & United Way Hometown Huddle at Balsz Elementary School in Phoenix.

Cardinals players joined team mascot Big Red, Cardinals Cheerleaders, members from the Cardinals Women's Club and Valley of the Sun United Way volunteers at the school to put the finishing touches on beautification projects at the school that included two murals that were created and designed by the students at the school. The Cardinals group also hosted a PLAY 60 kids camp featuring fitness activities and drills for 100 elementary students.

The NFL's Hometown Huddle program focuses on volunteerism and volunteer recruitment. Each year the Cardinals and the NFL take part in an event to give back to the community and underprivileged children. The Hometown Huddle event provides the organization an opportunity to help children from high risk communities throughout the Valley.

The NFL/United Way "Hometown Huddle" is a NFL-wide day of service that provides NFL players and coaches from each team the opportunity to take part in a variety of community-service activities, including building homes for low-income families and visiting local military bases. Started in 1999 by the NFL and United Way, Hometown Huddle continues to help make a difference in communities across the country.

Valley of the Sun United Way is working to advance the common good by focusing on education, income and health. Their goal is to create long-lasting and measurable changes that improve the quality of life for struggling individuals, families and children throughout Maricopa Country. CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Scottsdale native Lyle Sendlein returned to his home state of Arizona in 2007 and since that time has been very visible in the Valley community. The eighth-year player has always been one of the most active participants in the Cardinals Milk and Cookies reading program. He also is very involved in coaching at Gatorade Jr. Training Camps as well as at team kids camps.

Sendlein joined teammates at the Phoenix Ronald McDonald House this past season, including the annual Light the House holiday party to help spread holiday cheer. The group of Cardinals players provided the families at the house with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the children. He also visited Luke Air Force Base with other Cardinals players for a special tour of the base and a meet and greet with military members in honor of Veterans Day. During the holidays last year, Sendlein passed out personalized teddy bears at Phoenix Children's Hospital as part of the team's annual Teddy Bear Express program.

In the past he also hosted the Lyle Sendlein Football Camp at the Boys & Girls Club-East Valley Guadalupe branch. The camp was free and funded by the NFL Youth Football Fund in 2010. Sendlein visited students at Whitman Elementary School in Mesa, AZ in 2010 and led the kids in fitness activities as part of the NFL's Play 60 program. Whitman was selected as a Super School and won a $10,000 grant from the NFL for health and wellness programming and equipment. He has previously also taken part in the team's annual Feed the Hungry event to serve Thanksgiving dinner to individuals in need at the Phoenix Rescue Mission.

Sendlein was a regular participant at the annual Making the Cut event to benefit Cardinals Charities and has taken part in Pro vs. G.I. Joe program where he competed in video games with soldiers who are based in Iraq and Kuwait as part of a program set up through the USO.

He joined teammate Mike Leach to take part in the team's Christmas Angels program in 2009. The team adopted 70 families from the Friendly House to help ensure a happy holiday season. Sendlein also joined teammates that year and visited the Wellness Community Center to help support teenagers that are struggling with cancer, a program funded by Cardinals Charities.

Those numerous community activities followed up his past work as he participated at the Cardinals and United Way Hometown Huddle in 2007, coaching 100 students as well as 25 athletes from the Special Olympics of Arizona at a camp. In the spring of 2008, Sendlein also volunteered for the Read Across America program at the Cardinals Preparatory Academy to help promote the importance of reading.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2008, QB Drew Stanton established "The High 5ive Foundation" which focuses on improving the quality of life for all people with varying disabilities through raising public awareness and inspiring individuals towards achieving personal goals.

As a result of his various fundraising initiatives, which includes an annual golf outing and a kickball tournament back in his home state of Michigan, Stanton's foundation is able to help support funding for five different organizations: Special Olympics of Michigan, Children's Miracle Network, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Orchard's Children's Services and Community Inclusive Recreation in Battle Creek, Michigan.

During his first season with the Cardinals in 2013, Stanton participated in various team community events. In November, he joined team President Michael Bidwill and players at the annual Help Feed the Hungry event. The Cardinals group helped serve Thanksgiving dinner to those less fortunate at the Phoenix Rescue Mission.

During the holiday season, Stanton, along with Cardinals teammates, participated in the team's Teddy Bear Express event at Phoenix Children's Hospital. The players delivered white personalized Cardinals teddy bears to children in the pediatric units throughout the hospital. Stanton also joined the Cardinals Women's Club, Big Red and teammates for the Light the House party to help spread holiday cheer at the Phoenix Ronald McDonald House. The group provided the families at the house with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the children.

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 2/2
HOMETOWN: Mansfield, TX

NOTECARDS

- An extremely reliable player dating back to his collegiate days at Stanford, Taylor was the only Cardinals 2013 draft pick (and one of three rookies) to appear in all 16 games last season. Taylor never missed a game in college and dating back to his freshman season in 2009, he has now appeared in 69 consecutive games.
- As a rookie in '13, Taylor saw increased action in the second half of the season and played a key role as a blocker and short yardage back for the Cardinals. For the year, Taylor carried 36 times for 115 yards while adding 8 receptions for 71 yards and two special teams tackles.
- Posted one of the biggest games of his collegiate career while playing at University of Phoenix Stadium. During his junior season in 2011, Stanford faced Oklahoma State in the Fiesta Bowl and Taylor ran for a then-career high 177 yards and two TDs in the matchup.
- The only player in Stanford history to rush for 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons (1,530 in 2012; 1,330 in 2011; 1,137 in 2010).

PRO CAREER:

The Cardinals fifth-round selection (140th overall) in the 2013 NFL Draft, Taylor joined free agents WR Jaron Brown and S Tony Jefferson as the only rookies to appear in every game for Arizona in 2013.

120th Overall

NOTECARDS

- Selected in the fourth round (120th overall) in the 2014 NFL Draft, Thomas was the sixth QB taken in the draft behind Blake Bortles (3rd, Jacksonville), Johnny Manziel (22nd, Cleveland), Teddy Bridgewater (32nd, Minnesota), Derek Carr (36th, Oakland) and Jimmy Garoppolo (62nd, New England).
- Despite playing just three full seasons at QB for the Hokies, Thomas set school career-records in pass attempts (1,248), pass completions (693), passing yards (9,003), TD passes (53), total offense (10,354) and combined TDs (77).
- Thomas was a freshman QB at Virginia Tech in 2009, which was exactly 35 years after Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians was named the Hokies MVP as a senior QB. During the 2011 season Thomas rushed for 11 TDs, tying Arians' single-season school mark (11, 1974) for rushing TDs by a QB.
- A standout QB in high school, Thomas was recruited to Virginia Tech as an H-back. However, the Hokie coaches convinced him prior to his freshman year in 2009 to make the switch to QB. He redshirted in 2009 and backed up Tyrod Taylor the following season while also playing briefly at receiver. He took over as the Hokies starting QB in 2011 and went on to start 40 consecutive games.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Although G Earl Watford didn't make a huge impact on the field during his rookie season with the Cardinals, his presence was felt in the Arizona community with his various charitable appearances. He was a regular participant in the team's Milk and Cookies reading program as well as Gatorade Jr. Training Camps and team kids camps.

He also joined team President Michael Bidwill and players at the annual Help Feed the Hungry event. The Cardinals group helped serve Thanksgiving dinner to those less fortunate at the Phoenix Rescue Mission. During the holiday season, Watford, along with Cardinals teammates, participated in the team's Teddy Bear Express event at Phoenix Children's Hospital. The players delivered white personalized Cardinals teddy bears to children in the pediatric units throughout the hospital. He also joined teammates and visited the Black Family and Child Services agency in December to host a Christmas party for 500 children and took part in teammate Calais Campbell's Christmas with Calais holiday event and shopping spree at Target for kids from UMOM Day Center.

CARDINALS TV NUMBERS APPROACHED RECORD LEVELS IN 2013

The Cardinals 2013 season was not only a huge success on the field, but also in terms of local TV ratings.

According to the NFL & The Nielsen Company, Cardinals game broadcasts averaged a 21.5 rating & 42 share over the course of the 2013 season. The 21.5 rating was the second-highest in team history (22.6 in 2009) while the 42 share trails only a 43 for the 1999 season.

On average, each game was watched in 402,000 Valley households, marking just the second time the team's average audience exceeded 400,000 households per game (423,000 in 2009).

SECOND-HALF SURGE: Like the team itself, the numbers were impressive to start with and only got stronger as the season progressed. The final eight regular season games averaged a 23.5 rating, 45 share & 435,000 households each.

HUGE AUDIENCE FOR FINALE: The broadcast of Arizona's week 17 game vs. San Francisco attracted one of the largest regular season audiences in team history. It garnered a regular season record 54 share, meaning 54% of households watching television at the time were tuned into the telecast. That game also had a 28.6 rating and reached an audience of 531,000 households, the team's highest figures in each category since a Sunday night win against Minnesota in week 12 of 2009 (31.9 and 598,000). Those figures are in addition to the 63,570 fans who attended the game live at University of Phoenix Stadium, where the Cardinals have sold out all 83 games played since the venue opened in 2006.

CARDINALS GAMES BEAT ALL OTHER PROGRAMMING: On a listing of the Valley's most-watched TV programs of any kind during the 2013 season, Cardinals game broadcasts occupy each of the top 10 spots and 13 of the top 14. Cardinals telecasts ranked #1 in Phoenix every week but one during the 2013 regular season. The lone exception was week 7 when the Cards-Seahawks Thursday night game on NFL Network finished #2 to NBC's Broncos-Colts game broadcast.

CONTINUED GROWTH: Cardinals TV ratings experienced an 8% increase from 2012 to '13 and grew 11% over 2011. Arizona was one of nine NFL teams whose rating increased by 10% or more over the last two seasons.

CARDINALS HOLIDAY "TEDDY BEAR EXPRESS" AT PHOENIX CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

The Cardinals annual "Teddy Bear Express" involving players, cheerleaders, Big Red, the Cardinals Women's Club and front office personnel made its annual holiday visit to Phoenix Children's Hospital last December

The group from the Cardinals delivered white Cardinals' teddy bears to children in the pediatric units throughout the hospital. The uniformed bears are personalized, each wearing a white jersey with the name and number of a player on the back.

Included in the caravan to Phoenix Children's Hospital were quarterbacks Ryan Lindley and Drew Stanton, center Lyle Sendlein, kicker Jay Feely, punter Dave Zastudil, long snapper Mike Leach, and guard Earl Watford.

2013 INDIVIDUAL MILESTONES

Team President Michael Bidwill

- Since taking over as team President in 2007, the Cardinals have gone .500 or better in 5 of 7 seasons (just twice in previous 20 years).

General Manager Steve Keim

- Took over as GM on January 8th and executed 193 roster moves in helping Cardinals match greatest one-year turnaround in franchise history (5-11 to 10-6) in a 16-game season (4-12 in '97 to 9-7 in '98).

Head Coach Bruce Arians

- Led Arizona to 10 victories in his first season with the team. In franchise history, only Norm Barry (11, 1925) had more wins in his first season than Arians did in 2013.

WR Larry Fitzgerald

- In Week 12 of the 2013 season vs. Indianapolis, reached 11,000 career receiving yards. At 30 years, 85 days old, he became the youngest player in NFL history to reach the career milestone.
- With 10 TD receptions in '13, became 1 of just 9 players in NFL history with at least 10 TDs in five different seasons.

QB Carson Palmer

- Threw for a career-high 4,274 yards and became the 1st player in NFL history to throw for 4,000+ yards with three different teams.

WR Michael Floyd

- Established career highs in receptions (65), receiving yards (1,041) and TD receptions (5) as he became the 12th different player in franchise history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

RB Andre Ellington

- Totaled 1,023 scrimmage yards (652 rushing, 371 receiving), becoming the fifth rookie in team history to surpass 1,000 yards from scrimmage in a season. His 5.53-yard rushing average led all NFL players with a minimum of 100 rushing attempts.

LB John Abraham

- Selected to his fifth career Pro Bowl after leading the team with 11.5 sacks, which gave him 133.5 sacks for his career and moved him into ninth place on the NFL's all-time sacks list.

DE Calais Campbell

- Set a career mark with 9.0 sacks and became the first player in team history with 50+ tackles and 6.0 sacks in five different seasons.

CB Patrick Peterson

- Named first-team All-Pro at CB and was voted to his third straight Pro Bowl, becoming the seventh player in NFL history to be chosen to three Pro Bowls prior to age 24.

CB Justin Bethel

- Selected to his 1st Pro Bowl after recording 21 special teams tackles, two blocked FGAs and a fumble recovery on special teams.

S Tyrann Mathieu

- Named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for October after he totaled 21 tackles, 2 TFL, a sack, an INT and five passes defensed.

LB Karlos Dansby

- A second-team All-Pro selection, became just the fourth NFL player with at least 6.0 sacks, 4 INTs and 2 INT-return TDs in a season since sacks became official in 1982.

2013 GAME SUMMARIES

RAMS 27, CARDINALS 24

EDWARD JONES DOME – (55,279)

In the regular season opener and debut of new head coach Bruce Arians, the Cardinals were in prime position for a key road division win. Larry Fitzgerald's second TD reception of the day from new QB Carson Palmer put AZ up 11 late in the 3rd. However, the Rams would come back to tie it and then secured the victory on Greg Zuerlein's 48-yard FG with 0:40 left. Palmer was sharp in his Cards debut throwing for 327 yards and 2 TDs. He was helped by his trio of talented WRs: Fitzgerald (8-80, 2TDs), Andre Roberts (8-97) and Michael Floyd (4-82).

It looked like the Rams would strike first when Sam Bradford hit TE Jared Cook with a long completion down the middle late in the 1st quarter; 8 yards from the end zone, rookie safety Tyrann Mathieu hustled to poke the ball out from behind and LB Karlos Dansby recovered for a touchback. From there the Cards moved 80 yards in 8 plays, the biggest of which was a 1-handed catch by Floyd that covered 44 yards. That set-up a 1-yard Palmer to Fitzgerald fade pass TD for the opening score. The Rams & Cards then traded FGs on the next two drives to make it 10-3 AZ. Bradford would then tie it on his 13-yard TD pass to Cook with :26 left in the half. That was enough time for the Cards to efficiently move into position for a 50-yard FG try but Jay Feely's attempt was wide right.

On the 3rd snap after intermission CB Trumaine Johnson picked off Palmer and returned the INT to the AZ 4; the Cardinals defense held them to a FG by allowing minus-3 yards in 3 plays. After an AZ punt pinned the Rams at their own 7, the Arizona D stepped up again when LB Matt Shaughnessy batted a Bradford pass in the air and NT Dan Williams hauled it in at the 2 and took it into the end zone for a TD. Up 17-13, Palmer then led the Cards on an 11-play, 83-yard drive that he ended with a 24-yard TD pass to Fitzgerald on 3rd down that made it 24-13 with 1:47 left in the 3rd. The Rams answered with an 80-yard drive capped off by Bradford's 1-yard TD toss to Cook; that along with a 2-point conversion cut the AZ lead to 3. It was in serious peril a short time later when Palmer was sacked by Robert Quinn, causing a fumble the Rams recovered at the AZ22 with 10:38 left. Arizona's D again responded holding STL to just 2 yards and a 38-yard game-tying FG. Each side would get the ball back twice more. The Rams capitalized just after the 2:00 warning by moving 50 yards into position for the game-winning FG.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (60,324)

In a back and forth affair, the Cardinals found themselves down 21-16 late in the 3rd quarter in their home opener against Detroit. From there Arizona would score on 3 of its next 4 drives to earn the team's first win under new head coach Bruce Arians. Kicker Jay Feely was 4-4 on field goals (47, 23, 43, 33) while a pair of newcomers chipped in with TDs. Rookie RB Andre Ellington hauled in a 36-yard TD pass from Carson Palmer in the 2nd quarter and RB Rashard Mendenhall scored the go-ahead TD from a yard out with 1:59 to play. All-Pro WR Larry Fitzgerald was questionable with a hamstring injury but answered the bell to start and contribute but was forced to exit in the 2nd half. WR Kerry Taylor, who was elevated from the practice squad the day before, came in to catch 3 passes for 40 yards in his 1st NFL action. Punter Dave Zastudil and the Cards special teams units were outstanding pinning the Lions deep in their end most of the afternoon. The victory was Arizona's 5th straight over the Lions and evened the team's season record at 1-1.

The game was scoreless until Feely's 47-yard FG early in the 2nd made it 3-0. Two snaps later, Matthew Stafford hit Calvin Johnson on a short crossing pattern that the all-pro took 72 yards for a score. The Cards answered with a 6-play, 80-yard drive that ended on Ellington's TD catch down the left sideline. Detroit bettered that on the next series with an even-longer drive (10 plays, 92 yards) and a 3-yard Stafford-to-Johnson TD that made it 14-10 at the half.

Early in the 3rd, DE Calais Campbell recovered a Reggie Bush fumbled hand-off at the DET7 but the Cards had to settle for a Feely FG. Midway through the quarter, Lions LB DeAndre Levy INT'd a Palmer pass and returned it 66 yards for a TD that made it 21-13. Arizona added Feely FGs on its next two possessions (43 & 33 yarders) to cut the deficit to 21-19. Midway thru the 4th quarter special teams ace Justin Bethel blocked David Akers' 47-yard FG to keep it a 2-point game. With 4:28 to go, Arizona took over at its own 39 and on the 1st play Ellington gained 16 to the DET45. Later on the drive the Cards faced a 3rd-n-8 at the 32 when Andre Roberts was interfered with by Bill Bentley on a deep pass giving the Cards a 1st-n-goal at the 1. Two plays later Mendenhall punched it in with 1:59 remaining. With 1:15 left the Lions had a 4th-n-4 at their own 43 when rookie S Tyrann Mathieu tackled WR Nate Burleson a yard short of the 1st down to seal the game.

MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME – (73,057)

The Cardinals (1-1) traveled to New Orleans to take on the 2-0 Saints in one of the NFL's more challenging venues for visitors. Nonetheless, Arizona received the opening kickoff and moved 80 yards in 11 plays. QB Carson Palmer completed 4 of 5 passes for 44 yards and RB Alfonso Smith put the Cards up 7-0 with a 3-yard TD run. New Orleans answered quickly, responding with its own 80-yard scoring drive. Most of that yardage came via Drew Brees completions, including a 27-yard game-tying TD pass to WR Robert Meachem. Each team would possess the ball six more times before halftime. All of Arizona's ended with a Dave Zastudil punt. Of the six New Orleans drives, four ended with punts and one ended when time ran out in the second quarter. The other, however, was a 6-play, 58-yard scoring drive that Brees capped with a 16-yard TD pass to TE Jimmy Graham that put New Orleans up 14-7 at intermission.

The Saints took the opening kickoff of the 2nd half and marched to the AZ29 before Cards rookie safety (and New Orleans native) Tyrann Mathieu intercepted Brees' 3rd-n-10 pass in the end zone. While the Arizona offense could not find its rhythm, New Orleans added 10 points on consecutive drives with a 31-yard Garrett Hartley FG and a 5-yard Brees TD run on 3rd-n-goal. Trailing 24-7 early in the 4th, the Cardinals desperately needed a score. Palmer completions to Larry Fitzgerald (26 yards) and Michael Floyd (13 & 20) quickly moved the team to the New Orleans 19. However, Palmer's pass attempt to TE Rob Housler was intercepted by Saints rookie safety Kenny Vaccaro. New Orleans converted that takeway into another Brees-to-Graham TD pass that made it 31-7 and proved to be the final margin.

Foremost among the thoughts of the Cardinals on this afternoon was starting NT Dan Williams, who missed the game after his father Thomas was killed in a car accident traveling from Memphis to New Orleans to watch his son. Fellow DT Darnell Dockett stepped up to record three of Arizona's four sacks of Brees, matching a career high. During the game, Arizona's defense lost two starting LBs to injury, Lorenzo Alexander (foot) and Sam Acho (leg). They also lost S Rashad Johnson late in the 2nd quarter when he suffered an injury to his finger that would cause him to lose a portion of it.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM – (44,956)

In a game each team needed badly, the Cardinals were shut out thru 3 quarters on a steamy, late September afternoon in Tampa. But rather than wilt in the FL sun, Arizona came to life late, taking advantage of 3 Buccaneer turnovers to erase Tampa's 10-point 4th quarter lead and emerge with the victory. It was the first time in over 14 years (9/12/99 at Philly) that the Cards overcame a double-digit 4th quarter deficit to win on the road. An injury-ravaged Arizona defense turned in an incredible effort limiting the NFL's 2nd leading rusher Doug Martin to 45 yards on 27 carries; it also came up with three 4th quarter takeaways, including a pair of INTs from All-Pro CB Patrick Peterson in the game's final 4 minutes. The win evened Arizona's record at 2-2 while Tampa fell to 0-4. After playing in New Orleans the previous Sunday, the Cardinals spent the week leading up to the game practicing in nearby Bradenton.

On Arizona's 2nd offensive series of the game, RB Rashard Mendenhall fumbled and DT Gerald McCoy recovered at the AZ41. The Bucs capitalized when rookie QB Mike Glennon – who was elevated to the starting job over Josh Freeman earlier in the week - hit WR Mike Williams for an 8-yard TD. Late in the 2nd quarter Tampa moved 61 yards in 14 plays and Rian Lindell's 50-yarder with 0:27 left in the first half made it 10-0 Bucs at intermission.

On their opening drive of the 2nd half the Cards marched from their own 8 to the TB15 thanks in large part to Carson Palmer passes to Larry Fitzgerald (3-41) and Michael Floyd (2-41). However, Palmer's attempt to Floyd in the end zone was intercepted by rookie CB Johnthan Banks. On their next offensive series, the Cards moved to the TB33 but Palmer's 1st down attempt to Fitzgerald was picked off along the sideline by CB Darrelle Revis. Early in the 4th Tampa had a 10-0 lead and the ball at the AZ 48 when Martin fumbled a hand-off and LB Matt Shaughnessy recovered at midfield. That takeaway led to a 42-yard Jay Feely FG that made it 10-3. After the teams traded punts, Tampa had it deep in its own territory clinging to a 7-point lead. Facing a 2nd-n-6 at his own 11, Glennon tried to hit Vincent Jackson across the middle but Peterson picked it off setting AZ up at the TB13. On the next snap, Fitzgerald beat Revis and Palmer hit him in the end zone for the game-tying score. Arizona's kickoff coverage then pinned Tampa at its own 10 on and on a 3rd down play from there, newly-acquired Cards LB Dontay Moch sacked Glennon for a 9-yard loss back to the 1. After the punt, Arizona took over at the TB38 with 1:56 left and the game tied at 10. On 1st down Palmer hit rookie WR Jaron Brown with a 19-yard completion down the right sideline and a personal foul penalty on Dashon Goldson moved it to the 9. Four plays later, a short FG by the Tampa-native Feely made it 13-10 with 1:29 left. On the ensuing drive the Bucs advanced to their own 41 with :56 left before Peterson sealed the game with his 2nd INT in a little over 3 minutes.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (60,426)

After opening with 3 of their first 4 games on the road, the Cardinals returned home to face a Carolina Panthers team coming off a 38-0 win in its last outing. For Arizona, the day would be dominated by defense. That unit recorded 3 interceptions off Cam Newton and 7 sacks, the most by the Cardinals since 1987. DE Calais Campbell had two of the sacks - one resulted in a safety and another forced a fumble that led to an Arizona TD. LB Karlos Dansby also had a pair of sacks plus an INT. All-Pro CB Patrick Peterson halted another Carolina scoring opportunity with his third INT of the year. But the key defensive performance was turned in by Pro Bowl LB Daryl Washington, who returned to the lineup following a 4-game suspension and led the Cardinals with 9 tackles, had two sacks and a huge INT.

On the game's opening drive, AZ advanced to the CAR4 but Carson Palmer's pass to Michael Floyd in the end zone was picked off by S Robert Lester. From there, Newton led the Panthers to the AZ4 but his 3rd down pass was dropped in the end zone by Steve Smith and Graham Gano's 22-yard FG made it 3-0. Arizona tied it midway thru the 2nd on Jay Feely's 42-yard FG. Carolina threatened on its next 2 drives but came up empty on each. First they turned it over on downs at the AZ15 when they couldn't pick up a yard on 2nd, 3rd or 4th-n-1. Their next drive reached the AZ33 when Newton went deep down the sideline but Peterson picked it off at the 1 and returned it 43 yards. Palmer led AZ to the CAR23 before his pass was INT'd in the end zone by S Mike Mitchell with :32 remaining in the half. The Panthers quickly moved into position for a 51-yard Gano FG as time expired and Carolina led 6-3 at intermission.

On its opening drive of the 3rd quarter, Arizona moved 85 yards in 10 plays and took the lead when Rashard Mendenhall scored on a 1-yard run. The lead grew to 12-6 on the next drive when Campbell sacked Newton in the end zone for a safety. After the free kick, AZ faced a 3rd-n-8 at the CAR48 when LB Luke Kuechley INT'd a Palmer pass and returned it 30 yards to the AZ29. The Panthers were in prime position to take the lead when they had the ball at the AZ11 facing a 3rd-n-3 on the first play of the 4th quarter. Washington, however, jumped a Newton slant pass and took the INT to midfield. After the Cards couldn't capitalize, Washington ended the next Carolina drive when he sacked Newton on 3rd down to force a punt. With under 4:00 to play, the Cards sent Feely out for a critical 50-yard FG try; make it and the Cards are up 2 scores, miss it and the Panthers take over at the AZ40 with 3:38 to play and 2 timeouts. He made it and the Cards led 15-6. On the 5th play of the next Panther drive, Campbell sacked Newton forcing a fumble that Antoine Cason returned to the CAR9. That led to a 7-yard Palmer TD pass to TE Jim Dray that made it 22-6. Dansby then provided the final nail on the next drive when he INT'd Newton.

CANDLESTICK PARK – (69,732)

In their final visit to Candlestick Park, the Cardinals had their opportunities to knock off the defending NFC Champs but in the end could not overcome four costly turnovers that led to 16 Niners points. The loss dropped Arizona to 3-3 while San Fran improved to 4-2 with its third straight victory. WR Larry Fitzgerald was a game-time decision with a hamstring injury but answered the bell to catch 6 passes for 117 yards and a 75-yard TD.

Neither the Cardinals nor the 49ers offense picked up a first down on any of their first four possessions. However, two of Arizona's ended with Carson Palmer INTs that set up San Fran deep in AZ territory. The first by S Eric Reid was returned to the AZ7 while the second by CB Carlos Rogers was returned to the AZ11. In both cases the Cardinals defense came up big, limiting SF to two Phil Dawson FGs that put the hosts up 6-0. Late in the first, the Cards quickly took the lead when Palmer connected with Fitzgerald on a 75-yard scoring pass that was Arizona's longest since 2008. San Fran was on the verge of more points on its next drive but on 2nd-n-goal from the AZ2, LB Karlos Dansby tipped Colin Kaepernick's pass and it was INT'd at the goal line by S Yeremiah Bell. The downside was the Cards had to take over inside their own 1 and 3 plays later Palmer was sacked in the end zone for a safety by rookie LB Corey Lemonier. On the 2nd play after the free kick, Kaepernick & TE Vernon Davis connected on a deep TD down the middle that covered 61 yards. The Cardinals struck right back on a 53-yard completion to rookie WR Brittan Golden who was called up from the practice squad earlier in the week. On the next play rookie RB Andre Ellington ran it in from 15 yards out to trim San Fran's lead to 15-14. Late in the 2nd quarter, Davis capped his big 1st half (7-171-2TDs) with a 35-yard TD from Kaepernick that made it 22-14 at intermission.

On their opening drive of the 3rd quarter, Palmer capped a 9-play, 61-yard drive with 10-yard TD toss to Michael Floyd that made it 22-20 when the 2-point try failed. After a 49er punt, Arizona took over at its own 20 and in 10 plays moved to the SF31 seemingly poised to take the lead. But after catching an 8-yard pass, Fitzgerald fumbled and SF recovered at its own 11. That turning point was followed by an even more pivotal San Fran dive that covered 89 yards in 18 plays and chewed 9:32 off the clock. RB Kendall Hunter ended it with his 6-yard run that put SF up 29-20 with 6:35 left. Any Arizona comeback hopes were dashed on the 2nd play of the ensuing drive when RB Alfonso Smith lost a fumble at the AZ31. The Niners turned that into a 44-yard Dawson FG that provided the game's final points.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (61,200)

In a nationally-televised Thursday night divisional showdown, the Cardinals could not match the offensive output of the visiting Seahawks who scored on their first two drives and never relinquished the lead. QB Russell Wilson threw 3 scoring passes and Marshawn Lynch ran for 91 yards and a TD. Seattle took advantage of two Carson Palmer interceptions, converting each into touchdowns. Cards LB John Abraham notched 2 sacks of Wilson and the AZ defense forced two fumbles of the QB, each of which led to AZ scores. However, Seattle's dangerous pass rush got to Palmer 7 times and overall held the Cards to 30 rushing yards on 18 attempts. With the win, Seattle improved to 6-1 on the season while Arizona fell to 3-4.

The Seahawks jumped ahead early after Wilson threw TD passes on each of their first two possessions. The first was a 31-yarder to WR Sidney Rice at the end of a 5-play, 83-yard series. The ensuing AZ drive ended when Earl Thomas intercepted a tipped Palmer pass at the SEA28 on a play that was initially ruled incomplete but reversed after a challenge. From there, Wilson took Seattle 72 yards in 11 plays and capped the drive with a 15-yard TD pass to TE Zach Miller. Seattle reached the AZ43 on its next possession but failed to pick up a 1st down on 2nd or 3rd and 1. They went for it on 4th down but linemen Frostee Rucker and Calais Campbell combined to stuff Wilson on a sneak attempt in a key momentum swing. That stop led to a 49-yard Jay Feely FG that made it 14-3 and on the 2nd play of the next Seattle drive the D again came up big. LB Matt Shaughnessy sacked Wilson forcing a fumble that Campbell recovered at the SEA3 (Campbell started just 4 days after leaving the game at San Francisco on a stretcher with a bruised spine). One play later RB Rashard Mendenhall ran it in to make it 14-10. Seattle tacked on a 51-yard Steven Hauschka FG with 0:05 left in the half to make it 17-10 Seattle.

On Arizona's opening drive of the 3rd quarter, Feely hit a 52-yard FG that pulled the Cards to within 4 at 17-13 but it was as close as they would get. The Seahawks answered by going 80 yards in 10 plays on their next drive and Wilson's 1-yard TD pass to TE Kellen Davis made it 24-13. CB Brandon Browner then picked off a Palmer pass and returned it to the 1 where Lynch punched it in for a 31-13 lead late in the 3rd. The Cards would add a FG and TD – an 8-yarder from Palmer to rookie WR Jaron Brown - in the 4th quarter but the deficit was too great to overcome, and Arizona suffered its first home loss in 2013.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (60,671)

The Cardinals snapped a 2-game losing streak and improved to 4-4 heading into their bye thanks to a decisive 27-13 home win over the Falcons. Heading into the game, Atlanta QB Matt Ryan had been intercepted just 3 times thru 6 games and was sacked an NFL-low 9 times. Defensively, Arizona intercepted Ryan 4 times and sacked him on another 4 occasions. The D also limited Atlanta to 27 yards on 14 rushes and held Steven Jackson to 6 yards on 11 carries. But by far, the biggest individual impact came from rookie RB Andre Ellington who made his 1st career start in place of Rashard Mendenall (toe). The sixth-round draft pick became the 3rd rookie in franchise history to top 150 rushing yards in a game and his 80-yard scoring run tied for the 3rd-longest in franchise history. That TD was part of a 21-point 2nd quarter explosion for Arizona that broke the game open.

The first break of the game however was created by Atlanta when CB Asante Samuel picked off a Carson Palmer pass in the 1st quarter, handing the ball over to the Falcons offense at the AZ31. From there though, the Cards defense held them to just a 24-yard Matt Bryant FG. Arizona would answer quickly. A 22-yard Ellington run was followed by a 51-yard Palmer completion to WR Teddy Williams, a free agent who joined the team 5 days earlier after spending part of the previous season as a DB with the Colts. That led to a 10-yard Larry Fitzgerald TD catch on 3rd-n-goal. Atlanta then made it 7-6 on a 30-yard Bryant FG. However, on the next play from scrimmage Ellington bounced a run outside and raced 80 yards down the left sideline for a TD. After an Atlanta 3-n-out, Palmer's 15-yard scoring pass to WR Michael Floyd gave Arizona TDs in 3 straight possessions and a 21-6 halftime lead.

In the second half the Cardinals went up 27-6 when Jay Feely extended his streak of successful FGs to 13 by hitting from 38 & 39 yards. Atlanta's only points came on a late TD pass that came two plays after a Ryan incompletion on 4th down but a debatable pass interference call kept the drive going. Four of Atlanta's five other 2nd half possessions ended with Ryan interceptions and the other ended when time ran out. Two of the INTs came from S Rashad Johnson while the others came from LB Daryl Washington and S Tyrann Mathieu.

Larry Fitzgerald caught 4 passes to become the youngest player in NFL history to hit 800 career catches. His 2nd quarter touchdown reception also gave him one TD against every other team in the NFC.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (60,845)

The Cardinals returned from their bye week to host a Texans team that was 2-6 but had the league's #1 ranked defense and 8th ranked offense. Arizona received another excellent performance from its own defense that limited the Texans to just 41 total net yards in the second half (32 rushing, 9 passing). The Cards offense chipped in with its own 13-0 run to start the second half en route to a 27-24 win. AZ improved to 5-4 while sending Houston to its 7th straight defeat. Carson Palmer completed 20 of 32 passes for 241 yards with 2 TDs in the victory while LB John Abraham delivered two key sacks.

On the game's first play from scrimmage, Abraham stripped QB Case Keenum and LB Matt Shaughnessy scooped it up at the 6 before taking it to the end zone for a 7-0 Cards lead. Later in the opening quarter, Keenum tied it with a 7-yard TD pass to Andre Johnson that capped an 8-play, 49-yard drive. Early in the 2nd quarter, TE Rob Housler scored his 1st career TD when he hauled in a 12-yard pass from Palmer that put AZ up 14-7. The Texans answered with a 9-play, 80-yard drive that Keenum ended with a short TD toss to TE Ryan Griffin. Two plays later, Palmer tried to go deep to Housler but was intercepted by safety D.J. Swearinger, turning it over to Houston at the AZ45. That led to a 48-yard Randy Bullock FG that made it 17-14. In the final minute of the first half, a JJ Watt sack forced a fumble that he recovered at the AZ22 with 0:37 left. The Arizona D forced Houston to settle for a 40-yard FG try but special teams ace Justin Bethel blocked it as the half expired.

On their 2nd drive after intermission, the Cards moved into position for a 35-yard Jay Feely FG that tied the game at 17. AZ penetrated deep into Texan territory on its next drive and came away with a 21-yard Feely FG that made it 20-17. The Texans meanwhile went three-n-out on each of their first 3 drives of the 2nd half. After the 3rd, AZ took over at its own 33 before moving 67 yards in 9 plays and Palmer hit WR Andre Roberts with a 19-yard TD that put AZ up 10 with 6:42 to go. Roberts stepped up after Michael Floyd exited with a shoulder injury and finished with a game-high 72 yards on 5 catches. When AZ forced another punt on the next drive, the Cards took over at their own 5 with 4:53 remaining. On the next play, Rashard Mendenhall was stopped at the line and somewhere in the pile the ball came loose. After huddling, officials ruled it a fumble and Houston ball. Three plays later Keenum & Johnson connected on a 5-yard TD that made it a 3-point game with 4:34 to go. The Cards picked up one 1st down before RB Andre Ellington was ruled short on a 3rd-n-7 and they had to punt. One final stop by the AZ defense was needed and it delivered when Jerraud Powers slapped away a 4th down pass.

Houston was without head coach Gary Kubiak who was recovering from health issues and defensive coordinator Wade Phillips filled in. The game marked the Cardinals 80th straight sellout at University of Phoenix Stadium and the team eclipsed 5 million total fans at the venue that opened in 2006.

CARDINALS 27, JAGUARS 14

EVERBANK FIELD – (59,862)

The Cardinals improved to 6-4 and notched their 3rd straight victory with a 13-point win at Jacksonville. The Jags scored touchdowns on their first 2 possessions of the game but not after that as the Arizona defense grew stronger as the game went on. Offensively, Carson Palmer had his best day as a Cardinal completing 30 of 42 passes (to 9 different receivers) for 419 yards with a pair of TDs and no INTs. WR Michael Floyd was questionable with a shoulder sprain heading into the game but turned in one of the best statistical days ever by a Cards receiver with 6 catches for 193 yards and a 91-yard TD. The Cardinals forced two turnovers but for the first time all year committed none themselves.

The Jaguars jumped out to an early lead on the game's opening drive when they went for it on 4th-n-1 at their own 38. On play action, QB Chad Henne lofted a short pass TE Danny Noble that he took 62 yards for a TD on his first career reception. The Cards answered immediately with a 10-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 14-yard Palmer TD pass to Larry Fitzgerald. Jordan Todman returned the ensuing kickoff 59 yards to the AZ46 and 7 plays later Maurice Jones-Drew punched it in from a yard out. The Cards appeared to stop Jax on 3rd-n-goal but a taunting penalty on S Yeremiah Bell kept the drive alive. Jones-Drew scored on the next play to put the Jags up 14-7 with 5:08 left in the 1st quarter. Those would be Jacksonville's final points of the day. Just before halftime Palmer completed a 21-yard pass to TE Rob Housler followed by a pair of 22-yarders to Floyd that set up Rashard Mendenhall's 5-yard TD run. When Jacksonville's Josh Scobee's 60-yard FG try missed as the half expired, the game was tied 14-14 at intermission.

Arizona opened the 3rd with a 9-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Jay Feely's 21-yard FG. The next Cards possession saw them backed up deep in their own territory. Facing a 3rd-n-10 from the AZ9, Palmer hit Floyd at the 25 before the WR eluded a host of defenders, breaking multiple tackles en route to a 91-yard TD. It was the team's longest pass play since 1988 and 6th longest in team history. Leading 24-14, the Arizona defense had all it would need. Of Jacksonville's seven 2nd half possessions, 4 ended with punts, one when the Jags turned it over on downs and two via Cardinals interceptions (Jerraud Powers & Bell). The only remaining points came on Feely's 32-yard FG midway through the 4th.

The win kept Arizona very much in the thick of the playoff race at 6-4 while dropping the Jaguars to 1-9. With the victory, Bruce Arians became the first Cardinals coach to record six wins in his first 10 games since Charley Winner went 7-2-1 in 1966.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (60,882)

Riding a 3-game winning streak, the 6-4 Cardinals hosted the AFC South leading Colts (7-3) who entered the game with a 4-1 road record. In this match-up, though, the biggest storyline was first-year Arizona head coach Bruce Arians facing the squad with which he earned Coach of the Year honors while subbing for Chuck Pagano. It was against this backdrop that the Cardinals turned in one of their most dominant overall efforts in recent memory that was every bit as one-sided as the 40-11 score might indicate. Arizona jumped all over Indy early and led 27-3 after two on the strength of a 20-point 2nd quarter; the halftime stats saw the Cards with a 17-5 lead in first downs, 274-56 edge in total net yards and an almost 2-to-1 advantage in time of possession. Continuing his torrid stretch, QB Carson Palmer twice found Larry Fitzgerald with TD passes and spread his 26 completions among 10 different receivers. For the 2nd straight week, the Cards played a turnover-free game while the defense was again extremely strong limiting Andrew Luck to just 163 yards on 20-39 passing and holding Indy to 80 rushing yards on 15 carries. The D made its one takeaway count when LB Karlos Dansby returned an INT off Luck for a TD.

The Cards had scoring opportunities on each of its 1st 4 possessions. On the game-opening drive, they moved 80 yards in 10 plays and went up 7-0 on a Palmer-to-Fitzgerald TD. On their next series, Indy blocked a 28-yard FG try that kept the lead at 7 and then scored a FG of its own. The Colts would not score again until the game was well in hand in the 4th quarter. Fitzgerald caught another TD pass to make it 14-3 and Jay Feely's 48-yard FG made it 17-3 midway thru the 2nd. On the next Indy drive, DT Darnell Dockett pressured Luck forcing him to hurry a pass that Dansby hauled in and returned 22 yards for a TD. Feely's 50-yard FG as the half expired made it 27-3 at intermission. Earlier in the 2nd quarter, Fitzgerald became the youngest player in NFL history to eclipse 11,000 receiving yards.

The Cards proceeded to work the clock and nurse that lead in the 2nd half. The 3rd quarter's only points came when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from 5 yards out; Mendenhall had a very productive game both running and receiving. With 10:26 left in the game, Luck and TE Coby Fleener connected on a 17-yard TD pass but two more Feely FGs made the final score 40-11. WR Michael Floyd topped 100 receiving yards for the 2nd straight game while Palmer eclipsed 300 passing for the 2nd game in a row.

LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD – (69,144)

In a pivotal game for both teams, the 7-4 Cardinals headed to Philly riding a 4-game win streak to face a 6-5 Eagles team that had won 3 straight. Arizona had not turned the ball over in either of its previous two games but committed three in this one including on each of its first two drives. They were costly and helped the Eagles take a 24-7 lead early in the 2nd half before the Cards clawed back. A pair of late Carson Palmer TD passes pulled it to within 3 with just under 5 minutes remaining. However any hopes for completing the comeback were dashed by a series of pivotal calls from referee Tony Corrente and his crew. The loss dealt a blow to Arizona's playoff chances as they fell to 7-5 with 4 games remaining.

On the game's 3rd play Palmer was hit while attempting to throw a deep ball and the Eagles recovered the fumble at the AZ25. They cashed in 4 plays later when Nick Foles found TE Zach Ertz with a 6-yard TD pass. Midway through the 2nd Arizona faced a 3rd-n-20 when Palmer threw it in tight coverage to Larry Fitzgerald who bounced off a defender and took it 43 yards for a game-tying TD. For Fitzgerald it was his 10th TD in 6 career games vs. the Eagles. Philly responded with a 9-play, 64-yard drive that netted a 32-yard Alex Henery FG. Just before halftime they went up 17-7 thanks to a short TD set-up when officials flagged AZ for defensive pass interference in the end zone.

The Eagles increased their lead on the opening drive of the 2nd half when Foles capped a 13-play, 80-yard drive with his 2nd TD pass of the day to Ertz, a 24-yarder that made it 24-7. Arizona would not go away. On the next drive, the Cards pulled to within 10 when Palmer connected with Michael Floyd on a 23-yard TD at the end of a 10-play, 80-yard drive. As the AZ defense was limiting the Eagles fast-paced offense, the Cards threatened. On the next series, though, Palmer's deep pass to Andre Roberts was picked off by CB Cary Williams to halt that drive. With 7:20 to go AZ took over at its own 14 and Palmer moved the unit downfield on a drive that he ended with a 3-yard TD pass to TE Jim Dray that made it 24-21 with 4:45 left. On the 2nd play of the next Philly drive, Patrick Peterson intercepted a Foles pass, appearing to set AZ up at the PHI36; however away from the play S Tyrann Mathieu was flagged for defensive holding to wipe away the game-changing play. The Cards then forced a punt and took over at their own 10 with 2:03 left. After picking up 5 yards on 1st down, incompletions on the next 3 plays turned it over on downs. On the 2nd & 4th down passes to Floyd there appeared to be an abundance of defensive contact that went unflagged. Three plays later the Cards appeared to force Philly to settle for a FG when LB Matt Shaughnessy sacked Foles on 3rd down but Corrente penalized him for defensive holding on the play and the game ended there.

CARDINALS 30, RAMS 10

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (60,643)

The Cardinals entered their Week 14 home game against the Rams looking to keep pace in a crowded NFC playoff field and end an 8-game skid against NFC West opponents. They accomplished both with a 20-point victory. QB Carson Palmer was questionable entering the game with an elbow injury suffered the week before in Philly and did not throw a pass in practice all week. Come game time, however, he was very sharp completing 27 of 32 passes for the 2nd-best single-game completion percentage in team history (84.4). WR Larry Fitzgerald hauled in 12 of those passes for 96 yards and a score. The AZ defense was again tremendous. LB Karlos Dansby had an INT return TD while John Abraham recorded 3 sacks of Kellen Clemens including one for a safety. Dansby's pick-six was his 2nd in 3 games and 4th as a Cardinal, 3rd-most in team behind only Aeneas Williams (6) & Larry Wilson (5). Abraham's 3 sacks gave him 11 for the year and allowed him to move past Lawrence Taylor & Leslie O'Neal into 9th on the NFL's all-time list. Fitzgerald's TD was his 10th of the year and 87th of his career. Arizona's offensive line allowed just one sack (none from dangerous pass rushers Robert Quinn & Chris Long) and controlled the line of scrimmage, helping the Cards earn a 10-minute edge in time of possession.

On the game's opening drive, AZ moved 80 yards in 8 plays and RB Rashard Mendenhall scored on a 3-yard run. St. Louis answered with a 44-yard Greg Zuerlein FG to make it 7-3. Early in the 2nd, Palmer seemingly connected with TE Jim Dray on a 17-yard TD pass but upon further review, officials ruled Dray fumbled just short of the goal line. With :50 left in the half, though, Palmer hit Fitzgerald with a 7-yard score that made it 14-3. Palmer opened the game with 11 straight completions and was 16-17 at intermission.

On the 2nd play of the 3rd quarter, DE Calais Campbell pressured Clemens as he was throwing and Dansby picked off the attempt, returning it 23 yards for a pivotal score. Later in the quarter, the Cards downed a Dave Zastudil punt at the 1 and on 3rd down, Abraham smothered Clemens in the end zone for a safety. On the ensuing free kick, however, AZ lost talented rookie S Tyrann Mathieu for the season when he injured his knee on the return. St. Louis' only TD of the game was set-up when Tavon Austin took an end around 56 yards to the AZ4 and Zac Stacy punched it in from the 1. The Austin run accounted for more than half of St. Louis' 100 rushing yards for the day. Late in the 4th, S Rashad Johnson INT'd Clemens setting up a 6-yard Andre Ellington TD run with 1:55 left.

CARDINALS 37, TITANS 34 (OT)

LP FIELD – (69,143)

In a chilly late afternoon game in Nashville, the Cardinals seemed to clinch their 9th win of the year when CB Antoine Cason returned an INT off Ryan Fitzpatrick for a TD to put AZ up 34-17 with 6:13 left. But the Titans stormed back to score 17 points in the final 3:12 to send the game to overtime. On the opening drive of the extra period Cason again picked off Fitzpatrick to set-up Jay Feely's game-winning FG. With the win AZ improved to 9-5 and remained a game behind San Fran & Carolina for a wild card spot. Rookie RB Andre Ellington became the first Cardinal in more than a decade to lead the team in both rushing and receiving yards and fellow RB Rashard Mendenhall scored two rushing TDs.

The Titans opened the scoring with a 45-yard Rob Bironas FG on their 1st series. AZ responded with a 77-yard drive on which Ellington had a 13-yard run & 26-yard reception; it ended with Mendenhall's 1-yard TD run. On the final play of the 1st quarter, Fitzpatrick scrambled in the pocket before finding Chris Johnson down the left sideline for a 25-yard TD. The Cards again answered. Feely's 25-yard FG capped a 13-play, 67-yard drive that made it 10-10 at intermission.

On the opening kickoff of the 2nd half, LB Patrick Bailey muffed a short kickoff and Cason recovered at the TEN23. That led to a 47-yard Feely FG that put AZ up 13-10. Tennessee responded with a lengthy drive that ended on a 1-yard TD catch from Delanie Walker. On the 15-play series they converted four separate 3rd-n-longs and were aided by 4 defensive penalties. For the game AZ was penalized 9 times for 96 yards by Pete Morelli's crew (Titans 3-16). Late in the 3rd, Carson Palmer's 6-yard TD pass to TE Jake Ballard put AZ up 20-17. After the Titans missed a 50-yard FG early in the 4th, the Cards cashed in with a TD drive that made it 27-17. Cason's pick 6 on the next series made it 34-17 before TEN mounted its comeback. Fitzpatrick's 10-yard TD pass to Michael Preston made it 34-24 with 3:12 left. After a 3-n-out, the Titans got a 24-yard Bironas FG with :47 remaining and then recovered the on-side kick. Preston tied it at 34 with :10 left when he caught an 8-yard pass from Fitzpatrick. Tennessee won the toss in OT and got the ball first, but on the 3rd play, with the Titans at the AZ43, Cason picked off Fitzpatrick and returned it to the AZ46. Five Mendenhall runs gained 22 yards and a Jim Dray catch netted 9, putting AZ in position for Feely's game-winner that went right down the middle.

CARDINALS 17, SEAHAWKS 10

CENTURYLINK FIELD – (68,266)

The Cardinals entered their Week 16 game at Seattle knowing a loss would eliminate them from playoff consideration after Carolina won earlier in the afternoon. Standing in their way was a Seahawks team with the NFL's best record (12-2) looking to clinch the division title and home field throughout the playoffs. The Seahawks (who defeated AZ 58-0 a year before in Seattle) had the NFL's #1 ranked defense and had not lost at home in two years (a streak of 14 games) and a starting QB (Russell Wilson) who had never lost at home. But on the strength of an incredible defensive effort, the Cards overcame 4 turnovers and came up with a clutch late touchdown to record the important victory. The D allowed Seattle just 192 yards and 10 first downs while forcing 9 punts. It held Wilson to just 108 passing yards and All-Pro RB Marshawn Lynch to 71 yards in 18 rushes (7-11 in the 2nd half).

Arizona got the ball to start the game and had a great opportunity to strike first when Carson Palmer hit WR Brittan Golden on a 63-yard pass play to the SEA13. However, on 3rd-n-2 at the 5, Palmer's pass into the end zone was deflected in the air off the hand of TE Rob Housler and was intercepted by SS Kam Chancellor. Later in the 1st, the Cards advanced to the SEA33 on a 26-yard Andre Ellington run but on 3rd-n-13 from the SEA36, Palmer tried to thread a pass to Larry Fitzgerald but was INT'd by CB Richard Sherman. Early in the 2nd quarter, Steven Hauschka's 27-yard FG made it 3-0. Arizona soon tied it when Jay Feely's 39-yard FG capped a 16-play, 75-yard drive. Late in the 1st half, Seattle was poised to reclaim the lead when Palmer's 3rd down pass was tipped at the line and INT'd by LB Malcolm Smith who returned it 32 yards to the AZ3. From there, the Cards stuffed Lynch twice and forced an incompletion on 3rd down. A false start penalty backed Seattle up 5 yards and Hauschka's 24-yard try clanked off the left upright to keep the game tied 3-3.

The defensive battle intensified in the 3rd quarter when the 1st 7 drives ended in punts. Late in the quarter, AZ capitalized on great field position when Feely connected from 46 yards out to make it 6-3. When Justin Bethel recovered Robert Turbin's fumble on the ensuing kickoff, the Cards took over at the SEA18. However, Palmer's 3rd down pass into the end zone was again INT'd by Sherman. A 26-yard Feely FG on the next AZ drive made it 9-3 with 10:40 to go. Seattle then scored the game's 1st TD when Wilson hit TE Zach Miller with an 11-yard TD pass. A rare blocked PAT try seemed to keep the score tied at 9 but an even rarer penalty was called on Daryl Washington for lining up too close to the center and the re-try was good. Down 1 with 7:26 to go, AZ took over at its own 20. On 3rd-n-3 at the 27 Palmer scrambled from the pocket before finding TE Jake Ballard for 17 and a key 1st down. With 2:20 to go and facing a 3rd-n-6 at the SEA31, Palmer lofted a pass down the left sideline that Michael Floyd hauled in for his only catch of the day. That and Rashard Mendenhall's successful 2-point conversion run made it 17-10. On the next play from scrimmage, Wilson's pass to Doug Baldwin bounced off the WR's forearm and into the air where it was caught by LB Karlos Dansby for a game-icing INT.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (63,570)

The Cardinals entered the regular season finale needing a win over the 49ers and a Saints home loss to the Bucs to clinch a playoff berth. They received neither. But as they had all year, the Cards fought and clawed, nearly overcoming a 17-point early deficit to claim victory. After tying the game twice in the final 3:20, a Niners FG as time expired gave them a 23-20 win and the #5 seed. Carson Palmer threw for 407 yards and became the first in NFL history with 4,000-yard passing seasons for 3 different teams. Larry Fitzgerald led the way with 6 catches for 113 yards.

San Fran led 17-0 after one quarter. Phil Dawson's 27-yard FG opened the scoring and on the 2nd play of the ensuing drive, Palmer's pass to Michael Floyd was INT'd by LB NaVorro Bowman at the AZ22. Five plays later on 3rd-n-goal from the 4, Kaepernick hit WR Anquan Boldin for a TD that put SF up 10-0. On the next drive AZ converted a key 4th-n-1 from the SF44 and advanced to 19 but Jay Feely's 27-yard FG was no good. Boldin then hurt the Cards again with a 63-yard catch-n-run to the 3 that led to a Vernon Davis TD that made it 17-0. The defense then clamped down, especially vs. the run as it limited the 49ers to 83 yards on 23 runs; all-pro Frank Gore was contained to 14 yards on 13 attempts. Late in the 2nd quarter, the Cards launched their best drive to that point when they moved deep into 49er territory thanks largely to a 49-yard Fitzgerald completion to the SF23. On 4th-n-goal at the 1, Palmer faked to Rashard Mendenhall and found TE Jake Ballard alone in the end zone for a TD. Right before the half, San Fran threatened again but Dawson's 24-yard try was no good.

A Mendenhall fumble on the Arizona's opening drive of the 3rd quarter turned it over at the AZ37. SF faced a 4th-n-1 at the AZ16 but the Cards stuffed them for no gain. After no points were scored in the 3rd quarter, Feely's 49-yard FG :13 into the 4th made it 17-10. The Cards has a chance to further reduce the deficit on the next drive but Feely missed from 43. With 3:30 to play and AZ still trailing by 7, they faced a 3rd-n-13 at the SF 34. Palmer lofted it down the left sideline and Andre Roberts came down with it in the end zone to tie the game at 17. The Niners struck right back moving 41 yards into position for a 56-yard Dawson FG that made it 20-17 with 1:45 to go. The Cards wouldn't go away. Two Palmer passes to Rob Housler covered 25 yards and a 23-yarder to Fitzgerald set-up Feely's 43-yard FG that tied it again with :29 left. A 45-yard kickoff return and a pair of quick passes moved SF 42 yards and Dawson's 40-yarder won it as time expired.

NFC WILD CARD GAME

CARDINALS 30, COWBOYS 7

JANUARY 2, 1999
TEXAS STADIUM – (62,969)

Arizona's finest defensive performance of the season rewarded the Cardinals with their first postseason victory in 51 years (28-21 vs. Philadelphia in 1947 NFL Championship game) in their first postseason appearance in 23 years (1975) that came in a non-strike season. The Cardinals defeat the Dallas Cowboys 20-7 at Dallas Stadium, ending not only their playoff drought but their nine-game losing streak on the Cowboys home turf. It was just the second victory over Dallas in the last 17 meetings between the two teams. It was the first home-field loss for the Cowboys since 1983.

The Cardinals defense produced three interceptions, 15 passes defensed (six by rookie cornerback Corey Chavous), four sacks, four tackles for a loss, and allowed QB Troy Aikman to complete just 22-of-49 passes for 191 yards. Arizona's defense held the Cowboys offense to just 260 total yards on the day. Outside linebacker Jamir Miller led the defense with 15 total tackles and two sacks while defensive end Andre Wadsworth also collected a pair of sacks. Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams grabbed two INTs and safety Tommy Bennett recorded one.

It was the defense that turned the tide of the game early. After Arizona jumped up to a 7-0 lead, the Cowboys were poised to tie the game, facing a fourth-and-one situation at Arizona's seven-yard line midway through the second quarter. Cardinals LB Mark Maddox dropped Dallas RB Emmitt Smith for a one-yard loss on the play and Arizona added a 37-yard Chris Jacke FG later in the quarter to give the Cards a 10-0 lead heading into halftime.

RB Adrian Murrell raced 74 yards to the Cowboys three-yard line on the second play of the third quarter, followed by a 3-yard TD pass from Jake Plummer to Larry Centers that gave the Cardinals a 17-0 lead that was never threatened. Another Jacke field goal from 46 yards out capped the scoring for the Cardinals in the fourth quarter. The Arizona defense's shutout bid ended with 3:33 remaining on a six-yard TD pass from Aikman to WR Billy Davis.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CARDINALS 21, VIKINGS 41

JANUARY 10, 1999
METRODOME – (63,760)

Arizona's playoff run ended in Minnesota with a 41-21 loss to the high-scoring Vikings who turned three Cardinals turnovers into 17 points.

After the Vikings drove 80 yards in 13 plays in their opening possession to take a 7-0 lead on RB LeRoy Hoard's first rushing TD, interceptions of QB Jake Plummer on the first two possessions of the second quarter quickly turned into 10 points for a 17-0 Vikings advantage by the time the Cardinals had run five offensive plays. Minnesota, fielding the highest scoring offense in NFL history up to that point, registered 416 total net yards (228 passing, 188 rushing), cracking the 400-yard plateau for the ninth time and the 40-point mark for the fifth time. The Vikings also converted eight-of-11 third-down plays.

RBs Hoard and Robert Smith caused the most damage, with the former tallying three TD while the latter accounted for 124 rushing yards. Record setting rookie WR Randy Moss posted the other Minnesota TD. Vikings safety Robert Griffith recorded both INTs for the Vikings. Cardinals Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams gave the Cardinals, trailing 7-0, early life with an end zone INT and 47-yard return on the first play of the second quarter to thwart a Minnesota drive that reached Arizona's seven-yard line.

Short yardage back Mario Bates scored all three Arizona TDs on one-yard runs to set the team postseason single-game rushing TDs record. Arizona held Minnesota sackless for the second consecutive postseason game and for the third time in four weeks. The Cards were flagged for a season-high 13 penalties. RB Adrian Murrell contributed 15 rushes for 62 yards and three receptions for 52 yards. The Cardinals finished the season with 10 wins for the first time since 1976 (10-4).

NFC WILD CARD GAME

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (62,848)

Playing their first postseason contest in a decade and first home playoff game since 1947, the Cardinals took on 11-5 Atlanta. The high-powered Falcons entered the game with the league's #2 rusher (RB Michael Turner) and the Offensive Rookie of the Year (QB Matt Ryan). But the Cards defense was sensational, bottling up Turner (42 rushing yards and 2.3 yards/carry were both season lows), harassing Ryan (2 INTs, 1 fumble and 3 sacks), and scoring points on its own with a TD and safety. The offense was also strong as Edgerrin James led a revitalized ground game while Kurt Warner and Larry Fitzgerald made big plays in the passing game. It all added up to a 6-point Arizona win before a raucous sellout crowd.

On the Cards first scoring drive, it was 3 James runs that perfectly set-up a flea-flicker. James took the hand-off, then flipped it back to Warner who fired 42 yards downfield to Fitzgerald who leapt between two defenders to come down with the ball in the end zone. Early in the 2nd, Atlanta got on the board with a 30-yard Jason Elam FG but the Cards answered quickly. On 3rd-n-9, Warner tossed a short pass to Anquan Boldin who turned upfield and raced 71 yards down the left sideline for the TD. The Falcons would come back. Turner's 7-yard TD run with 2:55 left in the 1st half capped a 14-play, 77-yard drive. On the 3rd play of the next drive, Warner's pass went off the hands of Jerheme Urban and was INT'd by Chevis Jackson at the AZ23, setting up a Ryan TD pass to TE Justin Peelle that made it 17-14 Atlanta at the half.

On the 2nd snap after intermission, DT Darnell Dockett made the game's pivotal play when he blew up a hand-off between Ryan and Turner. FS Antrel Rolle picked the ball out of the air and returned it 27 yards for the go-ahead TD. After the next two Atlanta drives went 3-n-out, the Cards took over at their own 24 with 10:31 to go in the 3rd. Through a mix of run & pass, including a 6-yard Warner scramble on 3rd-n-5, the Cards chewed 7:43 off the clock on a long drive that ended with Tim Hightower's 4-yard TD run. Rookie CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie ended the next series with a pick off Ryan. That drive ended with a Ben Graham punt that was downed at the ATL3 and on the next play, Antonio Smith sacked Ryan in the end zone for a safety. The Falcons scored on a 5-yard Roddy White TD pass from Ryan with 4:19 to go to trim it to 6 and AZ then took over at its own 20 with 4:19 to go. Two first downs forced Atlanta to burn all 3 timeouts. Then facing a 3rd-n-16 at the ATL46 with 2:17 left, Warner hit TE Stephen Spach with a 23-yard pass that effectively ended the game.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM – (73,695)

In a Divisional Playoff match-up at Carolina, all the numbers were stacked against the Cards. They were 0-5 on the east coast in '08 and were facing the only NFL team that went 8-0 at home. Even before it was known that Pro Bowl WR Anquan Boldin would miss the game with a hamstring injury, few if any gave the Cards a chance against #2 seed Carolina. But when Saturday evening came and the game was played, it was all Arizona. The Panthers produced TDs on their first drive of the game and their last but in between the Cards scored 33 unanswered points. The defense forced 6 Jake Delhomme turnovers (5 INTs and a fumble) and the Cards got 23 of their 33 points off them. WR Larry Fitzgerald was again spectacular, finishing with a team playoff record 166 yards on 8 catches with a TD while the Cards held his Panther all-pro counterpart Steve Smith without a catch until the final minute of the third.

The Panthers took the opening kickoff to midfield and a 31-yard DeAngelo Williams run took it to the 9 before Jonathan Stewart punched it in. Later in the quarter, Fitzgerald's catch-n-run gained 41 on 3rd-n-2 and that led to a 3-yard Tim Hightower TD catch from Kurt Warner that tied it at 7. On the next play from scrimmage, DE Antonio Smith stripped Delhomme on a sack and recovered the fumble himself at the CAR13. That led to a 4-yard Edgerrin James run and a 14-7 score. The Panthers moved to the AZ15 on the next drive thanks to a 45-yard pass interference call but CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie picked off Delhomme at the goal line. Neil Rackers then extended the lead to 20-7 with FGs on the next two AZ drives. A Gerald Hayes INT halted Carolina's following drive on the first play. It was followed by Fitzgerald's 29-yard catch and pylon dive that made it 27-7 at intermission.

The only points of the 3rd quarter came when Antrel Rolle gathered in a Delhomme pass tipped by Rodgers-Cromartie and WR Steve Smith and returned the INT to the CAR26.That set up Rackers' 33-yard FG that made it 30-7. Arizona then ended the first two Panther drives of the 4th quarter with INT's by Ralph Brown and Rod Hood, respectively. Rackers fourth FG of the game made it 33-7 with 3:10 to go and only an 8-yard TD catch by Smith in the final minute made it 33-13.

NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (70,650)

In a match-up no one foresaw, the Cardinals hosted the Eagles in the NFC Championship Game with the chance to advance to Super Bowl XLIII. Before an electric sell-out crowd, the Cards jumped out to a 24-6 halftime lead thanks to three Kurt Warner TD passes to Larry Fitzgerald against an Eagles defense that had not allowed a passing TD in 5 games. Philly then scored 19 unanswered points in the late 3rd and early 4th to take a 25-24 lead. The Cards, however, responded with a drive no one will soon forget. It was a 14-play, 72-yard masterpiece that chewed 7:52 off the clock and ended with Warner's game-winning TD pass to RB Tim Hightower. The TD stamped the Cardinals ticket to the Super Bowl that was made possible by another stellar outing from Fitzgerald. The all-pro WR topped 100 yards for the 5th straight game and tied the NFL record with 3 straight in the postseason with a 9-catch, 152-yard, 3-TD performance.

On the game's opening drive, the Cards moved 80 yards in 9 plays and opened the scoring with a 9-yard Warner-Fitzgerald TD connection. Philly came right back with a 45-yard David Akers FG but he missed a 47-yarder on the following drive. That gave Arizona the ball at its own 38 and on the first play the lead grew to 14-3. Warner handed off to J.J. Arrington who ran right, threw it back to Warner who then tossed it deep to Fitzgerald who hauled it in for a 62-yard TD. After another Akers FG, Warner then capped a 73-yard drive with a 1-yard pass to Fitzgerald that made it 21-6 with 3:06 in the 2nd. AZ successful executed a surprise pooch kick and recovery but the officials inadvertently misruled the ball dead. After a Philly punt, the Cards got the ball back at their own 16 with 1:31 to go and moved into position for a 49-yard Neil Rackers FG.

The Eagles cut the lead to 24-19 in the 3rd when consecutive drives ended with Donovan McNabb TD passes to TE Brent Celek (6 and 31 yards). With 10:45 to go, McNabb's deep pass deflected off the hands of CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie and into the hands of WR DeSean Jackson for a 62-yard TD that put Philly up 1 when the 2-point try failed. After the score, the Cards took over at their own 28 with 10:39 to go. Six plays into the drive they faced a pivotal 4th-n-inches decision near midfield. Hightower ran right for 6 yards to pick it up and later put it across the goal-line 8 plays later on a TD catch-n-run on 3rd-n-goal from the 8. Warner on the drive was 5-5 for 56 yards including the game-winning TD pass. He then tossed a 2-point conversion to Ben Patrick to make it 32-25. Philly's ensuing drive reached the AZ47 but on 4th-n-10 from there McNabb's pass fell incomplete and the game was over.

SUPER BOWL XLIII

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM – (70,774)

Making their first-ever Super Bowl appearance, the Cardinals battled back from a 20-7 4th quarter deficit against the Steelers and took a 23-20 lead with 2:37 remaining. However, Pittsburgh responded with a game-winning drive and earned their 6th title thanks to a TD with 0:35 on the clock. After catching just one pass thru 3 quarters, WR Larry Fitzgerald finished with 7 grabs for 127 yards and 2 TDs. It allowed him to shatter the NFL postseason records and establish new marks with 30 catches, 456 yards, and 7 receiving TDs.

After Arizona won the opening toss and chose to defer, Pittsburgh marched downfield and Ben Roethlisberger appeared to score a 1-yard TD on a 3rd down scramble. However, when the Cards successfully challenged the spot, the Steelers came away with just a FG. After a holding penalty killed the ensuing AZ drive, the Steelers went 79 yards in 11 plays and took a 10-0 lead on a 1-yard Gary Russell run. On the next series a 45-yard catch-and-run by WR Anquan Boldin took it to the 1 and Warner hit TE Ben Patrick with a TD pass from there. The teams then traded punts but just before the 2:00 warning, Roethlisberger's pass was tipped at the line by DT Bryan Robinson and INT'd at the Steeler 34 by LB Karlos Dansby. With 0:18 left the Cards had advanced to the 1 and used their final timeout. What followed was the game's pivotal play. Warner's quick slant to Boldin was picked at the goal-line by LB James Harrison, who rumbled 100 yards down the right sideline as the half expired. After replay confirmation, the dramatic turn of events had put Pittsburgh up 17-7.

Arizona's opening drive of the 2nd half appeared to end on a Warner fumble but another AZ challenge again reversed the initial call and the drive instead ended on a punt. Pittsburgh then consumed most of the 3rd quarter with a long drive that was aided by several flags from referee Terry McAulay's crew. The 16-play drive ultimately ended in a FG that made it 20-7. With 11:30 to go, the Cards took over at their own 13 and went to the no huddle. The drive consisted entirely of 8 Warner completions for 87 yards and ended on a 1-yard Fitzgerald TD grab. After again trading punts, the Steelers took over at their own 1 and on the 2nd play, a holding call in the end zone resulted in a safety that trimmed the Pittsburgh lead to 20-16. Following the free kick, the Cards took over at their own 36 with 2:53 to go. After an incompletion, Warner hit Fitzgerald at midfield and the WR raced down the middle of the field with the go-ahead TD that covered 64 yards in all. The lead would be short-lived. Pittsburgh took over at its own 22 with 2:30 left and a holding penalty on 1st down backed them up to the 12. Two first downs moved them near midfield and a 40-yard completion to game MVP Santonio Holmes took it to the 6. Two plays later, Holmes came down among 3 defenders and tip-toed the sideline with the winning TD on a play that was upheld by replay. A last-chance Cardinal drive reached the Steeler 44 with 0:15 left but then Warner was ruled to have fumbled before passing and the Steelers recovered. The game ended without McAulay looking at the play.

NFC WILD CARD GAME

CARDINALS 51, PACKERS 45 (OT)

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (61,926)

It was the highest-scoring playoff game in NFL history and certainly among the greatest ever. The Cards and Packers combined for 96 points, 13 touchdowns and over 1,000 total yards. While the offenses were explosive, it was the AZ defense that came up with the game-winning score on the first series of OT when CB Michael Adams sacked Aaron Rodgers; LB Karlos Dansby snatched the ball midair and returned it for a TD. It was one of three huge defensive plays by Dansby. Against the NFL's #2 defense, The Cards jumped out to a 17-0 early lead and led 31-17 early in the 3rd quarter. Green Bay then stormed back behind an inspired effort from Rodgers, tying the game at 38 and again at 45. But while the Packer QB was incredibly good, Arizona's Kurt Warner was even better and cemented his place among the league's greatest postseason passers. He threw for 379 yards and amazingly had more TD passes (5) than incompletions (4). Starting in place of Anquan Boldin (ankle), Steve Breaston had 7 catches for 125 yards and a TD while #3 WR Early Doucet was 6-77-2TDs.

Green Bay entered the game with an NFL-best +24 turnover ratio but the Cards converted two early Packer miscues. On the game's first snap, Dansby deflected a Rodgers pass that Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie INT'd. After Tim Hightower turned it into a TD, Dansby ended the next GB drive with a forced fumble of Donald Driver that Alan Branch recovered. Doucet cashed in on that takeaway with the first of his 2 TD passes that helped the Cards build a 24-10 lead. A Warner-to-Fitzgerald TD on the opening drive of the 2nd half made it 31-10 but the Pack scored quickly with two Rodgers TD passes and a successful on-side kick in between. A 42-yard Beanie Wells run led to another Fitzgerald TD catch but the Pack answered with a Rodgers scoring pass to James Jones that capped 5 straight TD drives to open the 2nd half. After Arizona's only punt of the day, GB tied it at 38 on a 1-yard run by FB John Kuhn early in the 4th. Warner responded with an 80-yard drive and put the Cards back ahead with a TD pass to Breaston. With 1:52 left though the Pack tied it again on Rodgers' 11-yard TD to Spencer Havner. At the end of regulation, Warner marched the Cards into position to win but Neil Rackers was wide left on a 34-yard FG attempt in the closing seconds. GB won the toss and got the ball first in OT. On the first snap, Rodgers had Greg Jennings open down the middle but overthrew him. Shortly thereafter, they had a 3rd-n-6 play at their own 24 when Adams and Dansby combined on the game-winning play.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

JANUARY 16, 2010
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME – (70,149)

Six days after out-dueling the Packers in an explosive Wild Card game, the Cardinals saw their season end in New Orleans against the #1 seeded Saints. RB Tim Hightower raced 70 yards for a TD on the game's first play from scrimmage but after that the Cards faced an uphill battle most of the day. The Saints scored TDs on 5 of their first 6 offensive drives, twice capitalizing on AZ turnovers that gave them short fields. They also took advantage of a depleted Arizona defense that began the game without starting MLB Gerald Hayes (ankle) and in the first quarter lost two more starters – CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie (knee) and FS Antrel Rolle (head).

After Hightower's TD run gave the Cards the early lead, the Saints responded with a 10-play, 70-yard drive that ended with Lydell Hamilton's 1-yard run. On the next snap, Kurt Warner hit Jerheme Urban on a 28-yard pass down the middle but Urban fumbled it over to the Saints at the AZ37. Drew Brees made the Cards pay 4 plays later when he connected with Jeremy Shockey on a 17-yard scoring pass. The next N.O. drive saw the Cards lose Rolle & Rogers-Cromartie and it ended when Reggie Bush reversed field on a 46-yard TD run that made it 21-7. Arizona then made it a one-score game when Warner led a 9-play, 80-yard drive and Beanie Wells scored from 4 yards out. However, the Saints kept their foot on the accelerator. One play after a 26-yard completion to Marques Colston, Brees connected on a 44-yard flea-flicker to Devery Henderson that made it 28-14. On the 2nd play of the ensuing AZ drive, Warner was INT'd by DE Will Smith at the line of scrimmage and then leveled on the return by a clean block from DE Bobby McCray. When Warner headed to the locker room to have his chest examined, Matt Leinart led the Cards into position for a FG but Neil Rackers missed from 51 yards out as the first half expired.

Warner returned to start the 2nd half but the Cards were never able to cut into the Saints lead. A 43-yard Garrett Hartley FG made it 38-14 and later in the 3rd, Bush's 83-yard punt return TD provided the final dagger.

HISTORY

FRANCHISE HISTORY

The Cardinals were founded in 1898 and in 1920 became a charter member of the National Football League, then known as the American Professional Football Association. The club holds the distinction of being the United States' oldest professional football franchise still in existence.

THE EARLY DAYS

The team boasts a colorful history. Fans have known the club as the Arizona Cardinals, Phoenix Cardinals, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals, Racine Cardinals, the Normals, and the Morgan Athletic Club.

The franchise began as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's South Side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien bought used jerseys from the nearby University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born.

Early owner Chris O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time following World War I.

The jersey color and the location of the field (61st and Racine) led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur, but opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team disbanded.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations again in 1918. Following Armistice Day that officially ended World War I in November of 1918, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football landscape in America.

The Cardinals and Chicago Bears are the only two of the 11 charter members of the NFL still in existence. The Bears were originally based in Decatur, IL and known as the Decatur Staleys (after their sponsor, the Staley Starch Company). The team moved to Chicago in 1921 and was known as the Chicago Staleys for a year before becoming the Chicago Bears in 1922.

The colorful history of the Cardinals, a charter member of the National Football League and the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation, began humbly in 1898 as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football as the Morgan Athletic Club in Chicago's South Side.

POST WORLD WAR I

Shortly after the Cardinals joined the American Professional Football League in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee, O'Brien lured great halfback John "Paddy" Driscoll to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football. He would coach the team from 1921–22.

One of Driscoll's young running backs was Ralph Horween, a former star at Harvard, who played under the assumed name of B. McMahon. A Cardinal from 1921–22, Horween scored two rushing touchdowns during his three-year career in the days of leather helmets without face masks, numberless sweater jerseys, and $40 paychecks.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wisconsin joined the NFL, prompting the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The same year the Cardinals also moved into their new home in Comiskey Park, which they would share with baseball's White Sox for 37 years.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925 by virtue of the league's best record (the NFL did not begin postseason play until 1933).

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed legendary running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored an NFL-record 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40–6 victory over the cross-town Chicago Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16–14–3 combined record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and in 1932, the franchise began a continuous period of family ownership that continues to this day.

The team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field and the Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals lost their top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Billy Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—to military service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh, failing to win an outing in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946.

Cardinal owner Charles W. Bidwill, Sr. is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

THE 1947 CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

The 1947 Cardinals captured the Western Division title and took the NFL championship in a season that was bittersweet for the organization. Owner Charles Bidwill had been the club's leader since taking over as owner in 1933 and helped shepherd the NFL through "The Great Depression." However his death in April of '47, deprived him of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years.

Still, Bidwill earned credit for fitting the final crucial piece into place to complete the Cardinals' famed "Million-Dollar Backfield." It was his unprecedented signing of University of Georgia All-America running back Charley Trippi, for the then-unheard of sum of $100,000 that finally put the Cardinals over the top.

Several key Cardinals were already in place for the championship run. In 1945, the organization drafted Paul Christman, a talented passer from Missouri, before adding Wisconsin fullback Pat Harder, Elmer Angsman of Notre Dame, and end/defensive back Mal Kutner from Texas in '46. Another great end, Bill Dewell, had returned from military service for the '45 season. The staple of Conzelman's ensemble was a relic from the late '30s, versatile Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg, an intuitive defensive back who was the first real free safety in pro football and the "dean" of the "Million-Dollar Backfield." Also a running back, Goldberg had enjoyed many productive days offensively, too, but they were mostly behind him when Conzelman began his second reign as the Cards' head man in '46.

Chicago started quickly in 1947 by winning its first three outings, including a 31–7 trouncing of the hated cross-town rival Bears. In week four, the Cardinals headed to Los Angeles to face the Rams. There they incurred their first loss of the season, 27–7 and afterwards tragically lost rookie punter Jeff Burkett. He missed the game as well as the flight back to Chicago because of an emergency appendectomy. After several days recuperating, the United Airlines DC-6 taking him home crashed in Bryce Canyon, Utah, killing the young star who was the NFL's leading punter at the time of the tragedy.

Under that pall, the Cardinals climbed to 7–3 but were in the throes of a two-game losing streak heading to Philadelphia on December 7 for a critical game against the Eagles. Trailing 7–3 at the half, Chicago exploded for six second-half touchdowns, including two by Trippi, and held the powerful Steve Van Buren to just 44 yards rushing to grab a crucial 45–21 road win.

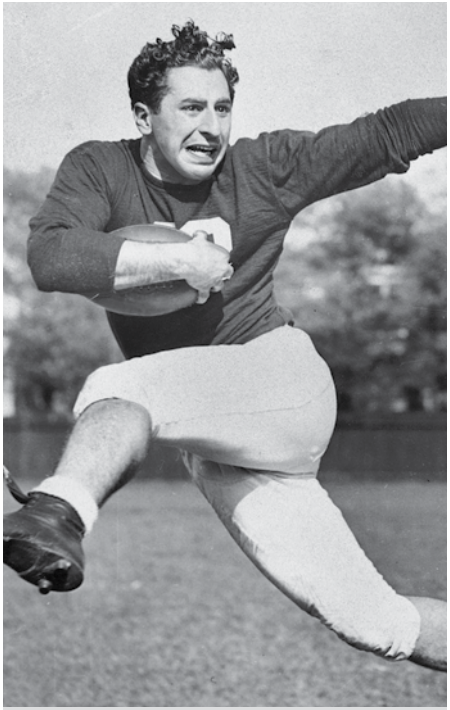
The victory deadlocked the Cards with the Bears, who stood as the only remaining obstacle between the Cardinals and their first Western Division crown. A showdown loomed for the regular season finale the following Sunday at hostile Wrigley Field on Chicago's North Side.

The biggest play of the game came on the first snap. Conzelman designed a pass play that would isolate Bears' linebacker Mike Holovak one-on-one with speedster Boris "Babe" Dimancheff. Because his wife was expecting, Dimancheff missed the entire week of practice and did not rejoin the team until the day before the game. Despite never running it in advance, the play worked to perfection as Dimancheff raced down the center of the field and caught Christman's perfect pass in stride for a TD. The Cardinals also intercepted four passes off legendary Bear quarterback Sid Luckman, converting two into touchdowns en route to a 30–21 win. The Western Division crown now in hand, the Cardinals prepared to play host to the league championship game a fortnight later (12/28/47) against Eastern Division powerhouse Philadelphia.

At a bitterly cold Comiskey Park, pre-kickoff controversy raged when it was discovered the Eagles attempted to get better gripping on the concrete-like playing surface by sharpening and filing their cleats. A succession of penalties opened the game, infuriating Philadelphia Head Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale. Meanwhile the Cardinals quietly had slipped into tennis shoes for the frigid affair.

The game was defined by Chicago's quick-openers, producing three long scoring runs from scrimmage—two 70-yarders by Angsman and a 44-yarder by Trippi. In the third quarter, Trippi

The 1947 Cardinals won the NFL Championship with a 10-3 overall record. They defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 28-21 at Chicago's Comiskey Park in the NFL's 15th title contest.



Marshall Goldberg sealed the 1947 championship game victory with a fourth quarter interception.

circled under a high Joe Muha punt, taking it on his own 25-yard line before racing 75 yards for a touchdown, getting hit three times along the way. Angsman's thrilling fourth-quarter duplication of his second-period 70-yard touchdown strike enabled him to break the NFL championship game record for rushing yards with 159. But Philadelphia fought evenly throughout with one-eyed quarterback Tommy Thompson setting two playoff records on 27-of-44 passing for 297 yards. The Cardinals' 28–21 victory, however, wasn't secured until Goldberg's late-game interception.

ON TO ST. LOUIS

Following her husband's passing in April of 1947, Violet Bidwill assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship and appearance in the 1948 NFL championship game, a 7–0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, team control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first division title to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC Eastern Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10–4 regular season record. The Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30–14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948. Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis a division crown but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35-23, ended the Cards' postseason dream in their first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41–16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC Eastern Division title—with a 9–7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5–11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboy assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

ARIZONA

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home.

Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7–4 record and a share of the NFC Eastern Division lead. But untimely injuries struck and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first postseason berth since 1982.

The Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in the Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records (since broken) in the team's first autumn in Arizona. All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The record-setting inaugural season attendance total was eclipsed in 1994 when 497,330 fans, or 62,166 per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles. All of those attendance marks, however, have been eclipsed since the team moved into University of Phoenix Stadium.

On March 17, 1994, Bidwill announced his intention to change the name of the team to the Arizona Cardinals and it was adopted unanimously by vote of NFL owners the following week.

The 1995 season marked another milestone when the Cardinals served as host team for Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996.

The 1998 Arizona squad ended the franchise's 15-year playoff drought. Under head coach Vince Tobin and led by former ASU quarterback Jake Plummer, the '98 Cardinals earned a Wild Card berth by winning their last three games in dramatic fashion and each by a field goal or less – a 20-17 overtime win at Philadelphia, a 19-17 home win vs. New Orleans, and a playoff-clinching 16-13 home win over San Diego. The final game ended when Chris Jacke nailed a 52-yard field goal as time expired to win the game before a sold-out crowd at Sun Devil Stadium. The next week saw the team notch its first postseason victory since 1947 with a 20–7 win over the Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The thrilling ride ended with a 41-21 loss at Minnesota in the divisional playoffs the next week.

The 2000 season proved pivotal to the Cardinals' franchise. On Election Day, November 7, 2000, voters in Maricopa County passed Proposition 302, the Tourism and Sports Initiative, to help fund a new stadium for the Cardinals, Fiesta Bowl, and future Super Bowls, in addition to providing revenue for Cactus League spring training baseball, tourism, and youth recreation. The 454,785 "yes" votes spelled a plurality of 33,123 votes (51.89 percent).

The attention of the sports world and beyond turned to Arizona safety Pat Tillman in 2002 when he quietly and nobly walked away from a lucrative career in pro football to enlist in the Army. Moved to action by the events of 9/11, Tillman joined the elite Army Rangers and in April of 2004 was killed while serving in Afghanistan. His jersey number 40 became the fifth in team history to be retired.

In 2005, the Cardinals made NFL history by participating in the NFL's first-ever regular season game played outside the United States. On October 2nd, the Cards defeated the 49ers 31-14 before a record crowd of 103,467 in Mexico City's Estadio Azteca, the largest crowd ever to see an NFL regular season game.

The 2006 season marked the team's first at University of Phoenix Stadium, recognized by BusinessWeek as one of the 10 most impressive sports facilities in the world. Since then, the Cardinals have sold out all 83 games played in eight seasons at the stadium, with the franchise surpassing the five million mark in total attendance during the 2013 season. After posting a 6-2 home record in '13, the Cardinals have posted a .500 record or better at home for seven consecutive seasons. Arizona has accumulated a 42-25 record at home, including postseason, since University of Phoenix Stadium opened in '06.

The world class venue hosted its first Super Bowl on February 3, 2008 between the New York Giants and New England Patriots. Following the upcoming season, the eyes of the sporting world will again be focused on University of Phoenix Stadium, as both the Pro Bowl and Super Bowl XLIX will be played there.

The 2008 Cardinals turned in perhaps the most memorable season in franchise history, one that ended with the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance. Arizona qualified for the postseason by clinching its first division title since 1975 and first-ever NFC West crown. After hosting their first playoff game since 1947 and defeating the Atlanta Falcons 30-24 in the Wild Card round, the Cardinals went on to earn a berth in the Super Bowl with a stunning 33-13 road win over the heavily favored Carolina Panthers in the Divisional round and a thrilling 32-25 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFC title game. Before what was then the largest audience in US television history, the Cardinals fell to the Steelers 27-23 in Super Bowl XLIII. Down 20-7 entering the fourth quarter, Arizona made the biggest comeback in Super Bowl history, with a 64-yard TD pass from Kurt Warner to Larry Fitzgerald giving the Cards a 23-20 lead with under 3:00 remaining. Pittsburgh responded with a 78-yard drive that ended with Santonio Holmes' tip-toe TD reception and the game's deciding score in one of the most exciting Super Bowls ever played.

The Cardinals made their first-ever Super Bowl appearance when they met the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLIII.

NOTES

Injuries decimate the team as 11 players undergo surgery ... Cards limp to 4–9–1 mark as offense manages just 193 points, fewest since 1954 (183) ... defense is particularly hobbled by injuries, allowing team-record 389 points that will stand for 15 seasons ... safety Larry Wilson sets team mark with 88-yard fumble return for a touchdown at Green Bay Dec. 21 that stands until 2000 ... Cards and Saints combine for NFL-record 12 touchdown passes in 51–42 New Orleans victory in Busch Stadium Nov. 2 ... the combined 93 points is just 10 shy of the all-time NFL combined single-game scoring mark as quarterbacks Charley Johnson (Cardinals) and Billy Kilmer (Saints) each toss six touchdown passes to set Cards individual and opponent marks.

NOTES

Former San Diego State University Head Coach Don Coryell, with his fiery disposition and innovative offensive schemes, is named head coach ... he hires Joe Gibbs as running backs coach and Jim Hanifan as offensive line coach ... running back Terry Metcalf is drafted in third round ... Jim Hart is named starting quarterback ... despite 4–9–1 record, Card offense improves dramatically, boosting point output from 193 in 1972 to 286, and gains nearly 800 more total yards ... Cards complete only two of 10 passes at Atlanta Dec. 9 for single-game franchise low of nine yards as Jim Bakken kicks six field goals in 32–10 win.

NOTES

Led by Pro Bowl offensive linemen Dan Dierdorf, Conrad Dobler, and Tom Banks, Cards win a second consecutive NFC Eastern Division title with an 11–3 mark, a franchise best since an 11–1 record by the 1948 team … fullback Jim Otis leads the NFC in rushing with 1,076 yards, running back/kick returner Terry Metcalf—a consensus NFL most valuable player—sets league record with 2,462 combined yards, and quarterback Jim Hart performs behind an offensive line that ties an NFL record by allowing just eight quarterback sacks … wide receiver Mel Gray catches controversial touchdown pass from Hart with 25 seconds left in regulation, known as the "Phantom Catch," to send game into overtime as Cards win 20–17 over Washington … Cards travel to Los Angeles to face Rams in playoff contest and lose 35–23 after trailing 28–9 at halftime … seven offensive players go to the Pro Bowl (Dierdorf, Dobler, Banks, Hart, Metcalf, Gray, and Otis).

NOTES

Despite 10–4 record (6–1 at home), Cards lose tie-breaker with Washington and fail to qualify for playoffs … Cards defeat N.Y. Giants to stay alive in playoff race, needing the division-leading Cowboys to defeat Washington at Dallas later that day … but the Redskins win 27–14 and Cards became first team in seven-year history of the NFC to go 10–4 and not gain a post-season berth … eight Card victories by seven points or less earn "Cardiac Cards" moniker … Cardinals and Chargers play preseason game in Tokyo, Japan, the first NFL game played outside North America … Cards set NFL record with eight lost fumbles at Washington Oct. 25.

NOTES

The 1981 draft class includes Alabama LB E.J. Junior (first round), Portland State QB Neil Lomax (second round), and Citadel RB Stump Mitchell (ninth round), a trio that would combine for 26 seasons with the Cards ... all three earn consensus NFL all-rookie team notice ... Lomax named starter for final six games as Cards win four consecutive times to finish 7–9 ... return specialist Mitchell breaks or ties eight club marks and equals two NFL records ... Roy Green doubles as defensive back and wide receiver as the league's first authentic two-way player in more than two decades.

*Top NFC playoff seed

As the result of a 57-day players' strike, the 1982 NFL regular-season schedule was reduced from 16 weeks to nine. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team postseason Super Bowl Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1–8 based upon their records during the season.

NOTES

The Cards, with the NFC Eastern Division title on line to the winner, travel to R.F.K. Stadium and battle back from a 23–7 half-time deficit to take a 27–26 lead midway through fourth quarter, but a 50-yard field-goal try sails wide as time expires and Redskins escape with a 29–27 win and the division crown … in the torrid comeback at Washington, QB Neil Lomax connects on 25 of 28 passes for 314 yards in the second half … Cards finish 9–7 with seven losses by an average of just over six points … Lomax sets club single-season marks with 345 pass completions in 560 attempts for 4,614 yards (fifth highest in NFL history), 28 touchdowns, and 92.5 quarterback rating … WR Roy Green's 1,555 receiving yards is most by NFL player in 19 seasons as he averages 45.3 yards per touchdown reception.

NOTES

Though a 3–1 start looks promising, the Cards win only two of their final 12 contests to finish 5–11, spelling the end of Jim Hanifan's six-year (1980–85) tenure as head coach … with former all-pro RB Ottis Anderson injured, RB Stump Mitchell averages 96.9 yards rushing in final nine games en route to 1,006 yards and a 5.5-yard average per carry despite starting just eight contests … QB Neil Lomax is sacked NFC-high 61 times … Yugoslavian K Novo Bojovic, signed by the Cards during mid-season, kicks a 40-yard field goal to give the Cards a 3–0 first-quarter lead Nov. 24 vs. N.Y. Giants, chases down the football, spikes it in the end zone, then watches with teammates as Giants score 34 unanswered points in 34–3 defeat at the Meadowlands.

NOTES

Long-time Dallas assistant Gene Stallings named Cards' head coach ... injury-riddled squad manages 4–11–1 mark ... rookie 10th-round pick and RB Vai Sikahema (return specialist) and FB Ron Wolfley (special teams) voted to Pro Bowl ... Sikahema ties NFL record with two punt returns for touchdowns (71 and 60 yards) vs. Tampa Bay Dec. 21 ... WR J.T. Smith sets club single-season mark with 80 pass receptions ... just eight weeks removed from back surgery, 49ers quarterback Joe Montana makes spectacular return at Cards' expense, completing 13 of 19 passes for 270 yards and three touchdowns to Jerry Rice in 43–17 win at San Francisco Nov. 9.

NOTES

Encouragement from 4–0 preseason record and 2–0 start to regular season quickly dissipates as Cards drop 12 of next 14 games to finish 4–12, the most losses in franchise history … QB Timm Rosenbach suffers ruptured anterior cruciate ligament in right knee in non-contact drill during evening practice Aug. 21 and misses season after reconstructive surgery … Cards gamble in first round of NFL Draft by selecting DT Eric Swann despite no college playing experience … little-known Southern University walk-on CB Aeneas Williams, picked in third round, starts 15 of 16 games and his six interceptions share NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve the feat since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1991 … LB Eric Hill returns a fumble 85 yards for a touchdown in season-opener at L.A. Rams Sept. 1, one of a team-record five Card fumble recoveries.

NOTES

Despite considerable improvement on both offense and defense, Cards lose six games by six points or less to post a second consecutive 4–12 season … defense allows fewest rushing yards (1,635) in 24 seasons (1,558, 1968) and fewest points (332) since 1978 (296) … CB Robert Massey becomes 17th player in NFL history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in one game (31 and 41 yards in fourth quarter Oct. 4 vs. Washington) … Pro Bowl P Rich Camarillo narrowly misses becoming the first player in NFL history to achieve a 40-yard net punting average with a 39.6-yard net mark.

NOTES

A 5–3 record and three consecutive victories to finish season 7–9 are not enough to save Head Coach Joe Bugel's job … rushing offense improves from 26th (1992) to sixth overall and scoring jumps from 24th to fourth … defensively, six opponents held to 10 points or less, a Cardinal first since 1936 … first-round draft pick RB Garrison Hearst suffers season-ending knee injury in sixth game … Pittsburg (Kan.) State rookie RB Ronald Moore rushes for 1,018 yards and leads all NFL rookies with nine touchdowns … Moore becomes only fifth rookie in NFL history to tally four rushing touchdowns in one game (vs. L.A. Rams, Dec. 5) … franchise-record crowd of 73,025 sees Cards lose 17–10 to Dallas on Sept. 19 … Cards snap 14-game losing streak at R.F.K. Stadium with a 17–10 victory Sept. 12, their first success at Washington since 1978.

NOTES

Cards lose seven of final eight games to drop to 4–12, costing Head Coach Buddy Ryan his job … defense ranks last against the run and in scoring defense despite league highs of 42 takeaways and 23 fumble recoveries … Arizona's offense leads NFL with 43 turnovers (24 interceptions, 19 lost fumbles) … low light of season at expansion Carolina Nov. 19 as Cards gain just 96 total yards, their lowest output in 40 years … FB Larry Centers earns first Pro Bowl honor as first running back in league history to eclipse 100-pass reception plateau with 101 catches, a franchise record … Garrison Hearst owns dubious distinction of becoming first running back in NFL history to score only one rushing touchdown during a 1,000-yard (1,070) season.

NOTES

Improvement from 4–12 to 7–9 record, underscored by an offense that jumps from 24th to 12th and a defense from 26th to 21st, highlight Vince Tobin's first season as head coach … RB LeShon Johnson bursts for runs of 56 and 70 yards Sept. 22 at New Orleans—believed to be the longest touchdown runs on consecutive carries in NFL history—en route to franchise single-game rushing mark of 214 yards … QB Boomer Esiason passes for 522 yards (third most in league history) in 37–34 overtime win at R.F.K. Stadium against Redskins on Nov. 10 … 0–8 N.Y. Jets secure the only victory of their 1–15 season with 31–21 win at Arizona Oct. 27 … first-round draft pick, Illinois DE Simeon Rice, sets Cardinal mark and equals then league rookie record with 12.5 quarterback sacks.

NOTES

Second-round draft choice Anquan Boldin becomes most prolific rookie receiver in NFL history with 101 receptions, while his 1,377 receiving yards most by NFL rookie in 43 years ... 217 receiving yards in season opener at Detroit most by player in first NFL game ... Emmitt Smith, the NFL's all-time rushing leader, signs two-year contract with Cardinals but a shoulder injury limits him to just six starting roles ... Super Bowl MVP Dexter Jackson lured from Tampa Bay as free agent and leads team with six interceptions ... Cards forge 4–4 mark at home, but 0–8 road record results in 4–12 finish and dismissal of third-year Head Coach Dave McGinnis ... Josh McCown handed quarterback duties late in season and guides Arizona to 18–17 victory in season finale vs. Minnesota with 28-yard touchdown pass to Nate Poole, knocking Vikings out of playoffs ... construction begins on new stadium in Glendale in west suburban Maricopa County.

NOTES

Team's first season under head coach Dennis Green was one of transition but also promise and opportunity…team entered week 16 of the regular season with a playoff berth and division title in reach before a three-point road loss at Seattle ended postseason hopes…Cardinals won two games by 24 points (something that they'd not done in over a decade) and also finished 5-3 at home for the first time since last playoff season of 1998…strategic but aggressive approach to free agency yielded several new starters, most notably DE Bertrand Berry who would prove to become the best free agent pick-up in team history by leading the NFC in sacks (14.5) and earning his first career Pro Bowl berth….an outstanding '04 draft class produced four full-time starters in WR Larry Fitzgerald, LB Karlos Dansby, DT Darnell Dockett and C Alex Stepanovich …defense improved its overall rank from 26th at the end of '03 to 12th and didn't allow a touchdown in three games while allowing just one TD in three others…the offense was bitten early by injuries as RB Marcel Shipp suffered a broken leg in training camp that ended his season and all-pro WR Anquan Boldin suffered a training camp knee injury that caused him to miss the regular season's first six games….in his second season in Arizona, Emmitt Smith led the team with 937 rushing yards and 9 rushing TDs…the offense struggled to find consistency and that led to numerous lineup changes throughout the year including three different starting QBs….S Pat Tillman, who left the Cardinals to join U.S. Army and enter Army Ranger training prior to 2002 season, is killed April 22 in Afghanistan.

NOTES

The team's second season under head coach Dennis Green was marked by close games (six losses by a TD or less) and plagued by injuries (NFL-high 15 players on injured reserve list) ... Neil Rackers set the NFL record with 40 field goals in the season en route to a Pro Bowl selection ... WR Larry Fitzgerald set the club record for receptions in a season with 103 and also had a team-high 1,409 yards en route to his first Pro Bowl ... Anquan Boldin also recorded 102 receptions and 1,402 yards ... Boldin and Fitzgerald became only the second pair of teammates in NFL history to record 100+ receptions and 1,400+ yards in a season ...in his first year as a Cardinal, Kurt Warner completed 242 of 375 passes to set the club mark for completion percentage with 64.5% ... FS Adrian Wilson led the team with 8.0 sacks, the most ever by an NFL defensive back since sacks became an official statistic in 1982...Arizona finished with the league's #1 passing offense (first time in team history) and ranked 8th in both overall offense and defense (the only NFL team in the top 10 in both)...the team played in the NFL's first-ever regular season game outside of the U.S. and defeated the 49ers in Mexico City in front of an NFL record crowd of 103,467...2005 was the team's 18th and final season at Sun Devil Stadium.

NOTES

The Cardinals capped 2008 season with a memorable playoff run, winning the NFC Championship game against Philadelphia and playing in Super Bowl XLIII vs. Pittsburgh ... won their first division title since 1975, winning the NFC West with a perfect 6-0 division record and finishing the regular season 9-7 overall ... under second-year head coach Ken Whisenhunt, Cardinals made first playoff appearance since 1998 in Wild Card game vs. Falcons, and earned second road playoff win in franchise history with victory at Carolina ... became first #4 seed to host a conference championship game and first #4 seed to advance to Super Bowl ... Cardinals recorded 12 wins on the season, the most in a single-season in franchise history and they won more playoff games in 2008 (3) than they had in their total playoff history (2) ... finished the regular season with an 8-2 home record and improved record at University of Phoenix Stadium to 14-4 under Whisenhunt ... Kurt Warner sets franchise record with 30 TD passes while also earning his fourth Pro Bowl selection ... Warner also sets team marks for attempts, completions, completion percentage, passer rating and finished second in passing yards ... Larry Fitzgerald earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection and third overall after once again leading the NFC in both receptions (96) and receiving yards (1,431) while also collecting a career high 12 touchdowns ... Fitzgerald set single postseason records for receptions (30), yards (546), and receiving touchdowns (7) while also collecting over 100 receiving yards in all four postseason games ... Anquan Boldin earned his third trip to the Pro Bowl after becoming the first receiver in team history to have four 1,000 yard receiving seasons to go along with a career high 11 TDs ... reached 500 receptions in 80th game, reaching the milestone in fewer games than any other receiver in NFL history ... also set franchise mark with 24 100-yard receiving games ... Tim Hightower's 10 rushing TDs during the regular season set a franchise record for rookie ... Rookie Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie led the team with four INT's during the regular season including tying the franchise record for longest INT return with a 99-yard return for a touchdown against St. Louis... for the third season in a row, the team sold out every home game including both playoff contests.

KURT WARNER GOING INTO RING OF HONOR

During halftime of the 2014 regular season opener vs. the San Diego Chargers on Monday, September 8 at University of Phoenix Stadium, the Cardinals will induct former QB Kurt Warner into the Ring of Honor.

Warner played for the Cardinals from 2005-09, leading the team to back-to-back NFC West titles in 2008 and '09 and the franchise's first-ever Super Bowl appearance in February of 2009. His 65.1 completion percentage and 91.9 passer rating are both franchise career records, as are his 22 career 300-yard passing games and 22 consecutive games with a TD pass. During the team's run to the Super Bowl in 2008, Warner established franchise single-season records for pass attempts (598), completions (401), completion percentage (67.1%), passer rating (96.9) and TD passes (30).

While Warner's on-field accomplishments were significant, they are exceeded by the contributions he makes in communities throughout the country. That includes Arizona where Kurt, his wife, Brenda, and their family continue to make their home and have based their "First Things First" foundation. Warner's philanthropic work has been repeatedly recognized, most notably with his selection as the 2008 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year. Kurt was also named USA TODAY's Most Caring Athlete in 2009, and that same year he was named the player who serves as the best role model on and off the field in a Sports Illustrated poll of NFL players. In 2010 he received Athletes in Action's Bart Starr Award given annually to the NFL player who best exemplifies outstanding character and leadership in the home, on the field and in the community.

Warner becomes the 14th member of the Cardinals Ring of Honor, the creation of which coincided with the opening of University of Phoenix Stadium in 2006. He is the first quarterback in the group whose 13 other members are: Charles W. Bidwill, Sr. (Owner), Jimmy Conzelman (Coach), T Dan Dierdorf, HB John "Paddy" Driscoll, HB/DB Marshall Goldberg, CB Dick "Night Train" Lane, HB Ollie Matson, HB Ernie Nevers, S Pat Tillman, HB Charley Trippi, CB Roger Wehrli, CB Aeneas Williams and S Larry Wilson.

Eleven of the 13 members of the Cardinals Ring of Honor are also enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, an honor for which Warner is eligible starting this year.

AENEAS WILLIAMS SELECTED TO PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Former Cardinals CB Aeneas Williams was among the seven individuals selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2014 on the eve of Super Bowl XLVIII.

Williams joined LB Derrick Brooks, P Ray Guy, DE Claude Humphrey, T Walter Jones, WR Andre Reed and DE Michael Strahan in the 2014 Hall of Fame Class. The Hall of Fame Class of 2014 will be inducted on Saturday, August 2, at the Hall of Fame Enshrinement Ceremony in Canton, OH.

"All of us at the Cardinals are ecstatic for Aeneas who is a true Hall of Famer in every sense of the word," said team President Michael Bidwill. "His play on the field made him one of the NFL's all-time great players but his integrity and character were just as exceptional. Aeneas, Tracy and their family have been an integral part of the Cardinals family and I can't think of a better person to become the first from the team's Arizona era to be enshrined in Canton."

Williams becomes the first "Arizona Cardinal" to reach the Hall and the 12th member of the Cardinals organization ever elected to the Hall of Fame. The others: Charles W. Bidwill, Sr. (Owner, Class of 1967), Jimmy Conzelman (Coach, Class of 1964), T Dan Dierdorf (Class of 1996), HB John "Paddy" Driscoll (Class of 1965), CB Dick "Night Train" Lane (Class of 1974), HB Ollie Matson (Class of 1972), HB Ernie Nevers (Class of 1963), TE Jackie Smith (Class of 1994), HB Charley Trippi (Class of 1968), CB Roger Wehrli (Class of 2007) and S Larry Wilson (Class of 1978).

A third-round selection (59th overall) by the Cardinals in the 1991 NFL Draft out of Southern, Williams played 10 of his 14 seasons in Arizona. While a member of the Cardinals, he started 159 of 160 games played and his 46 interceptions rank second in franchise history. He collected 629 tackles, two sacks and 10 forced fumbles.

As one of the NFL's top all-time cornerbacks, Williams was voted to the Pro Bowl eight times, including six times as a member of the Cardinals (1994-99). He was also named to the NFL Team of the 1990's and was inducted into the Cardinals Ring of Honor in 2008. Williams played his final four NFL seasons with the St. Louis Rams.

He becomes the 17th modern-era cornerback selected to Canton, joining Herb Adderley, Lem Barney, Mel Blount, Willie Brown, Jack Butler, Darrell Green, Mike Haynes, Jimmy Johnson, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Dick LeBeau, Ronnie Lott, Mel Renfro, Deion Sanders, Emmitt Thomas, Roger Wehrli, and Rod Woodson.

SUNDAY FLEXIBLE SCHEDULING FOR THE 2014 REGULAR SEASON

For the first time, flexible scheduling may be applied in Weeks 5-10. During that period, it can be used in no more than two weeks by shifting a Sunday afternoon game into primetime and moving the Sunday night game to an afternoon start time. Also, for the first time, a select number of games are being "cross-flexed," moving between CBS and FOX to bring potentially under-distributed games to wider audiences.

"Flexible scheduling" will be used in Weeks 11-17 as it has been in recent years. In Weeks 11-16, the schedule lists the games tentatively set for Sunday Night Football on NBC. Only Sunday afternoon games are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, in which case the tentatively scheduled Sunday night game would be moved to an afternoon start time. A flexible scheduling move would be announced at least 12 days before the game. For Week 17, the Sunday night game will be announced no later than six days prior. The schedule does not list a Sunday night game in Week 17 but an afternoon game with playoff implications will be moved to that time slot. Flexible scheduling ensures quality matchups in all Sunday time slots in those weeks and gives "surprise" teams a chance to play their way into primetime.

For the Cardinals, this means that every home game after the September 21 contest vs. San Francisco is subject to flexible scheduling.

The Cardinals will post all information regarding game times at www.azcardinals.com. We also recommend you check the team's official Twitter and Facebook accounts, and other media outlets for additional information regarding scheduled game times.

NFL POLICY FOR RETRACTABLE ROOFS

The National Football League's Policy for Retractable Domed Stadiums was developed by the NFL Competition Committee.

The policy dictates that the home team will decide the status of the roof (open or closed) 90 minutes before kickoff. If the game begins with the roof open, it will be closed only if 1) hazardous conditions develop or are anticipated; or 2) it begins to rain.

The roof will not be closed for rain any time after the five-minute mark of the fourth quarter (including overtime). The roof can be closed at any time to address hazardous situations and if the roof is closed, it will not be re-opened.

Below is the excerpt from the 2014 Policy Manual for Member Clubs, Vol. II detailing the league's policy for retractable roofs. At present, University of Phoenix Stadium, Reliant Stadium in Houston, Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis and Cowboys Stadium in Dallas are the only four venues in the NFL with retractable roofs.

GENERAL POLICY

One and one-half hours prior to kickoff, the home team will have the authority to determine if the roof should be open or closed for the game. The home club may choose to open the roof for some games and not for others. In the event a game is started with the roof in the open position and it is closed pursuant to the procedures set forth below, or if the game starts with the roof in the closed position, the roof must thereafter remain in the closed position for the duration of the game.

PRE-GAME PROCEDURES

1) In the week prior to a game and on game day, to preserve and protect the field, the League's tarp rule will be in effect, if the roof is open.
2) No later than one and one-half hours prior to kickoff, the home club is required to notify the Referee or the highest-ranking League official working at the game whether the roof shall be open or closed. The opening or closing of the roof as designated by the home club should be completed no later than the time that the teams take the field for pre-game warm-ups. All overhead lighting must be on prior to team warm-ups and must remain on for the duration of the game.
3) If, subsequent to the home club's decision to have the roof in the open position for the game, a hazardous condition (lightning, severe winds, etc.) develops or is anticipated that threatens the welfare of participants and/or spectators, as determined by the Referee after receiving input from the Stadium Manager and the highest-ranking League official working at the game, the roof shall be closed immediately. If it begins to rain at any time after the club's decision to have the roof in the open position for the game, the roof shall be closed immediately, by signal of the Referee to the Stadium Manager.

IN-GAME PROCEDURES

4) If a game starts with the roof open, it shall be closed at any time due to the development or anticipation of a hazardous condition that threatens the welfare of participants and/or spectators. The game Referee, in consultation with the highest-ranking League official working at the game, after receiving input from the Stadium Manager, will decide if the roof should be closed. If the roof is closed pursuant to the above, it must remain closed for the duration of the game. Play may continue while the roof is being closed, subject to the Referee suspending play pursuant to the procedures for emergency situations.
5) If a game starts with the roof open, it shall be closed at any time up to the last five minutes of the fourth period if it begins to rain. The decision to close the roof will be made by the Referee, who will signal to the Stadium Manager or otherwise communicate to him or her to begin closing the roof. Play will continue while the roof is closing.
6) If the fourth period ends with the roof in the open position, no change will be made prior to or during an overtime period, unless the roof is closed pursuant to the procedures for hazardous conditions as set forth in No. 4 above.

CARDINALS CHARITIES

Founded in 1990, Cardinals Charities mission is to support programs designed to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women, and minorities in Arizona.

Cardinals Charities grants are awarded on an annual basis in response to applications from qualified non-profit organizations whose goals and programs meet the mission statement.

Cardinals Charities also continued its involvement with a wide range of organizations focused on women and children's issues in Arizona. Cardinals Charities supported these programs through grants awarded to the Sojourner Center, Helping Hands for Single Moms, the Ronald McDonald House, Communities in Schools, The Wellness Community and UMOM New Day Centers.

Since its inception, Cardinals Charities has distributed more than $5.3 million to over 350 worthy Arizona charitable organizations on behalf of the Arizona Cardinals Football Club and the National Football League.

In 2013, Cardinals Charities distributed over $870,000 to 155 worthy Arizona charitable organizations. Included in that number were Boys & Girls Clubs across the state, domestic violence shelters, and various educational programs.

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR BENEFICIARIES

- Organizations must be exempt under 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Service code.
- At least 75 percent of funding must be spent in Arizona.
- Grant application will be limited to once each year; however, organizations may reapply each year. Proposals for $5,000 or less are preferred.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Interested organizations must request an application in writing, either by FAX or mail, on their 501 (c) (3) letterhead. Deadline for submission of application is July 1. Grant notification will be made within 120 days following filing deadline.

Cardinals Charities hosts four signature annual events during the course of each year – the Kickoff Luncheon, Celebrity Golf Classic, Kingpin Challenge and Celebrity Golf Challenge.

KICKOFF LUNCHEON

- Entering its 17th consecutive season.
- The Kickoff Luncheon is a chance for fans and business partners to enjoy lunch and meet the entire Cardinals team and coaching staff prior to the start of each season.
- In 2013, 475 attendees attended the luncheon on the field level at University of Phoenix Stadium in a talk-show style event featuring Cardinals players and emceed by team broadcasters Ron Wolfley and Dave Pasch.

KINGPIN CHALLENGE

- Entering 21st consecutive season as a dinner/auction and seventh as the Kingpin Challenge at Chandler's Kyrene Lanes.
- The sixth annual Kingpin Challenge was held at Chandler's Kyrene Lanes in 2013, featuring the entire Cardinals team and coaching staff.
- In 2013, 160 bowlers were grouped with a current Cardinals player or coach for the bowling tournament.

CELEBRITY GOLF CHALLENGE

- Entering its 10th consecutive season after previously being called the NFL Alumni Celebrity Golf Challenge.
- A celebrity golf tournament during the fall partners Cardinals alumni along with local celebrities, fans and business partners.
- In its ninth year in 2013, the Cardinals Celebrity Golf Challenge had 40 NFL alumni paired up with other Valley sports celebrities and 140 other golfers to raise money through Albertsons to benefit Cardon Children's Medical Center.

CELEBRITY GOLF CLASSIC

- Entering 26th consecutive season.
- The longest running Cardinals Charities event, the Golf Classic is held each offseason with participants donating money for the opportunity to play with members of the Cardinals organization.
- Each year, participants play a round of golf with various celebrities and have the opportunity to win various luxury items while also bidding on memorabilia and travel packages through an auction.
- In 2014, the 195 golfers included Cardinals players and alumni along with Arizona's coaches at the Whirlwind Golf Club at Wild Horse Pass.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

The 2013 season marked another successful year for the Arizona Cardinals Football Club and its various community-based activities.

Cardinals players, coaches, cheerleaders, mascot Big Red and front office staff continued the organization's ongoing efforts of being a champion in the community. Throughout the 2013 season, 64 different players, 19 alumni players and 30 members of the women's club took part in 122 different community events and appearances that impacted over 21,000 adults and children throughout Arizona. The Cardinals also donated more than 40,000 pieces of merchandise and memorabilia throughout the past year. During the 2014 offseason, the Cardinals stayed busy by hosting 22 community events involving 25 different current and former players that impacted over 7,500 children and adults.

The Cardinals four signature community programs during the season - the SRP and Safeway Milk and Cookies Program, Gatorade Jr. Training Camps, USA Football's "Heads Up Football" and the NFL Flag Football program – continued last year and will all be back in 2014.

SRP/SAFEWAY MILK AND COOKIES PROGRAM

- Entering its 13th consecutive season.
- Each Tuesday during the season, a different Cardinals player along with team mascot Big Red read to students at various Valley elementary schools and distributed book marks and milk and cookies provided by Safeway.
- Nine players visited 14 different schools and read to over 750 students in 2013.

GATORADE JR. TRAINING CAMPS

- Entering 17th consecutive season. During the 2013 season, the Cardinals put on clinics using Gatorade Jr. Training stations and interactive zones.
- Current and former Cardinals players and Big Red provided football instruction and guidance for students while hosting kids camps at Valley elementary schools and at University of Phoenix Stadium. The players and Big Red helped promote the NFL's Play 60 message to encourage kids to receive 60 minutes of daily exercise.
- 20 players participated in 25 kids camps impacting 2,500 students during the 2013 season.
- During the 2014 offseason, the Cardinals hosted 12 camps for over 1,500 children.

USA FOOTBALL'S "HEADS UP FOOTBALL"

- The Cardinals are entering their second season of involvement with the program.
- "Heads Up Football" is a partnership between NFL teams and USA Football to help promote leagues that stress a smarter and safer way to play and teach youth football, including proper tackling and taking the head out of the game.
- The Cardinals are affiliated with 12 leagues and 77 teams across the state with over 2,400 coaches and over 13,000 participants all currently certified or becoming certified in the program.

NFL FLAG FOOTBALL PROGRAM

- Entering its 12th consecutive season and presented by University of Phoenix and the Mayo Clinic.
- 5-on-5 non-contact flag football league for boys and girls to provide basic fundamentals of football throughout the southwest with teams in Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah and the Imperial Valley of California.

- The program grew from 8,000 participants in 2004 to 12,400 in 2005 to now having over 18,000 players, one of the NFL's largest.
- For the ninth consecutive season, the Cardinals hosted a NFL Flag regional tournament at University of Phoenix Stadium. In 2013 the tournament hosted over 650 athletes from California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Colorado, Utah and Nevada participating throughout the weekend. Nine teams from the Cardinals NFL Flag program advanced to the national tournament which was held following the Super Bowl. Five of those teams advanced to the national championship. Since its inception, 12 teams from the Cardinals NFL Flag program have been crowned as national champions.

The Cardinals also continued their involvement with Arizona high school football with the weekly "High School Coach-of-the-Week" award and Wells Fargo "High School Player-of-the-Week" award during the 2013 season.

"HIGH SCHOOL COACH-OF-THE-WEEK"

- Starting its 20th consecutive season.
- Every week during the high school football season, a local panel selects a High School Coach of the Week and awards him a certificate signed by team President Michael Bidwill and Head Coach Bruce Arians in addition to a $1,000 check to the coach's school on behalf of Cardinals Charities.
- In 2013, 10 coaches were selected and a total of $10,000 was awarded to Arizona high school football programs.
- A "Coach-of-the-Year" was selected following the 2013 high school season and Norris Vaughn from Mountain Pointe H.S. was awarded an additional $2,000 for his school.

"HIGH SCHOOL PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK"

- Starting its 12th consecutive season and ninth presented by Wells Fargo.
- Every week during the high school football season, a local panel selects a High School Player of the Week who receives a football trophy acknowledging the award at the players' school during an awards ceremony.

- In 2013, 10 players were selected and each was awarded at their school in front of their peers with team mascot Big Red and an alumni player.
- A "Player-of-the-Year" was selected following the high school season and wide receiver Elijah Marks from Desert Edge H.S. was given a customized Cardinals jersey and a football trophy engraved with his season stats.

The Cardinals also remained busy during the holidays giving back to those less fortunate. Along with hosting a game day toy drive presented by The Room Store to benefit Arizonans for Children and a game day canned food drive that benefitted St. Mary's Food Bank, two of the marquee programs that the Cardinals participate in each season during that time of year are "Help Feed the Hungry" and "Teddy Bear Express."

HELP FEED THE HUNGRY

- Last year, Cardinals players and their families along with team President Michael Bidwill, front office personnel, cheerleaders and Big Red helped serve Thanksgiving dinner at the Phoenix Rescue Mission for more than 450 people.
- The 2013 season marked the 12th consecutive year of working with the Phoenix Rescue Mission during Thanksgiving.

TEDDY BEAR EXPRESS

- Each year, a Cardinals caravan with players, wives, front office personnel, Big Red and cheerleaders visit Phoenix Children's Hospital to deliver uniformed personalized teddy bears to children spending the holidays away from home.

- Last year, 11 players visited 400 children at PCH, passing out teddy bears while signing autographs, taking pictures and spreading holiday joy.
- The 2013 season was the 14th consecutive year of program.

The 2014 offseason once again allowed the Cardinals to focus on hosting bigger and more in-depth kids camps. In May, the Cardinals hosted the annual "Football Skills and Education Camp" presented by Dignity Health and SRP as well as the "Cardinals Kicking, Punting and Long Snapping Camp" presented by Dignity Health and SRP.

"FOOTBALL SKILLS AND EDUCATION CAMP" FEATURING A "MOM'S FOOTBALL SAFETY CLINIC"

- 13th consecutive summertime camp.
- Presented by Dignity Health and SRP and fueled by Gatorade.
- 600 high school football players and 125 moms from Arizona had the opportunity to receive a full day of classroom and on-field instruction from professionals at University of Phoenix Stadium.

- Cardinals players and alumni helped coach and instruct each individual position.
- A special "Mom's Football Safety Clinic" was held which was geared to mothers of the high school football players participating at the camp.

CARDINALS KICKING CAMP

- 10th consecutive summertime camp.
- Presented by Dignity Health and SRP and fueled by Gatorade.
- 150 kickers, punters and long-snappers from Arizona high school had the opportunity to gain instruction from Senior Director of Community Relations Luis Zendejas and a group of current and former Cardinals specialists.

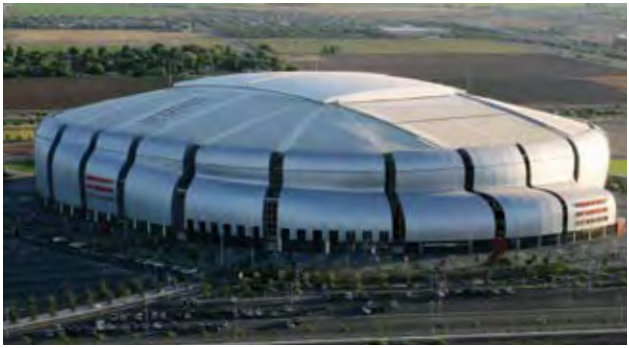
In addition to being active throughout the community with various player appearances and events, the Cardinals also gave back to the people of Arizona with donations of merchandise and memorabilia.

CARDINALS DONATIONS

- The Cardinals donated 40,000 items of signed merchandise (signed footballs, jerseys, pants, shoes and hats) to non-profit organizations in 2013 raising over $125,000 for local charities.
- Finally, during a sold out season at University of Phoenix Stadium last year, 10,000 game tickets were distributed to worthwhile organizations throughout the Valley.

Community service is never out of season for the Cardinals. For more information on the community programs, contact Luis Zendejas (602/379-0101).

ABOUT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

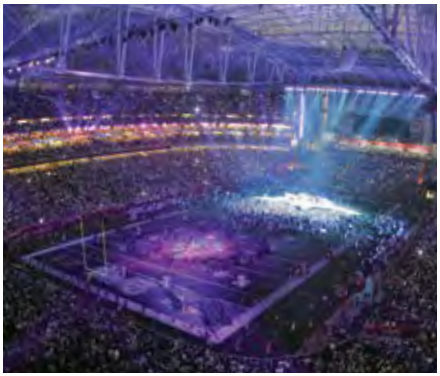


When the Cardinals embarked upon the task of building a new stadium they were intent on constructing a bold and innovative venue that would set the industry standard for design excellence and provide the ultimate in fan comfort. The result of those efforts is the $450 million University of Phoenix Stadium that opened in August of 2006. In addition to hosting Cardinals games, it has hosted the annual Fiesta Bowl and the BCS national championship game twice. It was also the site of Super Bowl XLII in 2008 (Giants over Patriots) and will again host the NFL's title game when Super Bowl XLIX is played there in February of 2015.

ARCHITECTURE: World-renowned architect Peter Eisenman, in partnership with HOK Sport and Hunt Construction Group, created a state-of-the-art design that has become a distinctive Arizona landmark. The stadium's exterior skin takes its design cue from the barrel cactus and features alternating sections of shimmering metal panels intended to reflect the shifting desert light alongside magnificent vertical glass slots allowing fans a spectacular view of the horizon from any level of the interior.

RETRACTABLE FIELD: University of Phoenix Stadium also features a unique rollout natural grass playing field, contained in a single tray weighing 18.9 million-pounds (234 feet wide, 403 feet long). The first completely retractable field in the United States, it is positioned inside the stadium on game days to offer the preferred natural-grass playing surface for football and outside the stadium for the remaining 350+ days of the year to receive sunlight and watering. The field tray is powered by electric motors mounted on steel wheels riding on tracks embedded in the concrete floor and will takes approximately 60 minutes to move completely. The flexibility of this unique design allows University of Phoenix Stadium to serve as a true multipurpose venue featuring a 160,000 square-foot event floor for other events.

RETRACTABLE ROOF: Atop the stadium roof are two large retractable panels that open and close on an arc. The panels and much of the roof are made of a translucent fabric called Birdair that enables light to penetrate and gives the venue an open, airy feel. When closed it also allows for an air conditioned environment during the hot months but the roof can be opened during cooler times of the year to take advantage of Arizona's patented sunshine. The roof takes about 10 minutes to open or close.



MULTI-PURPOSE: Because of the truly unique multi-purpose nature of the facility, University of Phoenix Stadium is able to host far more than just Cardinals home games. Since opening in August of 2006, the building has hosted Super Bowl 42, major concerts like the Rolling Stones, U2 and Kenny Chesney, two BCS national championship games, Fiesta Bowls, international soccer matches, AIA high school football championships, trade shows and conventions, 2009 West Regionals of the NCAA men's basketball tournament, and numerous other public and private events. In the next two years, University of Phoenix Stadium is scheduled to host the 2015 Pro Bowl, Super Bowl XLIX and 2016 College Football Championship game.

OTHER FEATURES: In addition to its high-design architecture and innovative design, the stadium also sets new standards for stadium comfort. Its layout provides for excellent site lines, comfortable seats, abundant restrooms and concession stands, spacious end-zone viewing decks, and wide concourses with an open design allowing for an unobstructed view of the field from both the lower and upper concourses. The stadium showcases two state-of-the-art videoboard/scoreboard displays prominently located in the end zones with excellent site lines from all seating areas. University of Phoenix Stadium includes 88 luxury lofts - know elsewhere as "suites" - that are unlike any others in the sports industry. Featuring a bold, modern interior design, loft amenities include preferred parking, an exclusive entrance, private restrooms, multiple televisions, and in-loft catering. In addition to the lofts, a luxurious Club Level features wider seats, preferred parking, private entrances, and a climate controlled Club Lounge with multiple two-story spaces, comfortable lounge seating, plentiful TV monitors, upgraded food and beverage offerings and dedicated restrooms. On-site parking accommodates 14,000 cars as part of an innovative site plan designed to create a truly unique tailgating experience for fans. This 160-acre region, known as Sportsman's Park, features over 20 acres of turf including the eight-acre public area known as the Great Lawn. In addition to the 14,000 on-site spaces, parking for an additional 7,500 vehicles is conveniently located on adjacent parcels and another 3,500 on other nearby parcels. University of Phoenix Stadium is owned by the Arizona Sports and Tourism Authority.

STADIUM TECHNOLOGY: The Arizona Cardinals have undertaken a significant project to upgrade the stadium telecommunication systems for improved wireless coverage at University of Phoenix Stadium. This project includes upgrades to 4G service coverage for Verizon, T-Mobile, AT&T, and Sprint throughout the Stadium. The Cardinals are also installing systems to extend 4G coverage outside to the Great Lawn, and to other grass and parking lot areas of Sportsman's Park.

In addition, the Cardinals will install a state of the art Cisco High Density Wi-Fi System that will allow fans to access high-speed Internet in their seats, and in all public areas of the Stadium. This system will be completed and ready for fans to use by the start of the 2014 NFL Season.

Enhancing the wireless communication systems will allow Cardinals fans to get game stats, highlights and video, post pictures and updates to friends and family, send and receive messages, and to make phone calls. These upgrades are part of the commitment that the Arizona Cardinals have made to ensure that the experience at Cardinals games is the best in the NFL.

UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM CONTINUES TO BE RECOGNIZED

University of Phoenix Stadium continues to rank as one of the NFL's best stadiums.

In the latest playing surface poll conducted by the NFLPA in the fall of 2010, University of Phoenix Stadium ranked as the number one grass playing surface among players, receiving 788 votes to 530 for Tampa Bay. It marked the second time it has been ranked number one (2008) after finishing third in 2006, the first season the stadium opened.

Below is a list of the top five grass playing surfaces in the NFL according to the NFLPA in 2010:

Venue	Team
1.	UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM	ARIZONA CARDINALS
2.	RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM	TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS
3.	QUALCOMM STADIUM	SAN DIEGO CHARGERS
4.	BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM	CAROLINA PANTHERS
5.	LAMBEAU FIELD	GREEN BAY PACKERS

In its series at the end of 2009, ranking the best in sports over the last decade, Sports Illustrated named University of Phoenix Stadium as the Best New Venue.

In selecting the facility #1, Sports Illustrated said: "Named for a college without a football team, this 1.7-million-square-foot stadium has quickly become one of the central venues in the sports world. It's home to the Arizona Cardinals and the Fiesta Bowl and hosted Super Bowl XLII in 2008. The award-winning design features a roof covered by a translucent fabric and exterior walls made of metallic panels to help with cooling inside. The field can be moved outside on rollers, enabling optimal grass growth in the desert setting."

Below is the complete list:

SPORTSMAN'S PARK

The area that surrounds and encompasses University of Phoenix Stadium is known as Sportsman's Park. The 160-acre region includes car parks, grass areas and other open space available to the public.

Sportsman's Park features over 20 acres of turf, including an eight-acre public area called the Great Lawn, as well as on-site car parks which will handle over 14,000 vehicles, and an abundance of trees and other landscape appointments native to the area.

Roughly 160 Goldwater Pine trees line the Great Lawn, an eight-acre expanse of grass which extends west from 95th Avenue to the Loop 101. The lawn stretches over 1,000 feet and is designed for use by fans while tailgating at games or to use during other activities outside the stadium. Thanks to many passionate Cardinals fans, the Great Lawn has become one of the top tailgating locations in the National Football League.

CARDINALS HOST FREE "SPRING TAILGATE" ON GREAT LAWN AT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

The Cardinals kicked off the first night of the 2014 Big Red Rib & Music Festival at University of Phoenix Stadium with a live television special from the Great Lawn on Thursday, April 24.

FOX Sports Arizona aired "Cardinals Spring Tailgate" from 7:00-8:00 p.m. with fans serving as the live studio audience. The show aired numerous times leading up to the NFL Draft in May.

Hosts Paul Calvisi and Ron Wolfley recapped the offseason so far in addition to looking ahead to the draft, training camp and 2014 season. Team President Michael Bidwill, General Manager Steve Keim and Head Coach Bruce Arians along with safety Tyrann Mathieu and new left tackle Jared Veldheer appeared on the program.

The show included questions from the fans in attendance as well as others submitted through the team's @AZCardinals Twitter account using the hashtag #CardsTailgate.

Immediately before and after "Cardinals Spring Tailgate," FOX Sports Arizona aired a special "Full Out or Get Out: the Making of the 2014 Cardinals Cheerleaders."

In addition to being part of the live TV special, fans attending the free event were treated to a performance from Cardinals Cheerleaders and the 7-foot 2-inch tall FOX Sports robot "Cleatus" was on hand for photos. Additionally, the Big Red Rib & Music Festival featured award-winning rib masters from around the country, a Kid's Interactive Zone along with amusement rides and carnival games for kids of all ages.

PAT TILLMAN MEMORIAL

The plaza surrounding University of Phoenix Stadium is known as the Pat Tillman Freedom Plaza, in honor of the former Cardinals safety who was killed in action on April 22, 2004 while serving as a member of the elite Army Ranger unit.

Fans attending home games can visit the Pat Tillman Memorial located at the northwest side of the plaza. The memorial includes a large white bronze sculpture of Tillman on the eastern side and a circular reflection pond on its western side.

The sculpture is approximately eight-feet tall, weighs over 500 pounds, and took nearly nine months to complete. After an extensive search, the Cardinals selected artists Omri Amrany and Gary Tillery to create the sculpture. The sculptors consulted with the team and Pat's wife, Marie, who worked to select the image of Tillman that would best convey his character and spirit. Serving as a backdrop to the sculpture is a nine-foot tall curved wall made of black concrete that measures 42 feet across, symbolic of Tillman's jersey number at Arizona State University.

The brimming pool of water on the western side consists of a large 60-foot circular pond made of black concrete and stainless steel. Intended to create a pool of tranquility, it has a surface area of 2,300 square feet.

To the west of the memorial is a grove of 40 Oak trees that symbolizes the jersey number Tillman wore as an Arizona Cardinal and the entire area is surrounded by a grove of Ash and Oak trees.

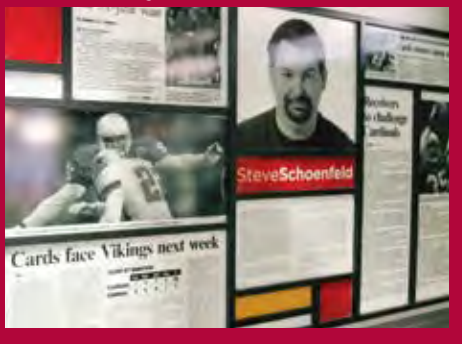
STEVE SCHOENFELD MEMORIAL PRESS BOX

The press box at University of Phoenix Stadium is named in honor of Steve Schoenfeld, who covered the team and the NFL for the Arizona Republic from 1988 until 2000 when he was killed by a hit-and-run driver.

Schoenfeld worked in Tulsa and Dallas before coming to Arizona and spent the last few months of his life covering the NFL for CBS SportsLine. A tough, but fair, reporter and an eloquent writer, he was president of the Pro Football Writers Association from 1997-99, and his untimely death stunned the league.

Steve was a loving family man as well. He was devoted to his wife, Robin, and was a loving son, brother and uncle. He cared deeply about his friends, and he seemed to have thousands of them.

Said Republic colleague and current beat writer Kent Somers, "Steve never met a stranger. He not only knew everyone, he had phone numbers for them, too - and didn't hesitate to call them. It's fitting the press box is named in honor of Steve, because to him there was no better place to be on a Sunday afternoon."



UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX SECURES STADIUM NAMING RIGHTS

On September 26, 2006 the Cardinals and University of Phoenix announced an exclusive, multi-year agreement with University of Phoenix to become the team's naming rights partner. It marked the first and only time a National Football League venue has been named after an educational institution.

University of Phoenix, the largest private university in the United States, agreed to invest an average of $7.7 million per year for 20 years in exchange for naming rights, signage and a variety of advertising, marketing and merchandising opportunities. In addition, the alliance enables the University - already international in scope - to reach an even greater number and diversity of potential students, while staying grounded in its hometown community.

UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM GOES GREEN

Since 2008, University of Phoenix has teamed up with hometown energy provider Salt River Project (SRP) to power every Arizona Cardinals home game with 100 percent renewable energy.

The Arizona Cardinals are one of only a handful NFL teams to play in a green-powered facility the last six years. For all eight home games and both preseason home contests, 95,000 kilowatt-hours of renewable energy purchased by University of Phoenix offsets electricity used in the stadium -- from the concession stands to the parking lot lighting to the scoreboards. This amount of electricity is comparable to what 60 average homes in Phoenix will use in one month.

University of Phoenix Stadium's green efforts started in early 2008, with the electricity needed to power Super Bowl XLII and the NFL Experience generated from 100 percent renewable energy resources through SRP's EarthWise Program. Additionally, University of Phoenix purchased renewable energy credits to power the Cardinals home game versus the San Francisco 49ers on November 11, 2008.

CARDINALS CONTINUE TO SELL OUT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

The Cardinals sellout streak at University Phoenix Stadium continued last season, selling out all 10 games (including preseason). Entering the 2014 season, the team has sold out all 83 games played at the stadium. Arizona averaged 61,034 fans per game in 2013, totaling 488,271 fans.

Arizona finished last season with a 6-2 record at home, marking the seventh straight season with a .500 record or better while playing at home and giving them the team a 42-25 home record, including postseason, dating back to the stadium's inaugural season in 2006. With a 10-6 overall record in 2013, the Cardinals have now gone .500 or better in five of the eight seasons at University of Phoenix Stadium. They finished .500 or better just twice in the 18 seasons prior.

Before the opening of University of Phoenix Stadium in 2006 there were only 12 games that sold out in time to be televised locally in 18 years at Sun Devil Stadium.

SURPASSING 5 MILLION

The Cardinals surpassed the five million mark in total attendance at University of Phoenix Stadium in Week 10 of the 2013 season at their 27-24 victory over the Houston Texans.

CARDINALS HONOR GARY L. TRUJILLO THROUGH THE NFL HISPANIC HERITAGE LEADERSHIP AWARD

The Cardinals honored Gary L. Trujillo in 2013 at their home game against the Detroit Lions as the recipient of the NFL Hispanic Heritage Leadership Award.

The NFL and the Hispanic Heritage Foundation (HHF) partnered for the third annual NFL Hispanic Heritage Leadership Awards during the 2013 celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month. The awards recognized the contributions of Hispanic leaders in each NFL market.

Trujillo founded Southwest Harvard Group in 1990 and has served as President & CEO since inception. He has served as the youngest school board member of the Phoenix Union High School District and was appointed by the Governor of the State of Arizona to become the First Chairperson of the Schools Facilities Board.

Trujillo's most treasured success is the creation of the Be a Leader Foundation (BALF) with his wife, Melissa. BALF's mission and programs support young students to become college bound, focused and prepared. The programs provide services to elementary, high school and college students to build self-esteem, leadership skills and to promote higher education, as well as mentoring through the stages of their educational and career development.

His educational commitment and achievements have been recognized throughout the country through the following honors and awards: Man of the Year from the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, Exemplary Leadership Award from Profiles of Success, Alumni of the Year from the Hispanic Scholarship Fund (HSF) and the Life-Time Achievement award from the Phoenix Business Journal. Trujillo currently serves on the boards of Wells Fargo Bank Desert Mountain Region and BlueCross and BlueShield of Arizona and is a member of Young Presidents' Organization.

Each award recipient selected an organization of their choice that serves the local Hispanic community to receive a $2,000 donation. Trujillo chose the Be a Leader Foundation to receive this donation. The Be a Leader Foundation designs programs that provide a positive learning environment and a college-focused mentality for each participant to develop their high school and college educational plan.

FEELY NAMED FINALIST FOR WALTER PAYTON NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

Cardinals kicker Jay Feely was one of three finalists for the 2013 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award, the only league award that a recognizes a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence. Charles Tillman from the Chicago Bears won the award at the NFL Honors on the night before Super Bowl XLVIII in New York.

Since joining the Cardinals in 2010, Feely has been an active participant in the Arizona community. He is a supporter and regular visitor at the Phoenix Ronald McDonald House and was honored with the "Game Changer" award at the Phoenix Rescue Mission for his years of service and dedication. Feely is also a supporter of the House of Refuge, a non-profit organization helping homeless families and individuals as they strive towards self-sufficiency and seek to obtain permanent housing. Along with his family, Jay created the Feely Family Foundation which focuses on the protection, education and rehabilitation of children.

"I feel like the biggest advantage you have as a professional athlete is the opportunity to give back," Feely said of being named the Cardinals 2013 Walter Payton Man of the Year. "People look to you to be a leader, but also look at you in a certain way just because you are an athlete. I think you can use that to your advantage to have an impact on people."

His charitable contributions extend beyond the U.S., including regular trips to Haiti as part of relief efforts following the devastating earthquake in 2010. While in Haiti, Feely has taken part in the process of rebuilding a church that was destroyed by the earthquake while also working with an orphanage outside of Port Au Prince to bring clothes and other goods for donation.

Feely became the third Cardinal to be a finalist for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award in the past six years, joining quarterback Kurt Warner (2008) and wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald (2012), with Warner winning the award in 2008.

ARIZONA AT THE FOREFRONT ON CONCUSSION PREVENTION AMONG STUDENT ATHLETES

In August of 2011, the Arizona Cardinals, Barrow Neurological Institute at St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center, and the Arizona Interscholastic Association (AIA) announced a major breakthrough in concussion prevention and research that immediately affected more than 100,000 Arizona student athletes.

Arizona became the first state to mandate all student athletes undergo concussion education and pass a formal test before play through a new program specifically geared toward students. Arizona ranked second in the nation for traumatic brain injury, and previously, there had never been a mandated education and testing program designed for student athletes to teach them about the dangerous effects of concussions. The program, designed by AIA, Barrow and the Arizona Cardinals, is changing the face of high school sports in Arizona.

"There are approximately three million sports-related concussions nationally each year," says Javier Cárdenas, MD, neurologist at Barrow Neurological Institute, who has taken a state-wide lead in concussion prevention. "Players recognizing the signs and symptoms of concussion can prevent death and disability."

All student athletes through the AIA receive their concussion education through Brainbook, an interactive online site created by Barrow and Arizona State University. Designed to look like a social media site, the students are taken through a series of educational content, activities and videos. At the end of the module, the students are required to pass a formal exam before being cleared to play. The module is the first collaborative educational effort between a pro football team, a hospital, and an interscholastic agency. Brainbook is currently being evaluated for implementation in other states throughout the nation.

In addition to the education program, Barrow has received a $250,000 grant from the Maddock Foundation to develop a research registry which will track concussed student athletes. This will be a powerful tool for Barrow neurologists and researchers to make never-before-known insights into the long-term effects of concussion.

CARDINALS HOST FOOTBALL SAFETY CLINIC FOR MOMS

The Cardinals hosted a "Football Safety Clinic" geared to a group of 100 mothers of youth football players from "Heads Up Football" leagues around Arizona at the team's training facility in March.

The clinic, held in conjunction with USA Football's "Heads Up Football" program, included a classroom discussion about proper nutrition and hydration as well as concussions with presentations from Dr. Javier Cardenas of the Barrow Neurological Institute and Chad Cook, a Cardinals athletic trainer. It also focused on displaying the proper techniques for tackling, equipment fitting and general safety for youth football players.

In addition, Cardinals guard Jonathan Cooper, linebacker Lorenzo Alexander and wide receiver Jaron Brown joined Cardinals defensive coordinator Todd Bowles, offensive coordinator Harold Goodwin, cornerbacks coach Kevin Ross, assistant offensive line coach Larry Zierlein and several former Cardinals players to help demonstrate on-field drills using proper technique.

"Heads Up Football" is a comprehensive approach to a better and safer game, encompassing USA Football's accredited Level 1 Coach Certification Course. USA Football leads the game's development, inspires participation and ensures a better and safer experience for all youth, high school and other amateur players. The independent nonprofit is the official youth football development partner of the NFL, its 32 teams and the NFL Players Association.

Paul Calvisi

GAME-DAY RADIO PROGRAMMING

In 2014, Cardinals games will air on Arizona Sports 98.7 FM. Arizona Sports 98.7 FM will also air pre-game and post-game programming for every contest as well as non-game day programming including the Big Red Rage.

Calling the play-by-play for his 13th straight season with the Cardinals is Dave Pasch. He joined the team in 2002 after three seasons as the football and basketball voice of Syracuse University. In addition to Cardinals broadcasts, Pasch can be seen on ESPN calling NBA and college football and basketball.

Joining Pasch for his 10th year as radio analyst is Ron Wolfley, former player and four-time Pro Bowl selection and special-teams standout with the Cardinals, who selected him in the fourth round of the 1985 draft. One-half of the "Doug and Wolf Show" on Arizona Sports 98.7 FM, the Buffalo, NY native played collegiately at West Virginia before enjoying a 10-year NFL career with the Cardinals (1985-91), Browns (1992-93) and Rams (1995).

Arizona Sports 98.7 FM talk-show host and Cardinals reporter Paul Calvisi offers sideline commentary during the game broadcasts.

Game-day programming begins four-and-a-half hours prior to kickoff on Arizona Sports 98.7 FM with "Cardinals Early Bird," a half-hour look at the week of preparation featuring content from Cardinals Lunch Hour, Cardinals Underground, The Big Red Rage and more.

Three hours prior to kickoff is "The NFL Kickoff Show." Hosted by former Cardinals running back and current Alumni Programs Manager Damien Anderson along with azcardinals.com beat reporter Darren Urban, the show spotlights the upcoming Cardinals matchup and the latest gameday news from around the NFL.

Two hours prior to kickoff, Calvisi will be joined by former Cardinals linebacker Rob Fredrickson, former defensive end Bertrand Berry and Anderson for the "Pre-Game Huddle." Fredrickson played with the Cardinals from 1999-2002 and Berry spent 12 years in the NFL, playing for the Cardinals from 2004-2009.

"Cardinal Talk," a post-game fan-interactive program, can be heard immediately following each contest on Arizona Sports 98.7 FM. Hosted by KTAR reporter Craig Grialou, Cardinal Talk allows fans to give their opinion on each game and hear expert analysis from Fredrickson, Anderson, and Berry.

WEEKDAY RADIO PROGRAMMING

New in 2014 is the "Cardinals Lunch Hour," a one-hour show airing each Monday on Arizona Sports 620 AM. The program takes a look at the previous game, provides NFL updates and features guests from around the league.

Also making its debut this season is the "Cardinals Two-Minute Drill." It's a year-round look at the hot topics surrounding the Arizona Cardinals airing twice each weekday on Arizona Sports 620 AM.

Rounding out new radio programming is "The Friday Five," examining the five things to look for in the upcoming Cardinals game. The segment airs every Friday throughout the season on Arizona Sports 620 AM.

Check AZCardinals.com for specific air times.

Returning to the airwaves in 2014 is "The Big Red Rage." Live from Majerle's in Chandler for the seventh consecutive season, "The Big Red Rage" is co-hosted by Paul Calvisi and Ron Wolfley, who will be joined by DE Calais Campbell and another player for each program. The show typically airs from 6:00-7:00 p.m. on Thursday evenings throughout the season on Arizona Sports 620 AM. If there is a scheduling conflict with a Diamondbacks or Suns game, check azcardinals.com or @AZCardinals on Twitter for date and time changes. "The Rage" will re-air Saturdays on Arizona Sports 620 AM.

SPANISH RADIO

In 2000, the Cardinals became the first professional team in Arizona to offer all games – preseason and regular season, home and away - on Spanish-language radio. The broadcasts can be heard on Jose 106.9/107.1 FM. Game day coverage begins two hours prior to kickoff.

Gabriel Trujillo

Rolando Cantu

The broadcast team of Gabriel Trujillo (play-by-play) and former Cardinals offensive lineman Rolando Cantu (analyst) return in 2014.

Trujillo is in his 15th season of play-by-play with the Cardinals. From 2000-2005, he also called the action in Spanish for the Phoenix Suns. Cantu played with the Cardinals for two seasons (2005-06), and during the 2005 season, he became the first Mexican born player (non-kicker) to ever take the field in an NFL regular season game. In addition to his broadcast duties, Cantu also serves as the team's Manager of International Business Affairs.

CARDINALS ON TELEVISION

PRE-SEASON TV

The Cardinals are back again on ABC 15 (KNXV-TV) for the 2014 preseason in high definition. Dave Pasch (play-by-play) will be joined by Ron Wolfley (analyst), and Jody Jackson (sideline). The Cardinals Broadcast Team recently received an Emmy Award (Rocky Mountain Region) for excellence in a live event for the preseason coverage.

TEAM SHOWS

The team will produce four TV programs throughout the 2014 season: "Cardinals: Season In Focus," "Cardinals Flight Plan: with Head Coach Bruce Arians," "Cards OT," and "Cardinals Headquarters." The programs can be found on ABC 15 (KNXV-TV), NBC 12 News (KPNX-TV) and Fox Sports Arizona.

"Cardinals: Season In Focus" is a weekly half-hour program dedicated to providing a close-up view of the team, on and off the field. Each week, segments such as the popular "Wired," as well as the Emmy Award winning "Zoom" tell the story of the season, and shed light on the personalities within the team. The show is hosted by Paul Calvisi. (ABC 15, Saturday mornings at 9 a.m./FS Arizona, Sunday mornings)

"Cardinals Flight Plan: with Head Coach Bruce Arians" allows viewers to see and hear the inside story straight from the man in charge. Hosted by Ron Wolfley, the show will feature an in-depth look at pivotal plays from the previous week's game with an eye on the upcoming opponent and the Cardinals plan for victory. (12 News, Sunday 12:00 am following Saturday Night Live/FS Arizona, Sunday mornings*)

"Cardinals Headquarters," airing exclusively on Fox Sports Arizona, will feature a recap of the previous game and a look ahead to the next opponent. The show is hosted by Jody Jackson. (FS Arizona, check local listings)

"Cards OT" is a live post-game show airing on Fox Sports Arizona after regular season home games, providing fans with an immediate breakdown of the game. Jackson hosts with former NFL players Bertrand Berry and Glenn Parker serving as analysts. The program begins approximately 15 minutes after the final whistle and typically re-airs Sunday evenings.

*Check weekly local listings for specific times or log on to azcardinals.com for up-to-date showtimes.

SPANISH RADIO

Over the last 14 years the Arizona Cardinals Football Club has reached out to its Spanish language speaking fans by becoming the first professional team in Arizona to offer all games on Spanish radio (2000), and launching a Spanish language version of the team's web site www.azcardenales.com (2007).

The broadcast team of Gabriel Trujillo (play-by-play), and former Cardinals offensive lineman Rolando Cantú (analyst) will be back again in 2014. Trujillo returns for his 15th season of play-by-play with the Cardinals. From 2000-2005, he also called the action in Spanish for the Phoenix Suns. Cantú played with the Cardinals for two seasons (2005-06), and during the 2005 season, he became the first Mexican born player non-kicker to ever take the field in an NFL regular season game. In addition to his broadcast duties, Cantú is also the team's Manager of International Business Affairs.

The Cardinals broadcast in Spanish airs locally on José 107.1 FM. In 2008, the Cardinals expanded the content of their game broadcasts with "Conteo Progresivo" a one-hour Spanish language pre-game show hosted by Trujillo and Cantú. In 2012, the pre-game show was again expanded to further offer insight into the next opponent with "Primera Y Diez (First and Ten)", the one hour Spanish language program.

The Spanish broadcast team will be back on the web as they return for "Al Cronómetro" (On The Clock) a Spanish language web-show that recaps the last game and looks ahead at the next opponent.

For the seventh straight season, the Cardinals will bring the Spanish language broadcast to fans in Mexico. The team has partnered with Larsa Comunicaciones (Larsa Communications Group), the leading radio network in northern Mexico to bring the broadcast to 26 stations in 18 cities throughout Mexico, including Guadalajara, Puerto Vallarta, Hermosillo and Mexico City.
